We Welcome All Visitors!

Thank you for worshipping with us today!

If you want to learn more about our parish or have questions about the Catholic Faith, please email NELAcatholics@gmail.com.

We will be happy to answer your questions!

All Saints

This could be you!

Dear Friends:

If you are one of our 75 members of the OCIA, exploring the Catholic faith, you may be getting used to seeing saints everywhere: statues in church, stained glass, medals around people's necks, artwork throughout the buildings, saints' names attached to parishes. Perhaps you have wondered: Why all these saints? Isn't Christianity supposed to be about Jesus? It is. And that is precisely why the saints matter. Their lives show us what happens when people let Jesus change them.

Think of someone whose example helped you imagine a different future for yourself: a teacher, coach, friend, or grandparent. Seeing someone live well makes a good life seem possible. The saints do that for our relationship with God.

Some were young. Some were married. Some raised children, worked demanding jobs, struggled with illness, or worried about money. Some made terrible choices before turning to Christ. St. Augustine spent years chasing pleasure and resisting conversion. He eventually became one of the Church's greatest teachers. His past did not have to determine his future. Neither does yours.

Today, All Saints Day, we celebrate everyone in heaven, including countless people who were never formally canonized. In Revelation, St. John sees a multitude beyond counting, drawn from every nation and language. Their song explains how they got there: "Salvation comes from our God." They needed Jesus. We do, too.

Catholics worship God alone. When we ask saints to pray for us, we are asking members of Christ's family for their prayers, much as we ask a friend here on earth. Death does not destroy the communion of those who belong to Jesus.

On All Saints Day last year, Pope Leo XIV described the saints' faces as "all different and all resembling the face of Christ." Holiness does not mean losing your personality. It means letting Christ shape the way you love, work, speak, and choose.

Today's Gospel gives us the Beatitudes: Jesus' invitation to humility, mercy, purity of heart, peacemaking, and faithfulness under pressure. That touches real life: dating, marriage, friendships, group chats, career decisions, and what we watch when nobody else is around.

Becoming Catholic means entering a lifelong relationship with Jesus within His Church. Through Baptism, Confession, and the Eucharist, He gives us grace to become holy. We learn to respond, one choice at a time. You will get to choose a saint's name as a special patron, as you get confirmed at the Easter Vigil. All Catholics have done this. Which saint might be choosing you?

This week, get to know one saint. Read a short account of that person's life. Ask for their prayers. Then choose one concrete step toward Christ: forgive someone, come to Mass, make time for prayer, or seek help with a habit that keeps you stuck.

Here at Jesus the Good Shepherd, we want to help you follow the Shepherd all the way home. The saints were once where you are: still learning, still struggling, still choosing.

Your story of holiness can begin today.

Fr. Peter

Gone from JGS - but not really!

A word from our Director of Religious Education on her transition to St. Frederick High School as their NEW Dean of Academics and Administration!

"As many of you may have heard, I am stepping into a new professional role as I join the team at St. Frederick High school as the Dean of Academics and Administration! While I am excited for my new work at St. Frederick, JGS will always hold a place in my heart, and I am so grateful for my time here and all of your love and support. I am not going anywhere as a parishioner, you will still see me serving at Mass, volunteering, and worshipping alongside you each week. I am also thrilled to serve as a familiar bridge to connect our JGS Parish and St. Frederick families even closer! Thank you all for your love, support, and prayers as I start this new chapter. See you in the pews!"

- Dr. Mallory Herlevic Benedetto

FROM THE CATECHISM

CCC 946 — "After confessing 'the holy catholic Church,' the Apostles' Creed adds 'the communion of saints.' In a certain sense this article is a further explanation of the preceding: 'What is the Church if not the assembly of all the saints?'"

CCC 1023 — "Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live for ever with Christ. They are like God for ever, for they 'see him as he is,' face to face."

SACRAMENTS

Baptism: Congratulations to our parents on the upcoming birth of your child. Call the Church Office at least three months before your baby's birth. We look forward to helping you and your godparents prepare for the Sacrament of Baptism. Baptism seminar is required.

First Sacraments & Confirmation: We joyfully support families as children prepare to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Confirmation. Preparation includes both catechesis and opportunities for spiritual growth, helping children encounter Christ more deeply through each sacrament.

Matrimony: We congratulate all of our newly engaged couples. Contact our office soon (at least six months prior to your desired wedding date). We look forward to helping you as you prepare to enter the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony.

Vocations: If you feel that you may be called to the priesthood or sisterhood, please call our office to schedule an appointment with Father Peter.

Anointing of the Sick & Ministry to the Sick:
If you or your loved one is in a hospital, about to undergo surgery, or in a nursing home or homebound and would like to be visited or receive the sacraments, please call or email the church office to schedule.

Funerals: When death is imminent, or upon the death of a loved one, please make the church one of your first calls. We are here to support you.
