CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF ST. PETERSBURG
COURAGEOUSLY Living the Gospel

From the Rector

Dear Friends,

Labor Day in the United States is a public holiday celebrated on the first Monday of September. It honors the American Labor movement and the contributions that workers have made to the strength, prosperity, laws and well-being of our country. St. John Paul II, reminds us that, “work is a good thing for man – a good thing for his humanity-because through work man not only transforms nature, adapting it to his own needs, but he also achieves fulfillment as a human being and indeed, in a sense, becomes more a human being.” (On Human Work: Laborem Exercens) “Human work proceeds directly from persons created in the image of God and called to prolong the work of creation by subduing the earth, both with and for one another. Hence work is a duty: “If any one will not work, let him not eat.” Work honors the Creator’s gifts and talents received from Him.” #2427 Catechism of the Catholic Church. In addition, we recall that Jesus was known as the “carpenter’s son,” and spent a greater part of His life in manual labor. We honor this weekend all who labor.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

M: Spend the week consciously saying what you know to be true, even if you risk the esteem of others. Do not hold grudges but rather address your brothers and sisters in a loving and timely manner.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

In this study, we'll trace Paul's missionary paths and uncover the vivid history behind his letters to the earliest Christian communities.

Together, we will discover what this radical message meant for the first believers-and exactly what it means for our church today. Join us as we bridge the gap between ancient history and modern faith.

FOCUS ON HISTORICAL CONTEXT

We will explore the cultural background of the Near Eastern world and examine the literary genres to better understand what the inspired authors intended to communicate.

CONSIDERING THE 4 SENSES OF INTERPRETATION

- LITERAL: What did the words mean to the original audience?
- ALLEGORICAL: How does the text point to Christ and the Church?
- MORAL: What does it teach us about how to live today?
- ANAGOGICAL: How does it direct us toward our ultimate heavenly destiny?
