God our Father,
 In your wisdom and love you have created us and called us your own. Bless our fathers, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. In moments of joy, rejoice with them. In times of struggle, give them your courage and perseverance. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them always with a spirit of profound respect. May the example and prayer of St. Joseph inspire them to live their vocation with courage.
 Grant this through Christ our Lord.
 Amen.

Dear Catholic Center Community,

Happy Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time. My name is Ava Doyle and last week I started as the Marketing & Communications specialist, a role that was previously filled by Rachel Lichtenwalner. I am beyond excited to serve the community in this position. One of my main projects is designing our annual magazine which showcases our community and the growth in the past year. I have loved getting to know The Catholic Center staff better since starting here. They are truly a wonderful group of people. We are in such good hands!

Here is a little bit more about me; I am a rising junior at the University of Georgia, majoring in Public Relations and minoring in Italian and Classical Culture. My career goal is to open my own wedding planning business after college. I grew up in Roswell, about 40 minutes outside of Atlanta, and attended a small private Catholic school in North Georgia. I love getting to know people, hosting my friends, going on walks, and reading anything by C.S. Lewis. My confirmation saint is St. Philip Neri, the patron saint of joy! I studied abroad last summer in Rome, and I got to visit many spots he was at during his life (It was so cool!).

I have been involved in The Catholic Center since my freshman year and have treasured every second. Although I am a cradle Catholic my faith really came alive in college. The Catholic Center is very much to thank for that. This year I am one of the Catholic Student Association's Ablaze co-coordinators. I am grateful and excited for this opportunity. I also am involved with FOCUS, leading a bible study and discipleship pod. I love the playfulness, joyfulness, authenticity, and beauty of The Catholic Center Community!

Recently, God has been loving me through those I encounter. This has been super prevalent while tabling for the Catholic Student Association at the UGA transfer and freshman orientations over the summer. I have seen the excitement and eagerness of these new students, and I see the Lord's own eagerness, delight, and excitement for me through that. This has been a gift and consolation. One of my favorite musicals is Les Misérables and in it one of the characters says: "To love another person is to see the face of God". I think this quote perfectly sums up how Jesus has been revealing His love to me, but also perfectly depicts why our community is so good and so important on our journey towards Heaven. Not only do we build each other up and support one another, but we also can invite others to experience Christ's love by our actions, words, and witness. How beautiful that we can show others Christ by loving one another!

I am excited to serve this community in the Marketing & Communications role and to get to know Jesus better while doing it. You all are in my prayers – please pray for me too!

In Christ,
 Ava Doyle

Announcements

Fr. Michael's Goodbye

As many of you all have already heard Fr. Michael has been reassigned to serve at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Carrolton. This being said we want to celebrate Fr. Michael. There will be a basket in the back of the Chapel if you would like to leave or write Fr. Michael a letter. Additionally, we have a scrapbook available in the center for members to sign and leave a note.

Fr. Michael's last Mass will be June 27th, the 5pm Vigil Mass. After this Mass we will be having light refreshments and chances to say goodbye. Fr. Michael will also be available after the 8am and 10:30am Masses the following day, with light breakfast foods and chances to say goodbye.

Catholic Inquiry Nights

Are you interested in becoming Catholic or baptized Catholic and desiring to complete your sacraments of Christian initiation? Learn about the process of sacramental preparation, meet other people interested, and ask any questions you have about the Catholic faith. Inquiry nights will be July 9 and Aug 27 at 6:30 pm. Email Suzie at sacraments@ccatuga.org with any questions!

Children's Corner

We have a new Children's Little Library in the back of our Chapel. A handful of Catholic Children's books can be found in the back of our Chapel on the bookshelf. Feel free to borrow a book during Mass to entertain your little ones. Please return after Mass.

Baptism Preparation

We have updated our online baptism registration form. Please go to our website ugacatholic.org and click on Faith Formation and Sacraments and then Baptism. Fill out the form online and submit. Once the form is received, our baptism coordinator, Virigina Johnson, will contact you for further instructions.

Catholic Center Archives

Next year, 2027 is the CC's 75th anniversary! In order to prepare for this celebration we are asking members of our community to share their memoirs over the years, we are especially looking for photos for the 70s, 80s, and 90s. If you have any photos please upload them on our website using this link or by scanning the QR code.

Pope Leo XIV Corner

"May it be evident among you that "God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him" (Ibid.). This is the heart of the Gospel, the heart of Christ. Whoever immerses themselves in it no longer lives for themselves. Open this sea of love to everyone! " (From Pope Leo's Homily on June 12th)
