Winter Day of Recollection

After the rich liturgical seasons of Advent and Christmas have come and left us, we enter the seemingly barren time of the winter season. But what riches lie below the frozen surface of our hearts, waiting to be warmed by God's touch of love? Join us for a morning of prayer as Sr. Linda Hatton, sscm, joins the poetry and prose of Joyce Rupp and others with music and images to create an atmosphere of winter contemplation. So, grab a cup of hot chocolate and your cozy blanket in front of your online device to spend some quality time with the Lord as God reveals Godself in the midst of wintertime.
