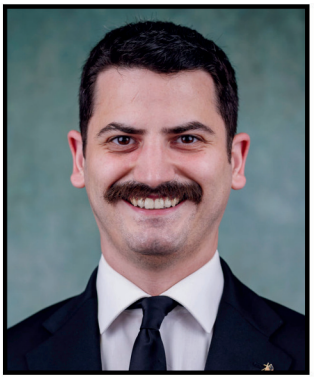
Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Elizabeth Ann Seton was an American Catholic educator and the first person born in what would become the United States to be canonized by the Catholic Church. Elizabeth Ann Seton was born in New York and raised Episcopalian and was a wealthy socialite. After Elizabeth's husband William, died from tuberculosis his business parters the Filicchi's took Elizabeth and her children in. The Filicchi's taught Elizabeth about the Catholic church and about the Eucharist Elizabeth converted to Catholicism in 1805. Elizabeth Ann Seton organized the Daughters of Charity, the first Catholic order founded in the United States, in Emmitsburg Maryland, in 1813. When Pope Paul VI canonized Elizabeth Ann Seton in 1975 the Pope declared Elizabeth as wholly American, meaning she was truly American as a native born



American but in terms as being Holy American as a commitment to her Catholic faith. I drew my drawing of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton at The National Shrine of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton down at seminary where I got to sit in the pews next to the altar which houses Saint Elizabeth's remains. I have taken on Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton as a spiritual mother figure and wanted to draw showing her calmness, holding her bible and seeing joy on her face. Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, a Saint for all seasons, pray for us.

· · · The Pastor's Corner · · ·

"Go, repair my house, which as you can see is falling into ruins."- These are the words of Christ to St. Francis, who then after hearing this through a vision received the stigmata, the wounds of Christ, on September 17, 1224. In hindsight, Jesus is commissioning St. Francis to 'Go and rebuild my Church'.

My friends, today, on October 4, 2026, we celebrate the 800th Anniversary of St. Francis entrance into eternal life, and these words that Christ spoke to him, are what He speaks to us as we celebrate and ask for the intercession from this great Saint to do here in the Litchfield Hills. As I present to you our Parish Annual Review, or as I like to call it, 'The Parish State of the Union', I want all of us to reflect wholeheartedly on what these words mean to us. To 'rebuild' something, doesn't necessarily mean we have to completely start over. Rather, it is building from what we already have and restructuring it from the 'ruins'.

In our Gospel for today with the landowner, the tenants, the servants, the son, and the vineyard, I would like us to look at this from the literal perspective as to what each 'character' symbolizes: The landowner, who is the Father, plants (or creates) a vineyard- which can represent heaven, the world, or even more specifically the Church. The tenants represent, the people of Israel, and specifically the religious leaders during the time of ancient Israel, the Pharisees and Sadducees, the elders, and even some of the religious leaders during our time. The servants represent the prophets and anyone whom the Father sends to collect the harvest from the vineyard, the Saints post-Resurrection, and the good religious leaders- Priests, Bishops, and the Pope. The son represents Christ Himself. When the tenants, who have been hired by the landowner, kill the servants, and the son, whom the landowner thought they would respect, it is because of them that the vineyard has been put to ruins. However, the son, is an interesting character in himself, as Christ describes Himself as, "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." The 'son' or Christ, is to become the new foundation that arises from the ruins of the vineyard, in order to establish something new and eternal.

My friends, we are here to do just that. With Christ as the foundation and the words of St. Francis, we are going to 'rebuild the Church' here in the Litchfield Hills. The bridges we build will help to establish our relationship with Christ and lead us across to the vineyard of the Lord. But, it is in the vineyard of the world, and specifically the Church, where we must focus our bridge building skills to 'rebuild' the Church that Christ desires for us. Over these next several weeks we will be focusing on St. Francis, his life, and as our theme, 'Rebuild My Church' so that we can do just that and become the tenants and the servants who do the Father's will and help everyone to get to heaven.

-Fr. Matt

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD OCTOBER 3 - 9, 2026

West Haven Parish Prays to Our Blessed Mother Monthly on the First Saturdays

- Story By Joe Pisani

Father Israel Rivera, pastor of St. John XXIII Parish, prays with children at the statue of Our Lady of Fatima at St. John Vianney Church in West Haven a First Saturday devotion on Sept. 5. PHOTO BY JOE PISANI

All her life, Eva Cestari has had a devotion to the Blessed Mother — from her Catholic schooling in Minnesota to the years she and her husband Ralph prayed the rosary with their six children at home and on camping trips.

A longtime Lay Dominican, Cestari is also committed to what is referred to as the "Five First Saturdays" devotion, given by Our Lady of Fatima to do reparation for the increase of sin and godlessness in the world.

For 15 years, Cestari has prayed on all First Saturdays of each month, and with her fellow Lay Dominicans has tried to spread it to archdiocesan churches.
Four years ago, she and her friend Marla Rapini brought it to St. John Vianney Church, part of St. John XXIII Parish in West Haven, along with St. Louis Church. Parishioners do more than pray on the First Five Saturdays — they pray this devotion on the First Saturday of each month.

On Sept. 5, some 80 people from both West Haven churches came to a Mass celebrated by Father Israel Rivera. Afterward, they prayed the Joyful Mysteries of the rosary in English and Spanish followed by meditation. Father Rivera also called the children to gather around a statue of Our Lady of Fatima and blessed them.

The priest says his personal devotion to the Blessed Mother deepened during his priesthood and he regards her as the perfect role model of discipleship. "The world, with all its turmoil and suffering, needs the presence of the Blessed Mother," Father Rivera says. "It is her promise to Lucia, one of the children at Fatima, if we do reparation for sins, especially sins of blasphemy against the name of the Lord and her, that she will assist us at the hour of our death with the graces we need for salvation. We have to make reparation, receive communion, pray the rosary and go to confession."

Father Rivera says the First Saturday Mass is "a wonderful display of unity of the parishioners from both churches."

In 2023, Cestari made a pilgrimage to Fatima, Portugal, where Our Lady appeared to three shepherd children in 1917 and said: "People must amend their lives and ask pardon for their sins. They must not offend Our Lord anymore, for he is already much offended."

The Blessed Mother later told the visionary Lucia: "I promise to assist at the moment of death, with all the graces necessary for salvation, all those who on the First Saturday of five consecutive months, shall confess, receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the rosary and keep me company for 15 minutes while meditating on the 15 mysteries of the rosary with the intention of making reparation to me."
The confession should be made within eight days before or after the First Saturday, and these acts should be offered in reparation for the blasphemies and offenses committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Rapini, who has prayed the devotion throughout her life, says, "It's so important to me and to bring about peace in the world today, we need to heed Our Lady's words. Sitting in church, praying the rosary in community and spending time with the Blessed Mother in meditation, brings me a sense of peace and encouragement that strengthens me throughout the $month."Says Cestari, "We know that in the end, the Immaculate Heart of Mary will triumph."

St. John Vianney Church, 300 Captain Thomas Blvd., West Haven, celebrates Mass at 8:30 a.m. followed by the rosary and 15 minutes of meditation every first Saturday of the month.
