The Door Will Be Shut

Wisdom, Hope, and Holy Fear!

Dear Friends:

The most striking line in today's Gospel is spoken to the foolish virgins who neglected to prepare their lamps and showed up too late to the wedding feast. The line is, "Then the door was locked.." That door is death. Death locks the door to any more chances.

If we are not prepared for other things in life, we might always get a second chance. But no one gets a second chance after death. As you die, so you lie. If you die inside the wedding feast, you are inside it forever; if you die outside it, you are outside it forever.

Noah's ark symbolizes the same thing as the wedding feast in today's parable—namely, salvation. In the Noah story, there is a line about a door that is like the one in today's parable. After Noah and his family and all the animals went into the ark, the text says, "The Lord shut him in" (Gen. 7:16). As in Jesus' parable, "And the door was locked."

The other people, when they saw the flood, surely must have regretted laughing at Noah for building the ark and regretted not believing and obeying God; but it was too late. At some point it has to be too late. Second chances do not go on forever. Life does not go on forever. At some point the door is shut. And where you die, there you lie: either in or out.

That's the very obvious, very practical, very commonsensical point Jesus is making in the parable of the wise and foolish virgins. It's about practical wisdom. Wisdom, for the five wise virgins, consisted in heeding Christ's clear lesson: "Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour" when the door will be shut. Unbelievers say religion is idealistic and impractical; but nothing could be more realistic and practical than that advice.

We could call this aspect of wisdom a holy fear. The Psalm spoke of the wisdom of a holy desire for God, a thirst for God. The epistle spoke of the wisdom of a holy hope in God. The Gospel spoke of a holy fear of God. "The beginning of wisdom is fear of the Lord," the Bible says (Prov. 9:10). This is not the fear of a tyrant or a slave master because God is not a tyrant or a slave master. It is not servile fear but filial fear, not a slave's fear but a child's fear, the respect and awe and trust a child has for a parent. Jesus told us that "unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 18:3). That fear is the beginning of wisdom, but it is not the end.

The end is love and joy: the joy of a wedding feast, our own spiritual wedding to God.

Fr. Peter

JESUS THE GOOD SHEPHERD CATHOLIC CHURCH

Welcome Back, Kerri Frantz!

We are pleased to welcome Kerri Frantz back to Jesus the Good Shepherd in the role of part-time Director of Religious Education (DRE). We are grateful for Kerri's continued dedication and service to the Diocese of Shreveport and are excited for the opportunity to once again benefit from her gifts, experience, and love for faith formation within our parish community.

FROM THE CATECHISM

CCC 1010 — "Because of Christ, Christian death has a positive meaning: 'For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.'"

CCC 1023 — "Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live for ever with Christ. They are like God for ever, for they 'see him as he is,' face to face."

CCC 1821 — "We can therefore hope in the glory of heaven promised by God to those who love him and do his will."

Baptism: Congratulations to our parents on the upcoming birth of your child. Call the Church Office at least three months before your baby's birth. We look forward to helping you and your godparents prepare for the Sacrament of Baptism. Baptism seminar is required.

First Sacraments & Confirmation: We joyfully support families as children prepare to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Confirmation. Preparation includes both catechesis and opportunities for spiritual growth, helping children encounter Christ more deeply through each sacrament.

Vocations: If you feel that you may be called to the priesthood or sisterhood, please call our office to schedule an appointment with Father Peter.

Anointing of the Sick & Ministry to the Sick:
If you or your loved one is in a hospital, about to undergo surgery, or in a nursing home or homebound and would like to be visited or receive the sacraments, please call or email the church office to schedule.
