SAINTS WITH SAL

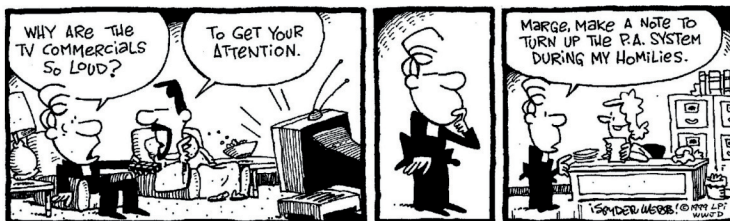

Did you know Saint Clare of Assisi had a sister? Born Caterina Offreducia, Agnes was Saint Clare's younger sister. When St Clare left her family to go follow Saint Francis, Clare prayed for a companion and Caterina then joined her sixteen days later. Angered by another daughters' abandonment Catherina's father Count Favorino Scifi, sent his brother and some men to bring Caterina back. Caterina refused to go back with her uncle and was beaten and kicked while being dragged away from the convent. Then suddenly Catherina became so heavy no man could lift her. Realizing Caterina was saved by Divine Providence from St Clare's prayers, Caterina was allowed to stay in the convent and give her life to Christ. Saint Francis gave Caterina the name Agnes for her innocent, lamb-like nature and because she has suffered like Saint Agnes had suffered. St Agnes of Assisi helped St Clare found the Poor Clares and be an abbess in several communities.

· · THE PASTOR'S CORNER · ·

My friends, since beginning with this new series of reflections, I don't know about you, but I have become a more conscientious as to what my heart is speaking. It's challenging, especially in this day and age when our senses and our mind tend to be geared more towards satisfying our own temporal life with the world. However, as we have said throughout this series of reflections, "The Heart Speaks" and we need to discern what the heart needs in order for our mind and body act. Last week we talked about the "Secrets of the Heart" where we looked at how our hearts tend to be the space for secrets, both good and not so good. The secrets we hold, though, will be revealed; we cannot hold them in. Remember- God is the God of revelation and truth. He reveals Himself to us (all the time) as He is the truth who shares Himself with us through the Scriptures and the Sacraments so that we may grow in our relationship with Him.

This week my friends we are going to be looking at the "Space in the Heart." When we talk about 'space' we talk about the vast and nearly emptiness that exists; or a period of time to distance ourselves from another. Space can also be understood in a sense that there is 'room'. Whatever the case may be, space exists, no matter if something is empty or cluttered, or there is one person present or many. The 'space' that we talk about when it comes to the heart is very much in line with what is being described above, but in this instance we call it 'spiritual space'. 'Spiritual space' it not something, however, that should be empty, but rather it needs to be filled with something.

In our First reading for today, the Prophet Elisha, the prophet that succeeds Elijah after he is taken up by God with a chariot, is traveling to Shunem. He is invited to dine with a woman and her husband. The woman then began to persuade her husband to prepare a place for Elisha to stay every time he passes through. First, this is true hospitality! She recognizes that he is a man of God and desires for her home to be blessed by God. In turn Elisha intercedes on her behalf before God in order for her to have a child.

My brothers and sisters, this woman wanted her home to be blessed, to be filled with God's grace, and in turn it is- both with God's blessing and indeed a child. When we speak of the 'Space in the Heart', our goal should be like this woman. How many of us whenever we fill the 'space' of our hearts with the world don't feel totally satisfied. When we allow the world to speak to the heart and fill in the gaps, we don't necessarily make room for what, or should I say 'whom'. Jesus says in the Gospel, "Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." Jesus is knocking at the door to our hearts in order to radically change and transform us. He has the key- the cross, which He asks us to carry. However, God doesn't impede on our free will. Jesus is ready to unlock the door to the heart, He is just waiting for us to give Him the permission. It's challenging to let Him in, as He says in the Gospel, but that's the cost of discipleship, and in turn we will receive the greatest reward He wants to give us. So may we allow for the 'Space in our Hearts' not to be filled with the world and the things that penetrate it, but rather allow the cross that Jesus offers us to pierce our hearts so that the room we make may be filled with blessings and grace of God.

-Fr. Matt

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

JUNE 27 - JULY 3, 2026

St. Joseph Church in Ansonia Celebrates 100 Years

- Story by Jim Tierney

A century after its founding by Ansonia's Polish community, St. Joseph Church marked 100 years of faith, tradition and service with a celebration on May 31.

To mark its anniversary, the church in Ansonia celebrated with a Mass in English and Polish with Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne as the principal celebrant and concelebrated by several priests and deacons. A dinner followed at Warsaw Park.

Father Tadeusz Maciejewski, pastor, says he and Father Mitchell J. Wanat, who is in residence at the church, are "so thankful to God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit for enabling us, Vincentian Fathers, to share in his divine plan with the parishioners and friends of our most cherished St. Joseph Parish. Praise the Lord."

The church's origins date back to 1923, when members of the local Polish community first gathered to advocate for the construction of a Catholic school in their hometown.

Through their determination, hard work and the support of local clergy, St. Joseph Church and school were established. The church, located at 32 Jewett St., was dedicated in 1926. Ten days later, St. Joseph School opened and was staffed by the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth. The parish school educated generations of students before closing in 2001.

"Many of the future members of St. Joseph Church would go to their daily jobs and then work on building the church as bricklayers and carpenters and work on the weekends," says Ellen Amodeo, a church historian and former teacher at the school. "We still have a Polish Mass on Sundays at 10 a.m."

In the "old days," Amodeo adds, St. Joseph's Church was known for its popular sports nights which were fundraisers for the church and school.

"Bob Skoronski of the Green Bay Packers would bring his teammates, including Bart Starr, to speak at our sports nights," she says. Starr was a Hall of Fame quarterback and Skoronski played on five NFL Championship teams, including when Green Bay won Super Bowls I and II.

"Bob was a Derby boy who played on the championship teams under legendary Coach Vince Lombardi," Amodeo explains.

St. Joseph Church was also the first one in the area to have a blessing of fire trucks, emergency vehicles and first responders from Ansonia and Derby. This annual event occurs at during the annual picnic held in September.

Today, the commitment of its parishioners remains strong, with four generations of some families having attended the church. St. Joseph Church continues to serve through charitable initiatives and its longstanding tradition – the annual Warsaw Park Picnic.

"Our picnic is known for its delicious Polish food," Amodeo says. "Everyone is welcome to come to our picnic, usually held the third Sunday in September. There is no admission and plenty of parking at our beautiful Warsaw Park."

A special flag, Praise God, was designed for the anniversary.
