My friends, this Sunday we have the privilege of welcoming Fr. Emmanuel Lazarus Mezza from the Archdiocese of Mbeya here representing the African Benedictine Sisters of Our Lady Help of Christians in Ndanda as a part of this year's Archdiocesan Mission Co-Op. This is a unique opportunity for us here in our Parish as we learn about a very unique ministry in our Parish, and how we have the ability to assist them in building bridges to Christ in their Community. Next week we will continue on in our series of "Rebuild My Church", but I believe this Mission helps us to see how the Church is being built in another part of our world, and what we can do here in our Parish.

-Fr. Matt

Brief History of African Benedictine Sisters of Our Lady Help of Christians in Ndanda

The first Benedictine Missionaries from St. Ottilien in Germany arrived in East Africa on January 12, 1883, and landed on Zanzibar Island, and later moved to the mainland (Tanganyika) and came to the Pugu area in Dar-es-Salaam. In 1894, September 30, the Missionaries moved further southwards and reached the Lindi Region (Province). By then, Lindi was a strong area of Islam influence. After about 60 years of the arduous work of evangelization to the native Muslims and believers of traditional African religions. The African Benedictine Sisters of Our Lady Help of Christians is a Diocesan congregation in Mtwara Tanzania. The Mother House is in Ndanda, Mtwara Region in the Catholic Diocese of Mtwara, Tanzania. The Congregation founded on the th6 January 1946; inaugurated the Congregation 'under the patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary the Help of Christians, by the Benedictine Monks from Germany St Ottilien Congregation, under the leadership by then the late Abbot - Bishop Joachim Amman of Ndanda Diocese in cooperation with the Tutzing Missionary Benedictine Sisters. The motto of the congregation is "ORA ET LABORA", which means the Congregation follows the rule of ST. BENEDICT – 'PRAY AND WORK' The Mission and Apostolates of the Congregation are: Evangelization: spreading the Good News (the Gospel) to all people. However, it is very difficult because the people along the Indian Ocean are Muslims that hinder us more to spread God's word. Caring for the sick, orphans, and the elderly. Vocational training for youth (girls & boys). Empowering women and girls in different skills. For example, home designing skills, crochets, knighting, and sawing. Teaching Catechists and other education from kindergartens, primary schools, secondary, colleges and Universities without discrimination of color or religion (diversity). Agricultural and livestock husbandry. Missionary work within and outside the country: Archdioceses of Dar-es-Salaam, Mwanza, Mbeya, USA, Mtwara, Lindi, Tunduru-Masasi, and Pemba Diocese in Mozambique. Education: We have two schools; one in Novitiate Narunyu formation house. The other school is located in Nachingwea, Lindi. Formation Houses – Narunyu (Lindi) &; Kawekamo (Mwanza). In this case, it is so difficult for the congregation to fulfill our ministries or evangelization due to countless challenges that come across spiritually, mentally, and physically. With your support, we can make a difference. The needs of our community and the people we serve are so many; but this year, the funds intended to utilize in three major urgent areas includes: 1. To dig a borehole to get safe and clean water at our schools and centers, community, and the village people nearby. Sometimes alligators or lions are killing people when they go fetch water to streams and the water is contaminated. 2. Basic human needs for orphans and street children at St. Leonard Pre Primary School (Narunyu) and later plan to extend another center in Ndanda Mother House. 3. Renovation of our Monastery that was built in the 1940s, such as fixing old and rotten windows, kitchen, roof and hot water pump.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD OCTOBER 10 - 16, 2026

Monthly Luncheons in Waterbury Keep Older Adults Connected to One Another

- Story by Karen A. Avitabile

Sisters Lucille and Marie Therrien wanted to help older adults in their parish community stay in touch with one another while enjoying a good meal at the same time.

For nearly four decades, various groups within St. Michael the Archangel Church in Waterbury have been involved with sponsoring a luncheon for older parishioners.

About eight years ago, Marie decided to restart the lunch for mature parishioners with the help of her sister. This monthly gathering, which is open to parishioners of Immaculate Conception Parish, has expanded significantly and now draws an average of 100 people each month.

"We have fun doing it and people enjoy the food," Lucille says. "People look forward to it."

The sisters, former residents of Waterbury, now reside in Wolcott and generously sponsor the lunch gatherings for guests. With assistance from volunteers, they handle the shopping, prepare the meal, coordinate catering if needed and help to serve it.

The volunteers also assist by setting up the church hall for the lunches by arranging tables, chairs, tablecloths, napkins, plates, cups and utensils.

On a recent Wednesday, guests enjoyed a meal of ziti, meatballs, salad and bread followed by cookies and ice cream for dessert. Volunteers and guests usually bring the desserts to share.

Parishioner and Waterbury resident Donna Marburger is a regular volunteer. "It's a way of serving the church family and God," she says. "I help out wherever Marie needs me. I love this community here."

Guests say they enjoy getting together to meet up with friends and their parish community.

Jim Robinson has been attending the luncheons for about a year. "We had heard about it and people said we needed to come," he says. "It's nice to get together."

Father James Sullivan, rector of Immaculate Conception Parish, and Auxiliary Bishop Juan Miguel Betancourt offer a blessing over the food and often dine with the parishioners.

"We do a lot for the young in the parish," Father Sullivan says, "but it's great to have something just for the seniors. It creates a great community."

Bishop Betancourt concurs. "I enjoy being with them. I love the work they are doing."

Older adults from Immaculate Conception Parish in Waterbury are invited to a free lunch held on the third Wednesday of each month, noon to 1:30 p.m., in the basement church hall of St. Michael the Archangel Church, 62 St. Michael's Drive, Waterbury. No reservations are needed. For questions, call the parish office, 203.574.0017.
