ST. JOHN OF THE CROSS CHURCH
MIDDELBURY

FR. JAIME G.

Dear Parishioners,

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ continue to lead us into a joyful and lasting relationship with Jesus Christ.

It has been two and a quarter years since I was entrusted with the pastoral care of our Catholic community in Middlebury and Southbury. I am grateful for the privilege of serving among you and for the many ways your lives bear witness to love of God and neighbor.

I am also grateful for the honest and thoughtful conversations we have shared about parish life. Several parishioners have expressed a desire for clearer communication, particularly regarding the reasons behind changes in pastoral priorities, parish practices, and our worship spaces. This is a reasonable and important request as we discern God's will for our parish in 2026 and the years ahead. Effective pastoral leadership requires communicating not only what decisions are made, but also the pastoral considerations behind them.

Accordingly, I will begin offering more regular communication through the parish bulletin and, when helpful, through additional media such as brief video presentations. These communications will explain the pastoral vision and discernment guiding our parish, including approaches to faith formation, the incorporation of religious art and devotional elements in our worship spaces, and certain liturgical practices.

They will also provide opportunities to reflect more deeply on aspects of our Catholic faith and moral teaching that may not always be fully understood. In this way, I hope to offer the Church's sound explanations and helpful apologetics—that is, clear and reasoned presentations of the faith—so that we may better understand and live what our faith teaches, and share it with others. Of great importance, we will continue to learn and ask for the graces manifested in the life of our new patron and intercessor, a saint of our current times: Saint Carlo Acutis.

As an update on our transition to Saint Carlo Acutis Parish, our website has moved from MiddSouthCatholic.org to www.carloacutisct.org. The former address will continue to redirect visitors to the new website. Our parish email addresses are also being updated; messages sent to the former domain will continue to be received through the transition.

Thank you to all who have offered feedback in a constructive and charitable spirit. I am also grateful for your patience as you have come to know a new priest and pastor during these past two years. Please continue to pray that, guided by the Holy Spirit, we may grow together in faith, unity, and love of Christ.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Jaime G.

Looking Ahead:
Sharing and Pondering the Word of God

READINGS FOR NEXT WEEK'S SUNDAY: TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
September 20, 2026

First Reading: Isaiah* 55:6-9
Psalm: 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18
Second Reading: Philippians* 1:20c-24, 27a
Gospel: Matthew* 20:1-16a

Next week, in our first reading Isaiah gets to the point, recording for us the message God has given him, "…my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, ……as high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts." We would do well to keep this in mind as the lesson continues in the Gospel.

Matthew's Gospel is a parable, - one of the longer ones which Jesus used to teach his hearers, beginning as many of them did with, "The kingdom of heaven is like…" Parables often leave me feeing unsettled – uncomfortable, which is probably a good thing, - and this one is no exception. It requires that I read or listen more attentively and not jump to conclusions.

In the first place, this is not an instruction on labor relations. The daily workers and their interaction with the vineyard owner who hires them all point to the lesson that Jesus wants to get across: the goodness and the generosity of God are far beyond anything we can imagine! They cannot be measured in human terms or by human expectations. Like two children squabbling over who got the bigger 'half' of the last Dad's birthday brownie, grumbling appears to have been part of human nature even in the time of Jesus. God is good-always, and we are invited to respond gratefully.

Annual HOPES Collection – September 19 & 20

Next weekend, our parish will participate in the Archdiocese of Hartford's annual HOPES Collection: Help Our Parish Educators & Students. This collection directly benefits all Catholic elementary schools by providing grants that strengthen academic excellence and deepen faith formation.

Pope Leo XIV, in his Apostolic letter, Drawing New Maps of Hope, reminds us of the Church's mission to "draw new maps of hope, so that every generation may find paths that lead to the fullness of life." Our Catholic schools do exactly this - forming children in mind, body, and spirit, and preparing them to bring the Gospel into the world. Because our schools are entirely tuition-driven, the support of parishioners is essential.

Your generosity helps keep Catholic education accessible to families and ensures that students continue to thrive in safe, faith-filled environments. Please give generously to the HOPES Collection next weekend. Thank you for supporting Catholic education in our Archdiocese of Hartford.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL MEAL MINISTRY

Team A will be serving Shepherds Pie with salad and desert on Monday September 14th at the St Vincent DePaul shelter in Waterbury. Lets share our giving spirit with those less fortunate. An e-mail message will be sent to all team members requesting their participation, including delivery instructions . We need new members to join our team as well. If you would like to join our ministry please contact our office and we will connect you with Mike Leonetti. Thank you for your continued support .

Please Join The Knights in Support of OUR LOCAL FOOD BANKS THIS SEPTEMBER!

