Dear Friends:

We celebrate this Sunday the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. I have included below teaching from the Catechism of the Catholic Church regarding the family. In addition, a prayer for the family is also included. Let us continue to reflect on our call to imitate the example of the Holy Family and to pray for healing in all families in need. The Mass schedule for the Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God is as follows: Wednesday, December 31, 4:00 pm and Thursday January 1, 8:15 am and 11:00 am.

We would like to wish you all a Happy New Year!

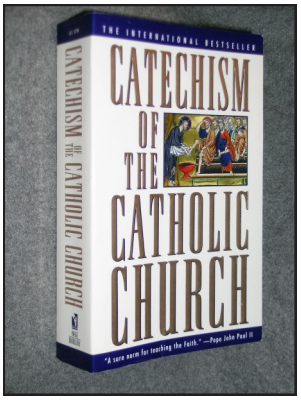

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Prayer for Families

God, Our Father, loving and merciful, bring together and keep all families in perfect unity of love and mutual support. Instill in each member the spirit of understanding and affection for each other. Keep quarrels and bitterness far from them, and for their occasional failures instill forgiveness and peace. May the mutual love and affection of parents set a good example.

Instill in children self-respect, that they may respect others and grow in mature independence. May the mutual affection and respect of families be a sign of Christian life here and hereafter, through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

Amen.

Catechism of the Catholic Church: II. THE FAMILY AND SOCIETY

2207 The family is the original cell of social life. It is the natural society in which husband and wife are called to give themselves in love and in the gift of life. Authority, stability, and a life of relationships within the family constitute the foundations for freedom, security, and fraternity within society. The family is the community in which, from childhood, one can learn moral values, begin to honor God, and make good use of freedom. Family life is an initiation into life in society.

2208 The family should live in such a way that its members learn to care and take responsibility for the young, the old, the sick, the handicapped, and the poor. There are many families who are at times incapable of providing this help. It devolves then on other persons, other families, and, in a subsidiary way, society to provide for their needs: "Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained from the world."

Anointing of the Sick

In the Catholic Church, the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is for baptized members of the faithful who, due to sickness or old age, begin to be in danger. It's not just for those who are dying, but also for anyone who is seriously ill or facing the effects of aging.

Liturgy of the Hours in the Cathedral

The Liturgy of the Hours is the universal prayer of the Church. Join us as we pray these beautiful psalms.

Prayer to St. Jude

Most Holy Apostle St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the name of the traitor who delivered your beloved Master into the hands of His enemies has caused you to be forgotten by many, but the Church honors and invokes you universally as the patron of hopeless cases and of things despaired of.

Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of.

Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolations and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly — here mention your petition — and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever.

I promise you, O blessed Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, and I will never cease to honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to do all in my power to encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Question and Mission of the Week

Question:
As this tumultuous year comes to an end, what can I do for those who are strangers in a strange land?

Mission:
It is new year's resolution time: have you made the usual list? Be sure to add a spiritual agenda to your hopes for the coming year. Review Paul's advice in Colossians 3. And let the word of God, rich as it is, dwell in you in the coming year.
