Last Saturday of the month following the 4:00 pm Mass

Dear Lord,

Today we honor our veterans, worthy men and women who gave their best when they were called upon to serve and protect their country. We pray that you will bless them for their unselfish service in the continual struggle to preserve our freedoms, our safety, and our country's heritage, for all of us. Bless them abundantly for the hardships they faced, for the sacrifices they made for their many different contributions to America's victories over tyranny and oppression. We respect them, we thank them, we honor them, we are proud of them. We pray that you will watch over these special people and bless them with peace and happiness.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen,

Prayer to St. Jude

Most Holy Apostle St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master into the hands of His enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases and of things despaired of.

Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of.

Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly — here mention your petition — and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever.

I promise you, O blessed Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Eucharistic Ministers to the Homebound

The Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist to the Homebound connect the worshipping community with parishioners who are unable to attend Mass for any reason. We are in desperate need of Homebound Ministers. To find our more, please email Angie Gerdes at office@cathedralofstjude.org.

Holy Communion

To receive Holy Communion worthily and fruitfully, certain dispositions are required. These include:

1. State of Grace: The individual must be free from mortal sin. The Catechism of the Catholic Church emphasizes the importance of being in a state of grace before receiving the Eucharist. Anyone aware of having committed a grave sin should first seek reconciliation through the sacrament of Confession (cf. CCC 1385).
2. Eucharistic Fast: Observing the one-hour fast from food and drink (other than water and medicine) before receiving Communion helps prepare the mind and heart to receive Christ reverently (cf. Canon 919).
3. Faith in the Real Presence: The communicant must possess a belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, recognizing that they are receiving Jesus Himself—body, blood, soul, and divinity. This acknowledgment reflects the recipient's faith in the true nature of the sacrament.
4. Reverence and Adoration: Approaching Communion with an attitude of reverence, thanksgiving, and love reflects a deep appreciation of the sacrament. This includes participating fully and actively in the Mass and preparing one's heart through prayer.
5. Ecclesial Communion: Participation in the Eucharist also signifies unity with the Church. The communicant should be in a proper relationship with the Church, remaining in the bonds of charity with her members and holding no unresolved public dissent against her teachings.

Having these dispositions aligns one's heart and mind with Christ, allowing a deeper encounter with His grace and presence in the Eucharist.

Abundance Holy Hour for Vocations

The Office of Vocations and the Serra Club of St. Petersburg host a monthly Holy Hour for vocations at the Cathedral. The next Abundance Holy Hour is Wednesday, November 19 at 6:30 pm.

Join us in person or by livestream at www.stjudesp.org

All are welcome to join in praying for an abundance of vocations in the Diocese of St. Petersburg.

"May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God." Are you being called to love the Lord with an undivided heart as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life?

If you think God may be offering you this grace, contact Fr. Xavy Castro, Director of the Office of Vocations, spvocation@dosp.org or 727-345-3452.

Prayer For Renewed Strength

O Lord, my God,

Please give me the grace to maintain my hope in you through all of life's changes and to taste and see your goodness. I praise you for the gifts you have showered on me for so many years. Help me find joy in a renewed strength of spirit. Please bless me with good health, and inspire me to be a good example to others. For you are Lord, forever and ever.

Amen.

