A Vineyard Overflowing with New Life

Called to Bear Fruit

Dear Friends:

In this Sunday's Gospel (Matthew 21:33-43), Jesus tells the Parable of the Tenants and concludes with a powerful charge: God's kingdom belongs to those who will produce its fruit.

When we look at our own parish today, we see a vineyard that is not only well-tended, but overflowing with new life, fresh hope, and incredible momentum! God has entrusted us with a vibrant community, and we are witnessing the Holy Spirit work in extraordinary ways right now.

Our OCIA program has welcomed its largest class in parish history!

Volunteers stepped up to serve across our various parish ministries at our Ministry Fair last weekend!

Our CCD classes have officially kicked off, filling our halls with children learning the joy of our faith!

Our Confirmandi are gearing up for the Diocesan Youth Summit—heading off together on a bus for a fun, high-energy, and deeply spiritual trip that will fire up their faith!

The parable in Matthew reminds us that faith is never meant to sit still. A healthy vineyard grows, branches out, and yields a rich harvest. Every single one of us—whether welcoming an OCIA candidate, serving in a newly joined ministry, teaching a CCD class, chaperoning our youth on a bus ride, or encouraging our own families to put faith at the center of life—is called to be a joyful worker in God's vineyard.

Where is God calling you to produce fruit?

Do not let the excitement in our parish pass you by as a bystander in the pews. If you haven't yet found your place to serve, take that leap of faith. Reach out to a ministry leader, offer a kind word to someone sitting alone at Mass, pray daily for our OCIA candidates and youth, or volunteer your time where help is needed. Your willingness to share your gifts and time breathes new energy and vitality into our entire community.

As we celebrate the wonderful blessings across our parish, let us ask the Holy Spirit to keep our hearts grateful, active, and rooted in Christ.

May we continue to bear fruit that lasts!

MATTHEW 21:37

FROM THE CATECHISM

CCC 2044 — “The Church, ‘like a family, is to be a place where children are brought up in the faith and in Christian life.’ The witness of a Christian life and good works done in a supernatural spirit have a powerful attraction for men and women and are an essential part of evangelization.”

CCC 1816 — “The disciple of Christ must not only keep the faith and live on it, but also profess it, confidently bear witness to it, and spread it.”

SACRAMENTS

Baptism: Congratulations to our parents on the upcoming birth of your child. Call the Church Office at least three months before your baby's birth. We look forward to helping you and your godparents prepare for the Sacrament of Baptism. Baptism seminar is required.

First Sacraments & Confirmation: We joyfully support families as children prepare to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Confirmation. Preparation includes both catechesis and opportunities for spiritual growth, helping children encounter Christ more deeply through each sacrament.

Matrimony: We congratulate all of our newly engaged couples. Contact our office soon (at least six months prior to your desired wedding date). We look forward to helping you as you prepare to enter the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony.

Vocations: If you feel that you may be called to the priesthood or sisterhood, please call our office to schedule an appointment with Father Peter.

Anointing of the Sick & Ministry to the Sick:

If you or your loved one is in a hospital, about to undergo surgery, or in a nursing home or homebound and would like to be visited or receive the sacraments, please call or email the church office to schedule.

Funerals: When death is imminent, or upon the death of a loved one, please make the church one of your first calls. We are here to support you.