Dear Friends,

Once again, the Knights of Columbus, in concert with our Middlebury Brothers, will sponsor a food drive for the Southbury and Middlebury Food Banks. Persistently high food prices are putting an extraordinary strain on our food banks. Therefore, we are requesting donations of grocery store gift cards to support both food banks in purchasing their critical food needs and to provide assistance now and throughout the forthcoming holiday season. Additionally, gift cards provide food banks with the flexibility to precisely target the greatest need. The Knights will place blue collection boxes for gift cards throughout September, one in St John of The Cross and one in Sacred Heart.

Gratefully,
The Knights of Columbus

Each given team meets weekly to make sandwiches. Tuna, mayo and sandwich bags are provided. Each team donates bread and eggs for egg salad. Teams meet in the morning and deliver the sandwiches to the shelter before lunch. For more information, please contact Jackie Desmarais through our parish office!

Thank you, brothers and sisters,
As a seminarian I benefitted from your generosity: books, lodging, meals. I was just a small portion of those receiving your assistance. Many families living in poverty are directly helped by the contributions made through the Archbishop Annual Appeal (AAA). I am deeply thankful and humbled by our parish: as of 9/4/2026, our parish has already contributed 104.46% of our goal, with 19.49% of our parishioners donating. God sees the good we do, thank you for alleviating the burdens of so many lives through the AAA.

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD SEPTEMBER 12 - 18, 2026

A Circle of Women Echo St. Pio's Devotion to Prayer

- Story by Karen A. Avitabile

A group of women inspired by St. Pio of Pietrelcina's deep devotion to prayer gathers weekly at the Padre Pio Foundation of America in Cromwell to pray for others.

"We pray from our hearts to Padre Pio," says prayer warrior Donna Morales of Cromwell. "He's drawing me here and we pray for the needs of the community. It's a calling."

For the past 20 years, Morales and three other women have been the core group of the Padre Pio Prayer Group which meets three mornings each week. Surrounded by statues, artwork and holy relics of St. Pio, they pray together, share intentions and support one another in faith in Our Blessed Mother of the Holy Innocents Chapel on the campus of the Padre Pio Foundation of America.

The group remembers in prayer all daily intentions left by guests to the Foundation, those who leave them on the website or call them in, says Julie Fitts Ritter, executive director of the Foundation. "We get letters and calls from all around the world asking for prayers," she says. "Our prayer group is powerful."

Through his intercessions, St. Pio of Pietrelcina, widely known as Padre Pio, has been celebrated for extreme physical healings, conversion, renewal of faith, and spiritual and temporal blessings. His spiritual advice centers on his signature catchphrases: "Pray, hope, and don't worry" and "Worry is useless." The saint also advised that "prayer is the best weapon we have."

Born on May 25, 1887, in southern Italy, St. Pio is considered a notable saint. Entering the novitiate of the Capuchin friars when he was 15, he suffered both physically and spiritually. The five wounds of Christ's Passion appeared on his body on Sept. 20, 1918.

"Our prayer group is powerful," says Maria Pata of Cromwell, adding that prayers are extended to Pope Leo XIV, priests, the souls in purgatory, an increase in vocations and many other intentions. "Once you leave you feel peaceful."

Deep personal prayer routines remain a priority for the women apart from the group. "We continue our prayers outside of here," says Berlin resident Luanne Gagliardi. "We're bonded in a spiritual sense. What is most rewarding is you see the fruits of your prayer."

For Marie Sorensen of Berlin, the prayer group "keeps us grounded in our faith," she says, adding it is an opportunity to be part of a larger community. Outside of their prayer sessions, the women have become friends and get together socially.

For the past 15 years, Father William Trauba, a Capuchin priest from Mexico, has served as spiritual director of the Prayer Group. He participates virtually in the prayer sessions on Wednesdays. "We pray from our hearts to Padre Pio," he says.

The Foundation, at 463 Main St., in Cromwell, is open Mondays through Fridays and on the first Saturday of each month. Visitors are invited to take part in the Padre Pio Prayer Group on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., in Our Blessed Mother of the Holy Innocents Chapel. Also, visitors may pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet in the chapel Mondays through Fridays, from 3 to 3:30 p.m.

On Sept. 23, 1968, St. Pio died in San Giovanni Rotondo, Italy. He was canonized on June 16, 2002. To mark his feast day on Sept. 23, a Mass will take place at 11 a.m. in Our Lady, Queen of the Apostles Chapel on the campus of nearby Holy Apostles College & Seminary in Cromwell. Refreshments will follow at the Foundation. To R.S.V.P. or for more information, visit padrepio.com/events or call 860.635.4996.
