UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURE

Jean Améry, a Holocaust survivor tortured by the Nazis, later wrote about the abyss of human evil. He described his reaction as an "indignant despair." Haven't we all, to some degree, felt that abyss opened beneath us? A sudden loss, a violent headline, a moment of loneliness or panic, when the world feels fragile and meaning seems to collapse?

It is to this fear that Jesus speaks in today's Gospel: "Do not be afraid of those who can kill the body." (Matthew 10:28) He does not deny evil or pretend we will never suffer. Instead, He reframes the abyss: do not fear those who can kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Your life is seen, known, and counted by the Father. Even the hairs of your head, even the sparrow's fall.

This is no superficial comfort. Jesus himself has entered the abyss: suffering, death, even our sense of forsakenness, and he has come through it. That is why his words, "Do not be afraid," hold such weight. They do not erase the abyss but build a bridge across it.

Faith is not pretending everything is fine. It is staring into the abyss and still choosing trust. And in that trust, we discover we are never alone. Christ stands with us, and the Father's care surrounds us. That is the only comfort deep enough for our (often fearful) hearts.

— Father John Muir

Position Opening: Parish Business Manager

St. Jeanne Jugan Parish is seeking a dedicated and experienced individual to oversee the fiscal operations of the parish as Business Manager. This important role supports our parish community by ensuring strong financial management and overseeing business operations in support of the Pastor, parish staff, and ministry leaders.

Responsibilities include budgeting, financial reporting, payroll management, overseeing accounts payable/receivable, office administration, human resources support, vendor and contract management, and ensuring compliance with all Archdiocese policies. The Business Manager will closely collaborate with the Pastor, parish staff, the Financial Council, and volunteers in support of parish fiscal and business operations.

Applicants with a BS/BA in Accounting, Finance, Business Administration, or related fields are encouraged to apply. At least 2 years of relevant work experience is preferred. Strong organizational, communication, computer skills, along with exceptional attention to detail are essential. Strong interpersonal, written, and verbal skills including the ability to generate clear, concise, and insightful reports and recommendations and to make presentations to varied groups are required. Knowledge of accounting and fiscal operations of non-profit organizations is desirable.

Candidates for this position are invited to submit a resume and cover letter to <https://tinyurl.com/SJJApplication>, scanning the QR code, or via email to wcotter3@cox.net.
