ALL NIGHT VIGIL

Friday, June 12 - Saturday, June 13

IN HONOR OF THE

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Join us in prayer for an overnight Vigil of Reparation to the Sacred and Immaculate Hearts as we seek to live in imitation of Christ, who often spent the entire night in prayer, and to offer reparation for the countless sins committed against His Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. All-night vigils have been a practice in the Church since the earliest times.

The all-night vigil is different from the forty-hour devotion or nights of holy hours in which different persons take turns throughout the night; rather, a full night of prayer is offered from the opening evening Mass to the closing Mass in the morning.

It is a radical response of love! God wants to pour down grace and mercy on those who have walked away from Him—the unbelievers, the lukewarm, the indifferent. We can help by our personal sacrifice and reparation in communion with others in the Faith.

Will you join us?

Vigil begins at 8:00pm with opportunity for Confession until 8:45pm.

Mass in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus at 9:00pm.

Each hour throughout the night will have some structured prayer time as well as time for quiet reflection.

Vigil concludes with 8:00am Mass in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Coffee and water will be available throughout the night.

Homemade Bread will be shared after the 8:00am Mass in honor of St. Anthony's Feast Day, June 13.

The Holy Trinity

Today we are celebrating the feast of the Holy Trinity. "Trinity" means "three" and tells us that there are three Persons in God. There is only one God, but God is a relationship of the Father and the Son (Jesus) and the Holy Spirit.

Each of the Persons in the Holy Trinity is really God, so the Father is really God, and Jesus is really God, and the Holy Spirit is really God. But they are not all the same Person. Each of the Persons in the Holy Trinity is also equal to all the others. So the Father is not greater than the Son or the Holy Spirit; they are all equal.

Sometimes we can understand the Holy Trinity as if it were like a family. Each of the persons is different, but the family wouldn't really exist if any one of them were missing. The Holy Trinity is also a relationship of love. Because God is so full of love He wanted to share it with others, so that is why He made us! When we live the way God wants us to we are joining in the life of the Holy Trinity. Isn't that amazing?

· · THE PASTOR'S CORNER · ·

My friends, over these past few weeks we have been reflecting upon 'True Friendship', with St Aelred, the "Doctor of Friendship" as our Spiritual guide. This Sunday, however, we are talking about a unique 'friendship'. This unique friendship is the Holy Trinity- the most complex mystery of our Faith, but yet, most simple in understanding in relationship. We say 'complex' because it's our own weak human wisdom trying to comprehend the mystery of God; but yet, in the most simplest of ways understanding the love- the Holy Spirit- between the Father and the Son, and how all three are relational persons.

St Aelred describes God as 'Friendship', and the relation between the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit is 'divine friendship'. In other words, since God is a communion of persons who love each other, they are considered friends. That friendship, though intimate, is extended, through invitation of the Son, to the creatures of God created since the beginning of time, namely humanity. In our first reading from Exodus, we are given a great account of God 'structuring' his friendship with humanity. God reveals His presence on Mount Sinai to Moses as He gives him the Ten Commandments. The Commandments, written on stone tablets signify the structure on how God wants his people to live and remain faithful to him. Every relationship needs to be structured. Without it, there is no stability. This 'structure' does not mean rules and regulations as we know them, but rather those things that ground you and your friends together that help navigate authentic and true friendships.

However, although God gives the structure of his relationship to his people, he also reveals how he wants to be completely present to them as He is present to himself. What is meant by this is that He reveals his presence to Moses by encompassing him in the form of a cloud. Although God's presence is mysterious to Moses, it nonetheless, aids in the fact that Moses, in experiencing the presence of God, must rely totally on God with humility and trust- two of the most authentic characteristics that help to create good and lasting friendships. Furthermore, God is present to Himself, as read in the famous account of John 3:16-18, where God's love for the Son is Him giving the Son to humanity as the invitation for us to share in His divinity.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

MAY 30 - JUNE 5, 2026

Vatican Designates Special Jubilee Year of St. Francis

- Story by Shelley Wolf

This spring, St. Francis of Assisi Church in New Haven, part of Blessed Michael McGivney Parish, kicked off its observance of the Jubilee Year of St. Francis with a visit from Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne.

Before the Mass, the Archbishop blessed the church's central doors, decorated with images of St. Francis of Assisi and wild animals, to commemorate this site as one of many pilgrimage sites in the Archdiocese of Hartford where Catholics may obtain special graces.

The event was part of the larger Jubilee Year of St. Francis, which has been declared by the Vatican, and is being observed by Catholics all over the world. The special jubilee began on Jan. 10, 2026, and continues through Jan. 10, 2027.

The Jubilee Year of St. Francis marks the 800th anniversary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi, who died on Oct. 3, 1226.

The special jubilee year is intended to encourage Catholics to model on the beloved saint, who continues to inspire with his enduring example of humility, simplicity, peace, care for the poor and care for creation.

Born into a wealthy family, Francis renounced earthly riches to live a humble life in service to God. His love for Christ led him to seek to rebuild the Church, to embrace the poor and marginalized, to recognize the image of God in all creation, and to establish bonds of peace within all human persons.

Others were drawn to his way of living, and so St. Francis founded the first Franciscan Order (Order of Friars Minor), the Second Order (Poor Clares), and the Third Order Regular. Today, religious and lay members of these communities serve the spiritually and materially poor in hospitals, orphanages, schools, social service outreaches and retreat centers across the globe.

Over the centuries, the saint's legacy has continued to have a profound effect. Upon his election to the papacy, Pope Francis explained his choice of name to a group of journalists, praising Francis as "the man of poverty, the man of peace, the man who loves and protects creation."

For the Jubilee Year of St. Francis, Pope Leo XIV designated Franciscan-led communities and St. Francis-patronized churches as pilgrimage sites where visitors can earn a plenary indulgence for themselves or the souls in Purgatory.

To receive the plenary indulgence, Catholics must pray at a designated Jubilee church, obtain a sacramental confession (within 20 days), receive the Eucharist, and pray for the pope's intentions.

The decree also requires visitors to pray an Our Father and the Creed. In addition, visitors must seek the intercession of the Blessed Mother and Franciscan saints for global charity, harmony and peace. And they must have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin. The homebound and caregivers may participate spiritually, if not in person.

Franciscan-led communities in the archdiocese include: St. Joseph Parish, Winsted; St. Patrick-St. Anthony Parish, Hartford; St. Paul Parish, Kensington; and St. Martin of Tours Parish at St. Joseph Church, Canaan. St. Mary Church, Lakeville, and Immaculate Conception Church, Norfolk.

Churches under the patronage of St. Francis of Assisi include: St. Francis of Assisi Church, Torrington; St. Francis of Assisi Church, St. Junipero Serra Parish, South Windsor; St. Francis of Assisi Parish, New Britain; St. Francis of Assisi Parish, Naugatuck; and St. Francis of Assisi Church, Blessed Michael McGivney Parish, New Haven.
