· · · THE PASTOR'S CORNER · · ·

My brothers and sisters, last week we began to reflect upon one of the greatest Saints in the Church- St. Augustine of Hippo, in order for us to learn more about him and his Pastoral and Spiritual approach, and how that influences Pope Leo XIV. St. Augustine, as we said last week in his early years, was a restless man. He did so many things that we would consider immoral, but yet, compared to the time of St. Augustine, we too have committed our own immoralities. This is the truth, and we would be lying to ourselves if we did not accept it. However, that's why when St. Augustine converted from these immoral ways to following the path of Christ, he helps us to experience the grace and mercy of God through his own witness. If we hide the truth, though, even the truth of and about our own selves, we then remain guilty.

In our First Reading today from the Prophet Ezekiel, The Lord speaks through Ezekiel in saying, "You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel; when you hear me say anything, you shall warn them for me." The 'watchman' St Augustine notes in one of his Sermons are the religious leaders, and in our own time- Pope Leo, the Bishops, and Priests, and all those who are held in a position of responsibility. It is our ministry to listen to what God speaks to us in the heart, and share that through words and actions with the people entrusted to our care. We cannot simply just feed ourselves into the whirls of society. If we hold anything back other than the truth that has been given to us by Christ, we would be lying to you and even to ourselves. St. Augustine notes that truth is not merely an abstract concept or a human discovery; it is living, unchanging, and ultimately identical with God. I would not be doing my job as 'watchman' if I hid the truth from you. My identity is conformed to Christ's.

Jesus in our Gospel reiterates to his disciples what we heard a few weeks ago when Jesus gave the keys to Peter, "Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." The authority to bind and to loose reveals the mercy and love of God that is dispensed in the Sacrament of Reconciliation- a Sacrament, as Venerable, soon to be Blessed, Fulton Sheen once said, is the Sacrament where we become naked- and reveal our weak human truths (the truths of our own sins) to God, in order for us to be clothed with Himself who is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

In the movie "A Few Good Men", during the trial Lieutenant Daniel Keefe questions the truth of Colonel Nathan Jessep, who in response was "You can't handle the truth!" God won't give us what we cannot handle! He knows we can handle His Truth, it's just a matter of us not hardening our hearts and 'lying' to ourselves. Let us allow God to break through! Our hearts can handle what He gives us. As St. Augustine said, "Our hearts are restless, until they rest in thee." The restlessness is from us seeking the truth. Seek it, and once we find it in Christ, let him in and we will find peace.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

SEPTEMBER 5 - 11, 2026

New Haven Exhibit Reflects on Terrorist Attacks of 9/11

- Story by Joe Pisani

They called him “the elevator man.” He was Charles “Chuck” Costello Jr., who on the morning of Sept. 11, 2001, went from the hotel in lower New York City’s SoHo, where he worked as an elevator technician, to the World Trade Center to help in the rescue effort after the terrorist attacks.

He left his truck on the street, ran into the burning North Tower about 9 a.m. and is credited with saving hundreds of lives. On Jan. 6, 2002, his remains were found beneath the South Tower. A member of the Knights of Columbus St. Ambrose Council 6424 of Old Bridge, N.J., Costello is one of 46 Knights memorialized in a temporary exhibit currently on view at the Blessed Michael McGivney Pilgrimage Center in New Haven.

The exhibit, “Remembering 9/11: 25 Years Later,” marks the 25th anniversary since the attacks on Sept. 11, 2001, when four planes were hijacked, two of them striking New York City’s twin towers. Another plane crashed into the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and the fourth into a Pennsylvania field after the passengers attacked the hijackers.

In total, 2,977 people were killed, thousands were injured, and many more died in the years that followed due to health issues.

The local exhibit honors all the victims, their families and those heroes who risked their lives to save countless others, according to Bethany J. Sheffer, curator and registrar of the pilgrimage center.

“This tragedy is part of our history, and it’s important for us to remember those whose lives were lost,” Sheffer

Through Oct. 11, a temporary exhibit at the Blessed Michael McGivney Pilgrimage Center remembers all the victims, their families and the heroes who saved the lives of countless people on Sept. 11, 2001. PHOTO BY JOE PISANI says. “And it’s equally important for us because we are honoring those Knights who died and played a role in the relief efforts.”

In the exhibit, a sequence of photos narrates the events of the day. The exhibit also provides brief biographical information about the 46 Knights of Columbus members – including firefighters, police officers and civilians – who perished in the terrorist attacks.

Some of the items on display include a fragment from one of the towers, a replica firefighter helmet given by the Fire Department of New York, and a FDNY cap that belonged to Father Mychal Judge, a Franciscan friar, who was chaplain of the department and was the first officially recorded fatality of the attacks.

There are rosaries that were distributed to the firefighters and law enforcement officers during the rescue response and a gas mask worn by then-Supreme Chaplain Bishop Thomas V. Daily of Brooklyn, N.Y., when he visited Ground Zero.

Also on display are prayer books and programs from a solemn Mass of Remembrance at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C., attended by 1,100 Fourth Degree Knights on the first anniversary of the attacks.

As part of the museum’s permanent Wall of History for Sept. 11, other items related to the terrorist attacks are on display. They include two twisted beams from the World Trade Center, a severed street lamppost from a neighborhood close to the World Trade Center and information about the Heroes Fund project that provided immediate assistance to families of emergency responders who lost their lives in the rescue and recovery efforts.

Through Oct. 11, “Remembering 9/11: 25 Years Later,” is on display at the Blessed Michael McGivney Pilgrimage Center in New Haven. This temporary exhibit supplements the permanent memorial to the Knights of Columbus who perished on that day. To learn more, call 203.865.0400 or visit michaelmcgivneycenter.org.
