Litany OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy
God our Father in heaven, have mercy on us
(Repeat have mercy on us after each line.)
God the Son, Redeemer of the world
God the Holy Spirit
Holy Trinity, one God
Heart of Jesus, Son of the eternal Father
Heart of Jesus, formed by the Holy Spirit in the womb of the Virgin Mother
Heart of Jesus, one with the eternal Word
Heart of Jesus, infinite in majesty
Heart of Jesus, holy temple of God
Heart of Jesus, tabernacle of the Most High
Heart of Jesus, house of God and gate of heaven
Heart of Jesus, aflame with love for us
Heart of Jesus, source of justice and love
Heart of Jesus, full of goodness and love
Heart of Jesus, well-spring of all virtue
Heart of Jesus, worthy of all praise
Heart of Jesus, king and center of all hearts
Heart of Jesus, treasure-house of wisdom and knowledge
Heart of Jesus, in whom there dwells the fullness of God
Heart of Jesus, in whom the Father is well pleased

Let us pray.

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that we, who glory in the Heart of your beloved Son and recall the wonders of his love for us, may be made worthy to receive an overflowing measure of grace from that fount of heavenly gifts. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Heart of Jesus, from whose fullness we have all received
Heart of Jesus, desire of the eternal hills
Heart of Jesus, patient and full of mercy
Heart of Jesus, generous to all who turn to you
Heart of Jesus, fountain of life and holiness
Heart of Jesus, atonement for our sins
Heart of Jesus, overwhelmed with insults
Heart of Jesus, broken for our sins
Heart of Jesus, obedient even to death
Heart of Jesus, pierced by a lance
Heart of Jesus, source of all consolation
Heart of Jesus, our life and resurrection
Heart of Jesus, our peace and reconciliation
Heart of Jesus, victim of our sins
Heart of Jesus, salvation of all who trust in you
Heart of Jesus, hope of all who die in you
Heart of Jesus, delight of all the saints
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world
Jesus, gentle and humble of heart.
Touch our hearts and make them like your own.

USCCB will consecrate the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus on June 12, 2026, to mark the nation's 250th anniversary.

ALL NIGHT VIGIL

Friday, June 12 - Saturday, June 13

IN HONOR OF THE

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Join us in prayer for an overnight Vigil of Reparation to the Sacred and Immaculate Hearts as we seek to live in imitation of Christ, who often spent the entire night in prayer, and to offer reparation for the countless sins committed against His Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. All-night vigils have been a practice in the Church since the earliest times.

The all-night vigil is different from the forty-hour devotion or nights of holy hours in which different persons take turns throughout the night; rather, a full night of prayer is offered from the opening evening Mass to the closing Mass in the morning.

It is a radical response of love! God wants to pour down grace and mercy on those who have walked away from Him—the unbelievers, the lukewarm, the indifferent. We can help by our personal sacrifice and reparation in communion with others in the Faith.

Will you join us?

Vigil begins at 8:00pm with opportunity for Confession until 8:45pm. Mass in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus at 9:00pm.

Each hour throughout the night will have some structured prayer time as well as time for quiet reflection.

Vigil concludes with 8:00am Mass in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

· · THE PASTOR'S CORNER · ·

My friends, we have come to the final week of our series on 'True Friendships'. Although there is much more to reflect on when it comes to friendship, and building authentic, holy, and true friendships, nevertheless, we need to allow for our own experiences and reflections on our relationships to help us to form the best of friends. In saying this, where are we. Well, St. Aelred has helped us in so many ways to uncover what friendship is like. We have reflected upon on how Christ is our true friend and that He is always going to be with us, no matter if anyone else is there or not; the model for friendship is the relationship between the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; the characteristics of friendship are given to us by the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit; and that each relationship needs to be structured in order for the dignity and respect of all persons to be upheld.

Today, we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi- the Body and Blood of Christ. This feast is not just to promote the source and summit of our faith, but rather continued belief and devotion to the greatest 'instrument' and power the Church has. In our First Reading today, Moses begins and continues in saying, "Remember for forty years...Do not forget the Lord your God..." What Moses is doing is reminding the people of their greatest friend- God. Everything that God has done up to this point: freed them from slavery despite certain human consequences on the part of the Egyptians, parted the Red Sea, gave them food and drink, earned them victory over their enemies, and even gave them a set of 'guidelines' (the 10 Commandments) to help them maintain their faithfulness. Thus, the Eucharist is a 'reminder' as to how much God is willing to do for us as our friend. He is the selfish-selfless giver!

