It's a Party! And You're Invited!

The secret is out. Fr. Tom turns 70 in November. Some of his friends want to give him a party to celebrate the occasion. So the parish is invited to join Fr. Tom and friends on Sunday, November 15th after the 11 o'clock mass in the Fr. Keane Hall to celebrate the grand occasion. There will be food and drinks to mark the occasion. So, mark your calendars now and join in the festivities.

Fr. Tom agreed to the party only if gifts were discouraged. So, come and enjoy this special free event. Maybe even sing Stolat for him! See you there.

Our Lady of the Holy Rosary of Fatima

Thank you to all who joined us in praying the Holy Rosary on Saturday October 10th. Almost 30 Men, Women & Children were in attendance. I know our Lady of Fatima and our Lord are overjoyed!

God Bless, Carmie

We welcome into our Parish Family through the saving waters of Baptism:

EmmilynnJo Considine
daughter of Sean and Abigail Considine

Robert Antonio D'Agostino son of Nicholas and Nicole D'Agostino

May God's graces and blessings be with them always as they grow in wisdom and understanding, and may their life always reflect God's goodness and love.

The Prayerful Study of Sacred Scripture Reminder

The Sacred Scripture Study Group will meet on Mon. 11/2 Deuteronomy - Mon. 11/16 Joshua from 6:30 to 8:30 pm in The Father Keane Hall, of St. Nicholas Parish.

Please pre-read the scheduled readings and bring your Catholic Bible to the Class.

Thank you, Deacon Ken Ewaskie

Any inquires, questions, concerns (203) 888-1641.

On Saturday, October 24th, the St. Nicholas Men's Club and Social Committee hosted a Polish Dinner event in Father Keane Hall. Following an opening prayer by Father Tom, parishioners were treated to a delectable dinner of Polish cuisine, all prepared by Arias' European market. Dessert consisted of various Polish treats, served with coffee, tea, and soft drinks. Red and white wines were available for a $3 donation per glass.

A 50/50 raffle awarded $207 to a fortunate parishioner, Rosemarie Slie. The event was attended by 122 adults, making it a truly memorable Parish celebration that brought together parishioners. Classic Polish music entertainment was provided.

We extend our sincere gratitude to everyone for their unwavering support. We are deeply blessed to have such a vibrant and engaged Parish community.

A big thank-you to Fred Ortolini for capturing all these great shots!

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD OCTOBER 31 - NOVEMBER 6, 2026

Parish Challenges Congregation to 800 Acts of Kindness

- Story by Shelley Wolf

It seems as if there is no end to the many thoughtful, personal acts of kindness being performed by the parishioners of St. Junípero Serra Parish in South Windsor. Two tiny Christmas trees located inside St. Francis of Assisi Church and St. Margaret Mary Church are a testament to their kindness.

Each tree is coated with paper tags that contain handwritten notes, detailing individual good deeds manifested by local Catholics. And most of the tag-writers are choosing to remain anonymous.

"Every week, I take the tags off the trees," says Roseann Williams, a member of the parish's Committee for the Jubilee Year of St. Francis, which organized the challenge. It's Williams' job to collect the tags from both churches to keep count. "We're hoping it becomes a way of life."

From acts of old-fashioned courtesy to prayer for others to charitable contributions, these virtuous actions are part of the "800 Acts of Kindness," a campaign for kindness kicked off by the parish in early 2026 as part of the Jubilee Year of St. Francis.

Back in 2025, the parish formed the committee to come up with ways to celebrate the Jubilee Year of St. Francis, which runs from Jan. 10, 2026, to Jan. 10, 2027. Declared by the Vatican, the Jubilee Year is being observed by Catholics all over the world.

"We asked what activities we could do and how we could work as a pilgrim parish," says Paulann Marianella, another committee member. "We wanted to get people engaged and involved."

Joe Coray, a parishioner and teacher, proposed the "800 Acts of Kindness." Tags are made available to parishioners in baskets in the sanctuary, where a small poster offers some helpful hints to get people started: hold a door, prepare a meal, pick up litter.

After an act is performed, it can then be recorded on a tag and affixed to a tree by individual parishioners.

A closer look at the completed tags on the trees reveals moments of uncommon generosity. One handwritten tag reads, "Gave donation for those affected by the earthquake in Colombia." Another reads, "Helped a woman pay for her groceries when she didn't have enough money."

Still other tags mention bringing good cheer and actively assisting others: "Visited a sick friend," and "Helped person in a wheelchair get out of a jammed situation."

Additional tags tell of providing roadside assistance to a stranger and watering the flowers on the altar for all to enjoy.

By the end of the summer, parishioners had already surpassed their collective goal of 800 acts. Organizers predicted even more acts of kindness will be performed throughout the fall as students returned to faith formation classes. They say the final count won't be known and released until Jan. 10, 2027, at the conclusion of the Jubilee Year.

Why the focus on kindness? "Kindness — there's not enough of it," says Doreen Blondin, another committee member. "You can't change your world, but you can change your little circle."

Referring to the inspiring quotes about kindness printed on the front side of the tags, Marianella says, "That's what the quotes on the front side of the cards speak to. Even if it's just a smile to brighten other people's day. We're modeling on St. Francis and all his good works and teachings."

Williams insists, "Kindness is the backbone of Christianity. We're being Christlike. The way I look at it, kindness leads to love."
