St. Appollinaris of Ravenna July 20

SAINT APPOLLINARIS WAS ONE OF THE EARLY CHRISTIANS. HE WAS ORDAINED A BISHOP BY SAINT PETER, AND SENT TO LOOK AFTER RAVENNA, ITALY.

HE WAS THE FIRST BISHOP THERE AND MADE CONVERTS BY DOING MIRACLES.

Bishop Appollinaris cured my sickness!

THE PAGANS HATED HIS PREACHING, SO THEY BEAT HIM AND LEFT HIM FOR DEAD.

I think you can get up in a day or two.

BUT THE CHRISTIANS FOUND AND HELPED HIM, AND HE BEGAN PREACHING AGAIN.

THEN HE WAS CAPTURED AGAIN AND TORTURED AND SENT IN EXILE TO GREECE.

BUT THERE HE SILENCED THE PAGANS TOO, SO THEY BEAT HIM AND SENT HIM BACK TO ITALY.

How can you believe in gods made of stone?

Hey! That man is a Christian!

THE EMPEROR OUTLAWED CHRISTIANS, SO SAINT APPOLLINARIS HAD TO HIDE. HE WAS SEEN LEAVING THE CITY AND WAS BEATEN. HE DIED SEVEN DAYS LATER.

SAINT APPOLLINARIS WAS A TRUE HERO FOR THE FAITH. HE KEPT GOING BACK TO HIS PEOPLE EVEN THOUGH HE KEPT GETTING BEATEN AND TORTURED. HE IS AN EXAMPLE TO US TO NEVER QUIT HELPING PEOPLE COME TO GOD EVEN WHEN OTHERS KEEP FIGHTING AGAINST US.

... THE PASTOR'S CORNER ...

My friends, before getting into a reflection, I would first like to express my appreciation and gratitude to everyone who assisted in making the Installation Mass and Reception overwhelmingly beautiful and magnificent, to say it softly. From the Pastoral Council and members of the Finance Council, the individuals who prepared the sanctuary, to the Choir, the Knights of Columbus (parking, the Mass, the reception), the ministers (servers, lectors, etc...) who participated in the Mass, the office staff and the many other volunteers- THANK YOU. However, I would like to also acknowledge and thank everyone who came out from all three campuses for the celebration- it truly shows the bridges we are building in this community to become one Parish community!

Last weekend, during the Installation Mass, Archbishop Coyne reflected upon the phrase that appears again in our Gospel, "Whoever has ears ought to hear." His direction was toward me in the sense that he commissioned me to listen and learn from you. At the same time though, he also stated that you, as the people of the Parish need to speak, not so much of what you want, but rather what is needed to fill you physically and spiritually. We are all called to build up the kingdom, and it's important that we all listen to each other. I then reflected upon the hands of the sower, The Priest, need not be his own hands, but the hands of God

For me, my friends, the words of St. Paul in our 2nd Reading echoes the fact that the work that the sower does should not be his own works, lest he plant on dry, rocky, or thorny ground, but the works of God- "The Spirit comes to the aid of our weaknesses; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings." At the moment of my Ordination, I received an indelible mark on my spirit. It is that mark of the Holy Spirit which allows me to function not as my own, but an instrument of God. It is God who acts in the moment of my weakness. I am human, I am weak, and I am a sinner. However, I believe and pray that in the moment of my weakness, Christ makes me strong! It is Christ who works through me! It is Christ, who, bursts through the seams of my heart to have compassion and understand you!

May I, God willing, continue to listen to your words and plant the seeds of the kingdom in you, so that we may all experience the groanings of the Spirit and do all according to God's will.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

JULY 18 - 24, 2026

Century-Old Bishop's Ring Is Discovered in the Archdiocese of Hartford

- Story by Shelley Wolf

On the Monday after Easter, an archdiocesan employee sifted through a very large pile of mail at the Archdiocese of Hartford's Pastoral Center in Bloomfield.

After opening a white letter envelope addressed to the Archdiocese of Hartford, she was taken aback by what she found inside and immediately delivered it to the office of Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne.

Inside was a hefty gold ring with a large purple stone. Images, a bishop's crosier and a mitre, appeared in relief on either side. The stone, possibly an amethyst, was etched on the front with a mitre, star and three initials: "GHK."

Archbishop Coyne confirmed it was a bishop's ring, typically presented at ordination to signify the bishop's apostolic ministry and fidelity to the Church.

Words etched inside the gold band offered more clues to its owner: "From W.M.J. to his beloved friend G.H.K. AD1892 Mizpah."

"'Mizpah' is a greeting of affection by people who are separated by distance," Archbishop Coyne says. Still, everyone in the archbishop's office was puzzled.

"When the ring was first brought to my attention, I took it as a bit of a mystery since it was clear that it was not the ring of any of my predecessors here in Hartford," Archbishop Coyne recalls. But perhaps it belonged to a bishop in another Catholic diocese?

"Working with my staff, we were fairly quickly able to discern that it was not the ring of a Catholic bishop, so we branched out into other Christian faiths that have a tradition of bishops," Archbishop Coyne notes.

After online research failed to match to a Catholic bishop, living or dead, the archbishop's team searched for bishops in the Episcopal Church and found a match in multiple online sources. They found those initials around 1892 and the more they kept digging, the more they kept finding.

G.H.K. appeared to be Bishop George Herbert Kinsolving, who was appointed assistant bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas in 1892 and a bishop of Texas in 1893, according to the Texas State Historical Association.

A visionary, he is remembered as the founder of All Saints' Episcopal Church on the University of Texas campus in Austin. Seeing an opportunity to reach students, he initially built the Gothic Revival church as a chapel, which opened in 1900, to serve both female and male students.

Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne displays the mysterious envelope and bishop's ring that was delivered to the Archdiocese of Hartford. PHOTO BY AARON JOSEPH

Kinsolving died on Oct. 23, 1928, and was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Austin, until his body was moved in 1940 to a crypt in what is now All Saints' Episcopal Church.

With this information, the Archdiocese of Hartford contacted the Episcopal Diocese of Texas and the office of its current bishop, Bishop C. Andrew Doyle, in Houston. The archdiocese shared the discovery of the ring and also shared photos.

Sara Marlatt, executive assistant to Bishop Doyle, confirmed the ring was theirs, writing via e-mail, "Bishop Doyle says the ring has been missing for some time. Wow, what a lovely Easter gift!"

In response, the Archdiocese of Hartford arranged to return the ring to its rightful owners.

Still, no one knows how the ring originally traveled to Connecticut, where it was kept all these years, or who addressed the envelope to the Archdiocese of Hartford. Despite all the research, Archbishop Coyne says, "It's a mystery."

HOLY HOUR TO PRAY FOR THE END OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING
 All Saints - Todos Los Santos Parish,
 The Shrine of St. Anne, Waterbury

Human trafficking is a grave offense against the God-given dignity of every person. An estimated 27 million women, men, and children worldwide are exploited through sex and labor trafficking.

The Human Trafficking Task Force of the Archdiocese of Hartford invites you to a bilingual Eucharistic Holy Hour to pray for victims and survivors of human trafficking, and for an end to this exploitation. This service, to be held on the eve of World Day Against Trafficking in Persons, will be in English and Spanish.

Following the Holy Hour, attendees are welcome to stay for the Parish's daily Mass at 6:30 P.M. or to speak with Task Force members about ways to support awareness, prevention, and survivor assistance through this important ministry.
