Envision Lesson 6 Wrap-up

What Is Love?

Love versus Use

Got It? (Page 96)

Love people. Use _____. (Not the other way around.)

Vocabulary (Page 97)

agape	eros	use
-------	------	-----

_____ The form of love that wants to be close to the person you love. Eros must always be balanced with agape to protect it from selfishness or possessiveness.

_____ The form of love that genuinely wants what is good for the other and works to achieve it. Agape isn't focused on self and gives without expecting anything in return. Agape inspires us to make sacrifices for those we love.

_____ This is the opposite of love because it treats a person like an object for some pleasure or gain instead of respecting his or her dignity.

Envision Lesson 7 Intro

Vocation to Holiness

God's Call, My Response

"In the hidden recesses of the human heart, the grace of a vocation takes the form of a dialogue." St. John Paul II, Homily, India, 1986

Read THE BIG PICTURE (Page 99)

1. When we turn off the distractions and noise and truly _____, we can hear God calling each of us to holiness.
2. Holiness is the _____ of becoming who God created us to be.
3. But holiness starts _____ as you follow Jesus at home, at school, on the sports field, on the stage, in your hobbies, in the way you interact with technology, and more.