Prayer for Priests and Future Priests

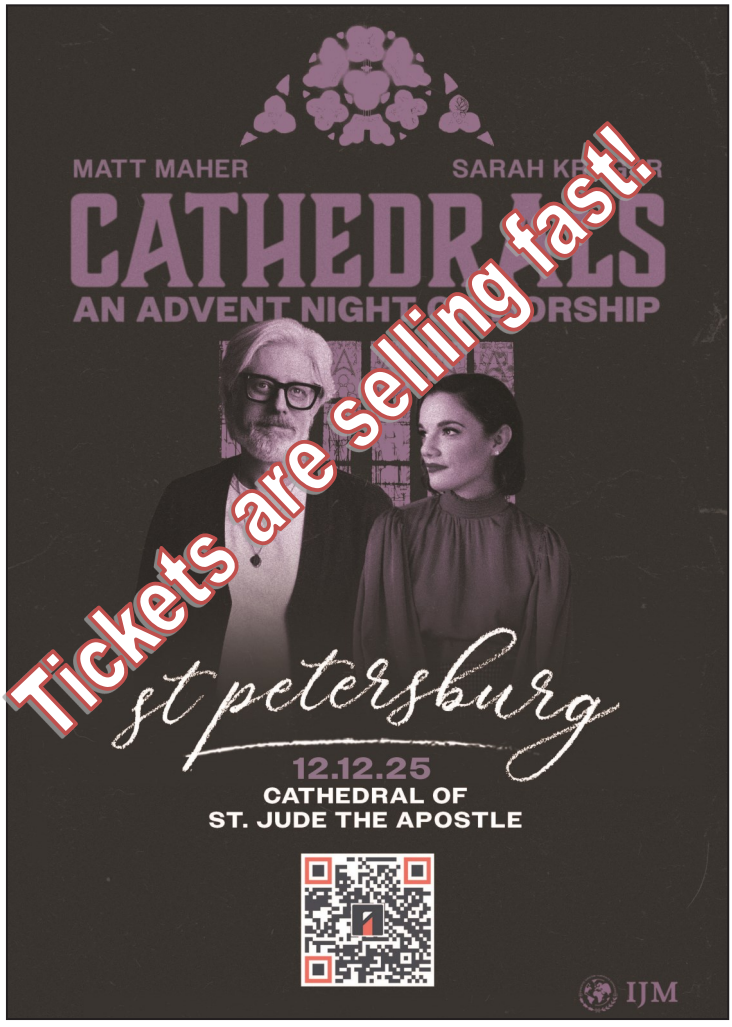

Please join us as we pray for the priests and seminarians in our Diocese and continue to pray that more young people will answer God's call to the Priesthood and Religious Life. Bishop Parkes has designated Wednesdays as Diocesan Day of Prayer for Vocations.

I Can Eat a Rainbow and Get Your Fit On

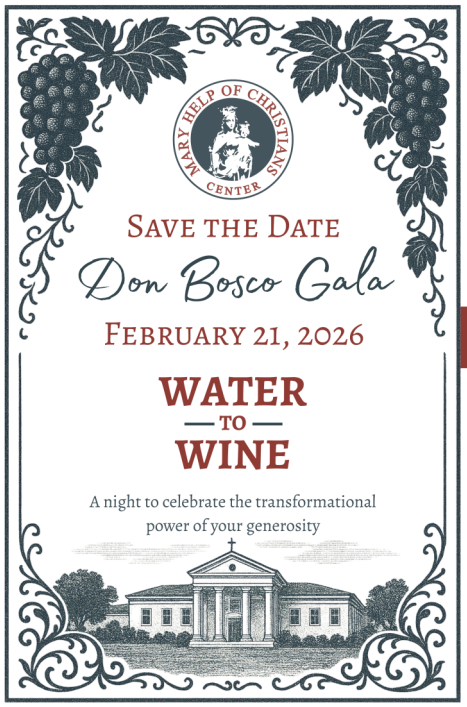

This program is brought to you by our Faith Community Nurses and BayCare Kids.

I Can eat A Rainbow is a caterpillar puppet, along with an interactive read-aloud, to teach pre-Kindergarten children about the importance of eating five healthy fruits and vegetables every day. Children identify and color match fruits and vegetables, then finish the program with a musical movement activity.

Get Your Fit On is a fun, interactive program aimed at 7-year olds reviews nutrition information based on MY-PLATE. Children are encouraged to make healthy choices from the 5 food groups and get a minimum of 60 minutes of physical activity every day. A musical movement activity is included to inspire fun, daily exercise.

Jan. 17 from 10:00 am to 11:00am in our parish center.

Please make sure to register by emailing Josie at Josefina.dedios@baycare.org or at jcdd1990@gmail.com

Question and Mission of the Week

Question:
This coming week, how can I let God's grace flow through me to bring life to someone who's parched or empty in some way?

Mission:
Choose one of the weak aspects of your spiritual structure, (e.g., fidelity to prayer, charity, patience, commitment to justice, sense of compassion, willingness to forgive) and resolve to build again with stronger materials. Spend this week fortifying your temple!

COURAGEOUSLY LIVING THE GOSPEL
