Dear Friends,

I thank Linda Wathen, our Liturgy Coordinator, for her efforts in hospitality to seek additional greeters and assistance to keep the Cathedral always ship shape.

Hospitality from Biblical times has always been part of our call. We witness this in Genesis 18:1-3. We hear our call in Hebrews 13:2, "Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels." Jesus shares with us His Heart's desire when He says, in Matthew 25:35, to welcome the stranger. It is our hope that all who come to our doors to worship with us will recognize in us the love of Jesus.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Tom Morgan

Prayer to St. Jude

Most Holy Apostle St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master into the hands of His enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases and of things despaired of.

Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of.

Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly — here mention your petition — and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever.

I promise you, O blessed Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Holy Communion

To receive Holy Communion worthily and fruitfully, certain dispositions are required. These include:

1. State of Grace: The individual must be free from mortal sin. The Catechism of the Catholic Church emphasizes the importance of being in a state of grace before receiving the Eucharist. Anyone aware of having committed a grave sin should first seek reconciliation through the sacrament of Confession (cf. CCC 1385).
2. Eucharistic Fast: Observing the one-hour fast from food and drink (other than water and medicine) before receiving Communion helps prepare the mind and heart to receive Christ reverently (cf. Canon 919).
3. Faith in the Real Presence: The communicant must possess a belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, recognizing that they are receiving Jesus Himself—body, blood, soul, and divinity. This acknowledgment reflects the recipient's faith in the true nature of the sacrament.
4. Reverence and Adoration: Approaching Communion with an attitude of reverence, thanksgiving, and love reflects a deep appreciation of the sacrament. This includes participating fully and actively in the Mass and preparing one's heart through prayer.
5. Ecclesial Communion: Participation in the Eucharist also signifies unity with the Church. The communicant should be in a proper relationship with the Church, remaining in the bonds of charity with her members and holding no unresolved public dissent against her teachings.

Having these dispositions aligns one's heart and mind with Christ, allowing a deeper encounter with His grace and presence in the Eucharist.

EMERGENCY FACTSHEET OCTOBER 31, 2025

CRS Responds to Hurricane Melissa in Jamaica and Haiti

CONTEXT

The full extent of Hurricane Melissa's destruction is now coming into focus, as the powerful storm swept across Jamaica, Haiti and Cuba, leaving at least 50 people dead. Jamaica suffered the greatest impact. At its peak, Hurricane Melissa reached sustained winds of 185 mph, making it one of the most intense Atlantic storms in more than a century—surpassing even Hurricane Katrina.

Across the island, roofs made from zinc sheets and wood were no match for Melissa's winds, leaving families exposed and entire neighborhoods destroyed.

"In Jamaica, many people live in homes that are just not built for storms like this," said Bishop John Persaud of Montego Bay. "Churches, schools, rectories, and convents have lost their roofs. In Montego Bay, families are sleeping in parish halls or churches with nothing but tarps between them and the night sky."

While Melissa did not make direct landfall in Haiti, the storm has produced heavy rains that triggered flash flooding and landslides in many areas of the Grand Sud, blocking major national routes. These kinds of powerful, fast-moving storms are becoming more frequent as the warming climate fuels more destructive hurricanes—and it is always the poorest families who suffer the most.

Urgent needs across the region include safe shelter, clean water, food and hygiene supplies.

CRS AND PARTNER RESPONSE

In Jamaica, Caritas Antilles and local dioceses are leading emergency response coordination with CRS support. In anticipation of emergencies like this, CRS prepositioned more than 2,000 kits in St. Lucia containing water, sanitation and hygiene supplies, along with other essential items. These supplies are already being deployed to Jamaica.

CRS has decades of experience in regional emergency response, with 100 staff members and Caritas partners in Haiti and local partners in Jamaica. CRS has invested years in building local capacity. Trained volunteers are now deployed in shelters and communities, ensuring timely and ethical humanitarian assistance. We continue to support Caritas and our partners across the region.

Question and Mission of the Week

Question:
As Christ is king of both this world and the next, how do I allow him to rule my life right now? What can I do to model the self-sacrificing love he proved on the cross?

Mission:
Make a list of the things that hold some power (sovereignty) over your life e.g. financial concerns, the need to please, greed, a lack of forgiveness.

Pray over this list and ask for the grace in Jesus' name to be freed from bondage to any power other than our Sovereign Lord.
