

BLESSED SACRAMENT SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE PRESENTS

Season of Giving: Charity & Craft Fair

November 8, 2026

9am-1pm
3109 Swede Ave
Midland, MI 48642

Give the Gift of Generosity

Justice • Love • Peace • Hope

How It Works

- Unique Gifts for Everyone: From handmade crafts to donation-based gifts that honor a loved one, you'll find something for every person (and every budget). New addition: traditional art and craft vendors selling handmade crafts.
- Gifts that Keep on Giving: Proceeds support essential causes — from clean water to disaster relief to local food programs.
- Flexible Giving: Set your own donation amounts for charity booths, making it easy to stay within your budget.

At the Fair:

- Shop from trusted nonprofit and charitable organizations offering gifts that support life-changing missions both locally and globally.
- Browse handmade goods, art, and more from local vendors, perfect for thoughtful, one-of-a-kind holiday presents.
- Bring a gently used children's or adult book to our Book Exchange and take home a used book to enjoy or regift!
- The Ladies Group will be selling homemade cookies, and children can decorate a cookie of their own, with proceeds benefiting the Peanut Butter Project.
- The Knights will be selling delicious hot soups and breakfast burritos with an eat-in area to enjoy.
- Children can create Acts of Kindness Coupons to share with family, friends, and neighbors, spreading the spirit of generosity throughout the season.
- Enjoy cider, hot coffee, or donuts while you browse, shop, and connect with fellow community members.
