WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Sunday, October 18

World Mission Day was first established by Pope Pius XI, beginning in October 1927. This year the Church celebrates the 100th World Mission Day on Sunday, October 18, 2026. As the Church prepares to celebrate this day, Pope Leo XIV calls us to unity in Christ, love, and renewed missionary commitment "with joy and zeal in the Holy Spirit" in his first World Mission Sunday Message: "One in Christ, united in mission."

A video of Pope Leo is posted on our website and can also be found here: <https://pontificalmissions.org/home>

The Pontifical Mission Societies (TPMS) are a worldwide network at the service of the Pope, supporting the missions and young Churches through prayer and charity. The four societies that comprise TPMS are:

- The Society for the Propagation of the Faith
- The Society of St. Peter the Apostle
- The Missionary Childhood Association
- The Missionary Union

Since 1922, the first three of these societies have been designated as pontifical, underscoring their official role as instruments of the Pope and the universal Catholic Church. In most countries, a National Director oversees the four societies and manages the World Mission Sunday Collection, taken up in every Catholic parish worldwide on the second to last Sunday of October.

The Pontifical Mission Societies provide vital support to mission territories where the Church is too young, too poor, or too persecuted to sustain itself. TPMS enables the Church's presence in these areas through:

Next Week's Readings

Oct. 18, 2026. For readings online, visit <https://bible.usccb.org/daily-bible-reading>

Reading 1: Exodus 22:20-26

Responsorial Psalms 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

I love you, Lord, my strength.

Reading 2: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Alleluia John 14:23

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

*Whoever loves me will keep my word,
says the Lord, and my Father will love
him and we will come to him.*

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

Proclaiming the Gospel and evangelizing communities that have never encountered Christ, Building churches and chapels as gathering places of faith and worship.

Supporting mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay leaders who minister to the faithful. Providing humanitarian aid, including food, education, and medical care to the most vulnerable.

At the direct request of the Pope, TPMS ensures that the message of Christ reaches places where He has been forgotten, denied, persecuted, or shunned. The societies care for young Churches until they can become self-sustaining—just as they once did for the Church in the U.S., which was considered mission territory until 1908. Many Catholic churches across the U.S. were built thanks to TPMS supporters worldwide.
