ANNUNCIATION PARISH

“So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.” Matthew 10:31

The readings for the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A remind us to trust in God, even when we face challenges. They show that God is with us, gives us strength, and offers us grace through Jesus.

Trust in God’s Protection: Jeremiah faced danger for speaking God’s truth, but he trusted that God would protect him. Jesus tells His followers not to be afraid because God watches over them.

Courage in Faith: Jeremiah and Jesus both talk about standing firm in faith, even when others oppose us. God calls us to be brave and trust that He will take care of us.

God’s Mercy and Kindness: The psalm reminds us that God listens to those who suffer. Even in hard times, we can call on Him and trust in His love.

Sin and Grace: Adam’s sin brought suffering, but Jesus brings new life. Because of Jesus, we can receive grace and forgiveness.

Fear of God, Not People: Jesus tells His followers not to fear those who can harm the body. Instead, they should respect and follow God, who has power over both body and soul.

God Knows and Cares: Jesus reminds His followers that God knows even when a small bird falls. If God cares for the smallest creatures, He surely cares for each of us.

Mission Appeal – June 27–28 Weekend

We are blessed to welcome Most Rev. Mathew Nellikkunnel CST, Bishop of the Diocese of Gorakhpur, India, who will be with us on the weekend of June 27–28 to make the Mission Appeal.

The Catholic Diocese of Gorakhpur, located in the northern Indian state of Uttar Pradesh along the Nepal border, serves a vast mission territory marked by poverty, social challenges, and a small Catholic population. For the past 42 years, the Diocese has faithfully carried out the mission of Christ through pastoral care, education, healthcare, social outreach, and charitable works among the poor and marginalized.

Today, the Diocese is served by dedicated priests, religious, and missionaries who tirelessly minister in parishes, schools, mission stations, healthcare centers, and social service programs. Despite limited financial resources and many challenges, the Diocese continues to bring hope, dignity, and the love of Christ to countless lives.

We warmly welcome Bishop Mathew and humbly request your generous support and prayers for the mission work of the Diocese of Gorakhpur. Your kindness and generosity will make a meaningful difference in the lives of many families and communities in need.

May God bless you abundantly for your generosity and solidarity with the mission of the Diocese of Gorakhpur.

Important News

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to all families who responded to the Faith Formation 2026 form and provided valuable feedback. Faith Formation for the upcoming year will be transitioning to a bi-monthly schedule with two different day options and children's mass, with the exception of K-1st grade students, who will meet once monthly in addition to children's mass.

CONFIRMATION

This past week, I had the opportunity to speak with other Faith Formation leaders regarding retreat offerings and ways to give back to our Parish community as we guide them towards their Confirmation. All confirmation students entering Grades 8 and 9 this upcoming Fall will attend a retreat at Holy Family Retreat Center in Farmington and will have the opportunity to give back to our Parish community at the Parish Picnic on August 23rd or Parish Tag Sale on September 12th.

Ways to pray with your child

Last week I stumbled upon an article published by the Institute for Family Studies on "Passing The Torch: How Faith Moves Across Generations" and I knew I would have to share it in our monthly newsletter. In the article it shares "Research consistently shows that families are the single most important factor in whether children adopt and maintain faith into adulthood. Congregational programs, clergy leadership, and peer networks matter as well, but they are most effective when reinforced within the home. Studies demonstrate that parental modeling, shared faith practices, and the quality of parent-child relationships are among the strongest predictors of adult religiosity. When faith is embedded in everyday routines through conversation, ritual, and visible commitment, children are more likely to internalize it as part of their enduring identity." We can give our Faith Formation students all the tools and they know all the teachings in their brains but how do we get them to believe it in their heart? Start simple- pray over a meal together, before bed, Thank God for another day, do it together and stay consistent. Consistency is key to success just like in sports. The more we do it the more natural it will become.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

Catholic Public Policy Office Celebrates

Legislative Wins

- Story by Jim Tierney

The Connecticut Catholic Public Affairs Conference had a successful 2026 legislative session, helping defeat efforts to expand abortion rights, weaken protections for Catholic hospitals and schools, and restrict vacation Bible schools.

"Like all advocacy groups, the conference depends greatly on those who respond to our action alerts and contact their elected representatives and submit testimony," says Deacon David Reynolds, the Conference's associate director of public policy. "Thanks to the hard work of faithful citizens who did their part, we were able to protect our religious freedom and respect for life."

Below is a summary of proposals opposed by the Conference, the voice of the Catholic Church on issues, during the Connecticut Legislative Session that adjourned May 6.

Senate Bill 295, Abortion/Gender Identity Shield Law. The Conference opposed a bill expanding legal protections for abortion and transgender-related telehealth providers across state lines, arguing it would hinder other states' ability to enforce their laws; the bill died on the Senate calendar.

"Many states and European nations are changing regulations for minors with gender dysphoria based on new studies," Reynolds explains. "Connecticut should not protect doctors treating patients in other states through telemedicine where that approach is banned."

House Bill 5516, Religious Freedom – Catholic Hospitals. The Conference opposed this bill, arguing it would limit Catholic hospitals' ability to enforce their religious healthcare directives. The bill died on the House calendar.

"If someone was to read this proposed legislation the attack on Catholic hospitals would not be self-evident," Reynolds says. "However, once the testimony is given at the public hearing the target becomes very clear. The advocates want doctors within Catholic hospitals to provide support for abortions and gender-affirming care, without any disciplinary actions taken against them."

House Bill 5309, Parental Notification for a Minor's Abortion. The bill would have required parents to be notified when a minor seeks an abortion, though it did not require parental consent. The bill received its first public hearing on the issue in Connecticut but died in committee without a vote.

"Connecticut has a mixed public policy on minors," Reynolds explains. "Parts of our laws hold that a minor is not mature enough mentally to decide about getting a tattoo or taking an aspirin at school without a parent's permission. However, when it comes to obtaining an abortion, they are mature enough to make a decision to have one without any parental involvement."

House Bill 5044 (Vaccine Bill) Protect Religious Freedom Restoration Act. The Conference opposed HB 5044's removal of certain vaccination laws from Connecticut's Religious Freedom Restoration Act, arguing that it weakens religious liberty protections and sets a troubling precedent. The bill was ultimately passed and was signed into law.

"Although the Church has no formal objections to vaccinations, eroding a law that is meant to give citizens a right to protect their religious beliefs is a major concern," Reynolds explains. "The Conference views this as an erosion of religious liberty in our state and an opening of the door to future limitations on our first freedom."

Senate Bill 137 Vacation Bible School Reclassification. The Conference opposed a provision that would have subjected vacation Bible schools to day camp regulations and fees, arguing it would burden churches. The language was later removed from the bill.

"The original language in this bill would have been devastating to all Catholic and non-Catholic vacation Bible schools in our state," Reynolds says. "We are very fortunate that we were able to get the language removed."
