... THE PASTOR'S CORNER ...

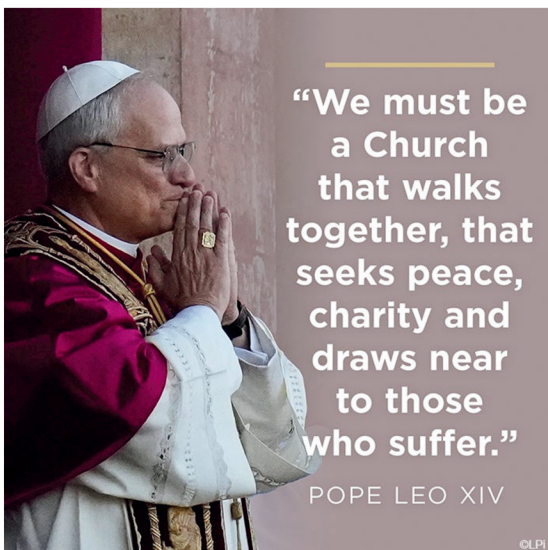

My friends, during our reflections on the Ministerial and Baptismal Priesthood, most if, not all, of what has been spoken of can be summarized in what Matthew writes at the end of his Gospel as Jesus says, "Go and make disciples of all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." This is what is called the great commission, and as Baptized Catholics you are all charged with fulfilling this command He gives you. It is very unique in itself as it is to empower us to be His disciples and share the Gospel. Many people believe that that is the job of the clergy. It's not. Our job as Priests is to lead, shepherd, and teach, but then you all must do so, myself included too, live it in our daily lives, otherwise what's the point in living.

When I was being ordained, I approached a retired Bishop and basically told him, "I don't know if I am ready." He said in reply, "Matt, you will never be ready," as he pointed to his zucchetto, "I was never ready, not even for this." It put into perspective that God needs to be in control. It is He who empowers us to bring the love and mercy of Christ to everyone. It is God who chooses and empowers us to make a difference.

When Jesus asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, John the Baptist, Elijah, Jeremiah, or a prophet. At this point, His disciples know Jesus is someone who is great and mighty, but do they actually know who He really is? This is why he gives them the answer, "But who do you say that I am?" He first indicated to them "the Son of Man" then he indicated, "I am." What he is doing is relating the title to His actual Identity, the same Identity he revealed to the Israelites- "I AM" is His name. It is only then that Simon Peter says, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Jesus then gives him a new name, "Peter", meaning "rock", and also the keys to the kingdom of heaven, and the authority to bind and loose. By changing Peter's name, Jesus is changing His identity. Why? Because Peter is starting to get it. He is making Him the 'rock', or foundation, that His Church will be built on. And by giving Him the keys and authority, He is charging Him with the responsibility of: showing Mercy, and getting people to Heaven.

My friends, when we were Baptized, we were given a name. That name becomes our identity. Not just because our parents gave it to us. No. When water is poured over our heads, our name suddenly becomes changed and sanctified. It becomes a part of our identity with Christ. We ask ourselves, Simon Peter- why? And the answer is, we do not know, and who are we to question the Lord! Jesus chose Simon Peter, and the other disciples for a reason- they were poor, lowly, rich, famous, etc... we do not know. What Paul says in the Letter to the Romans defines just this, "Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways!" We don't know the 'why' of God. What we do know, though is that He empowered them, and He empowers us! When we look at our life, we may think, "why me?" and the answer lies in front of us- because we are who we are, and God chooses us, despite our weakness, to build the Church! So, may we allow for our Baptism enrich our lives, with helping us to understand our greater purpose in life, which is not something merely functional, but vocational- building bridges to Christ as His disciples, and getting everyone to the kingdom of heaven.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

AUGUST 22 - 28, 2026

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Society in Enfield Marks Historic Milestone

- Story by Karen A. Avitabile

Enfield's Our Lady of Mount Carmel Society, which is deeply devoted to the Blessed Mother, is marking its 100th anniversary this year.

"We believe we can get closer to God through Our Lady of Mount Carmel, the Blessed Mother, as she appeared to St. Simon Stock," says Carl Sferrazza, president of the society and a member since 1999.

On July 16, 1251, the Blessed Mother appeared to St. Simon Stock and gave him a set of scapulars on Mount Carmel in the Middle East. Scapulars are small brown bands that have two icons, or holy pictures, of Mary and the infant Jesus. Catholics worldwide honor Our Lady of Mount Carmel each year on July 16, her feast day.

And the local society celebrates Our Lady of Mount Carmel by annually hosting an Italian festival on its five-acre fairgrounds, at 93 Park Ave., in the Thompsonville section of Enfield.

This past July 30 through Aug. 2, the 100th festival took place and featured entertainment, carnival rides, a Mass, a procession and a variety of Italian cuisine, singers and dancers. At Mount Carmel Chapel, on the fairgrounds, visitors were able to light a candle to ask Our Lady for prayers or to remember someone who has passed away.

Founded in 1926, the nonprofit Our Lady of Mount Carmel Society was started by Italian immigrants who settled in Thompsonville to honor their homeland, preserve traditions, provide aid to one another and encourage prayer to the Blessed Mother. Today, membership in the society predominantly comprises descendants of Italian immigrants who arrived in town decades ago.

A statue of Our Lady of Mount Carmel was the centerpiece of a procession along streets in Enfield.

Carl Sferrazza, president of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Society in Enfield and one of the organizers of Italian festival, spends some quiet time in the chapel dedicated to the Blessed Mother.

"They brought a blueprint on how to live their life with faith in God and belief of the family," Sferrazza says of the immigrants. "And they embraced hard work to become good citizens of this country."

On the final day of the festival, Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne was the main celebrant of an outdoor Mass on the fairgrounds. Following the Mass, participants carried a statue of Our Lady of Mount Carmel along the streets of Thompsonville. Holy cards, medals, rosaries and scapulars of Our Lady of Mount Carmel were given out to spectators along the way.

Proceeds from the festival, hall rentals and fundraisers allow the society to award scholarships and make donations to St. Jeanne Jugan Parish in Enfield, the town's soup kitchen and local organizations.

The hall is regularly offered at no cost to multiple community groups and the town of Enfield.

On Mondays, the women's auxiliary of the society opens its doors for community bingo. Every third Thursday of the month, the society serves a home-cooked Italian dinner that attracts local families and beyond.

"The society is an opportunity for people to come together and enjoy camaraderie with one another and to work together for the betterment of the community," Sferrazza says. "This is a way to give back and to make my parents from Sicily proud of me."