In our Second Reading, Paul is reminding the Corinthians that the 'cup' that is shared- the cup that all the baptized have the ability to partake in, is blessed. Meaning that the relationship- covenantal relationship that Jesus established on the Cross, even as he said in the garden before the Crucifixion, "Father, let this cup pass from me"- is a binding relationship that lasts for eternity for those who choose it is sanctified. Our friendship with Christ, because we have been given the privilege of receiving the Eucharist, is sacred! It's a permanent bond that He wants to have with us and makes with us by his own Sacrifice and shedding of His own blood, being poured out into our own 'cup' to fill us up with His grace and love.

Finally, in our Gospel, Jesus talks about Himself in saying, "as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me." Meaning that, the Eucharist, the instrument of Christ's Friendship with us- Himself- gives us life! Friends provide us with life. They rejuvenate us. Friends fill each other's 'cup' up each day. So, the 'cup' that we receive, is being poured out into us in order to provide us with life- which is the greatest gift of friendship that we can ever ask for. Friends sacrifice for other friends. Not for our own sake, but for others. May the Eucharist REMIND us that the SACRIFICE of Christ, present in the Eucharist help us to receive the LIFE of His friendship, and be the instrument for us to create true and authentic friendships that will last for eternity. The Eucharist is the 'treasure of friendship'; may we receive it so that we may provide life for our friends more abundantly through our selfless sacrifices for them so they can experiences our faithful friendships.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

JUNE 6 - 12, 2026

Reborn in Beauty: New Haven's Beloved St. Anthony Shrine Restored to Splendor

- Story by Jim Tierney

For several years, the basement of St. Anthony Church in New Haven was used as a chapel with an altar at one end of the hall, chairs in the middle and the statues of saints lining the walls in a rectangular shape.

Refurbished last year, the space is now a dedicated shrine and a focal point for devotion. Many statues were donated by early immigrant families from various Italian regions. Others found a new home here after the consolidation of St. Peter's and Sacred Heart churches in recent decades.

These statues reflect deep personal and cultural devotions, and they continue to be honored through private prayer, novenas and special observances connected to the saints they represent.

Father Héctor Rangel, pastor in solidum of Blessed Michael McGivney Parish which includes St. Anthony Church, says the shrine holds deep historical significance because "shrines were used by the Italian immigrants for their novenas," reflecting the traditions and devotions immigrants brought with them from their hometowns in Italy.

The recent renovations transformed the space into a dedicated shrine. A team reinforced every shelf and touched up the paint on several of the figures.

"We cleaned up the shrine, wiped down all the statues, replaced the old placards describing the saints, added two dehumidifiers for the muggy summers and polished the relic cabinets," says parishioner and refurbishing committee member Frank Mentone.

For many years, the basement at St. Anthony Church was used for religious education classes and prayer groups.

After St. Anthony and other city churches combined to form Blessed Michael McGivney Parish, religious instruction became shared among the churches at different locations, Mentone explains.

Today, the shrine serves as a gathering place for prayer and fellowship within the parish community. It is maintained by the parish sexton with additional help from parishioners.

"The vision is to have people visit the shrine before and after Mass for a quiet reflection as well as using it in the evening for special prayer groups," Mentone says.

The parish also celebrates St. Anthony, marking his annual feast day on June 13. This year, St. Anthony Church will hold a Triduum with Adoration and the Blessed Sacrament on June 8, 9, and 10 at 6 p.m. in the church. On June 12 at 6 p.m., an indoor festival will be held in St. Anthony Parish Center. Tickets must be purchased for the festival by June 10 by calling 203.410.4254.

This celebration serves as a reminder that devotion to the saints is not confined to the past but continues to shape the spiritual life of the parish today, says Father Michael Dolan, pastor in solidum and moderator of Blessed Michael McGivney Parish.

"It is wonderful to see not just the cultural but theological gifts that are being shared as you move among the beauty in this refurbished chapel," Father Dolan explains. "The communion of the saints is brought to life in the exquisite craftsmanship of the artists. To walk among these religious figures is to experience both a spiritual uplifting and a profound sense of gratitude."

Situated in the basement of St. Anthony Church, 70 Washington Ave., New Haven, the shrine welcomes visitors for parish meetings, gatherings and youth activities. You can also visit the shrine on Sundays after the 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. Masses.
