SAINT GREGORIO GRASSI JULY 8

GREGORIO GRASSI WAS BORN IN ITALY IN 1833. WHEN HE WAS FIFTEEN HE JOINED THE FRANCISCANS. HE STUDIED IN THE SEMINARY AND BECAME A PRIEST.

Is this what God is calling you to?

AFTER HE WAS ORDAINED HE WAS SENT TO ROME FOR TRAINING.

FATHER GREGORIO WAS THEN SENT TO CHINA AS A MISSIONARY.

Sanctus! Sanctus!

IN TAIYUAN HE WAS PUT IN CHARGE OF THE ORPHANAGE AND THE CHOIR.

Welcome, Your Excellency!

LATER HE WAS MADE BISHOP OF NORTH SHANXI.

HERE HE CARED FOR THOSE SICK FROM PLAGUE AND FAMINE, AND HE STARTED A FRANCISCAN HOUSE.

KNOCK KNOCK!

IN 1900 THERE WAS A REBELLION IN CHINA AGAINST THE EUROPEANS WHO LIVED THERE, AND BISHOP GREGORIO AND MANY OTHER CATHOLICS WERE KILLED.

WHEN THE REBELLION STARTED BISHOP GREGORIO WAS WARNED TO LEAVE CHINA, BUT HE HAD LONG DESIRED TO DIE AS A MARTYR FOR CHRIST. HE CHOSE TO KEEP HELPING THE POOR AND SICK AND TO GIVE HIS LIFE FOR JESUS AND HIS CHURCH. WOULD YOU BE BRAVE ENOUGH TO DO THAT?

Find the words from today's Psalm that are in CAPITALS. Use the letters that are left over to fill in the blanks:

What is one of the things this Psalm tells us about God?

I will EXTOL you, O my GOD and King, and I will bless your NAME forever and ever. Every day will I bless YOU, and I will PRAISE your name FOREVER and ever.

The Lord is GRACIOUS and MERCIFUL, SLOW to ANGER and of great KINDNESS. The Lord is GOOD to all and compassionate toward all his works.

Let all your works give you THANKS, O Lord, and let your faithful ones BLESS you. Let them discourse of the GLORY of your KINGDOM and SPEAK of your MIGHT.

The Lord is FAITHFUL in all his WORDS and holy in all his WORKS. The LORD lifts up all who are FALLING and RAISES up the bowed down.

... THE PASTOR'S CORNER ...

My brothers and sisters in Christ: "The Heart Speaks"! It needs to be our goal and purpose to listen to the heart and the voice that is echoed from it. Last week we reflected upon experiencing the reflection of God within us, and in turn we hear His voice. Today, we need to reflect on the "Strength of the Heart" At certain times in our life, many times for that matter, we experience emptiness and weariness. Emptiness- coming from us not being totally fulfilled; and weariness- coming from us being tired, not just physically, but also internally and spiritually as well. This is a cause of us having a lack of joy.

For many of us, we like routines. Routine gives us structure in life. Its good for us to be structured, because, in a sense, that's how we are able to build relationships with God and others. Sometimes, though, as my rector in seminary said, "We need to be comfortable with being uncomfortable." This phrase, in relation to routines, is almost as if we need to have the competence to be 'okay' when our routine is broken. In hindsight, sometimes, we get tired of doing the same thing over and over and over and over....again! And that's normal. Even God did not do the same thing over and over again. He created the world in seven days. He didn't create seven moons or suns. No, He created one world, one sun, different kinds of animals and plants, land and sea, and humanity. God did not just follow routine. Rather, he created a vast variety in order to show the joy of His handiwork.

When we feel empty or weary, there is a sense of nothing or lack of purpose. Maybe it is because of routine, or maybe because we had a falling out with someone, or maybe it is because we lost a sense of hope or even ourselves within the world. I am here to tell you, my friends, all of that can change. God is the "strength of the heart". Our hearts are stronger than ever! It is meant for relationships, specifically our relationship with God, and from Him to others. As St. Paul says, "You are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you." And Zechariah the prophet writes, "Thus says the Lord: Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion, shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem! See, your king shall come to you..." Our hearts need to be filled with God, who is our strength, and when filled with Him we can rejoice. Joy brings us life and purpose. When we rejoice, we are no longer empty, but filled. Jeuss says, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened..." He is saying, 'Come to me, you who are empty and weary of heart', "And I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves." In other words, 'I will provide you with strength!'

My brothers and sisters: "The Heart Speaks" but it speaks because we have received the strength from God. Since I began here this time last year, I have been able to reflect upon my heart more intimately than ever before, and how it draws its strength, or should I say, needs to draw its strength from God. Without God, I cannot do my ministry as your shepherd! And I thank God everyday for giving me this ministry. It is in carrying out this ministry where I experience the joy that God gives me through the Spirit dwelling in me, as I pray you experience the Spirit dwelling in you. When we experience the Spirit, we then can recite the words our Lord speaks of that gives us meaning and purpose in life: "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth." And that is when the heart speaks!

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

JULY 4 - 10, 2026

New Trees Transform Hartford Parish into Peaceful Community Gathering Space

- Story by Karen A. Avitabile

St. Justin-St. Michael Parish in Hartford recently beautified its grounds by planting some 25 trees. The enhanced landscape now invites the community to linger, offering a peaceful setting for passersby to rest on the grass or connect with loved ones and friends.

The new trees planted on the church and rectory grounds, at 230 Blue Hills Ave., were a donation through Trees for Hartford program offered in the city of Hartford to property owners in several neighborhoods including Blue Hills, Northeast, Upper Albany, Asylum Hill, Clay Arsenal, Parkville, Frog Hollow, Barry Square, South Green and Sheldon-Charter Oak.

The recent church tree plantings served as a core component of Hartford's citywide Arbor Day and Earth Month celebrations. These efforts are part of a broader, multi-year plan to expand the city's urban tree canopy and mitigate the impacts of climate change.

Administered as part of a four-year urban forestry program, the initiative will enhance neighborhood green spaces. To date, Hartford property owners have successfully planted more than 250 trees citywide, contributing directly to the city's long-term environmental sustainability goals.

On April 25, the community of St. Justin-St. Michael Church, including parishioners and nearly 50 faith formation students, volunteered to plant trees on the church grounds. In addition to planting, participants learned about tree care, applied mulch and watered the new trees.

Father Mathieu Isaac, pastor of St. Michael-St. Justin Parish, cherishes the trees for their deeper significance, viewing them as a meaningful connection to his mother and father.

"My parents were farmers," he says. "I grew up in a rural region where trees of different varieties, such as mango trees, avocado trees and many others formed my natural environment. It therefore seemed entirely natural for me to adapt to a setting where the surrounding vegetation helps reveal the beauty of the place. That is why I volunteered to adopt some trees in our church garden."

As an extension of the Capital Forest Stewardship Initiative, Trees for Hartford benefits from an estimated

$6 million investment provided by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Urban and Community Forestry Program. The program targets the planting of 1,225 free trees across public and private Hartford spaces, supported by ongoing community education and tree maintenance.

During the summer, parish youth are tasked with tree irrigation several times a week.

"These trees will provide a conducive setting for people going through stressful times, allowing them to come and meditate, pray or take a walk in a peaceful space, amidst the restorative atmosphere offered by the St. Justin-St. Michael site," Father Isaac says.

In April, hardworking volunteers of St. Justin-St. Michael Parish helped add new greenery to the church and rectory grounds. They pause for a photo after doing their work.
