NEW PARISHIONERS ARE WELCOME to stop by the Church Office to register Monday through Friday 8:00am to 5:00pm

BAPTISM: We are pleased to help your family prepare for the special event of your child's entrance into our faith community. To help parents and godparents prepare, a class(English) is held the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 7:30pm in the Community Center and in Spanish the 2nd Saturday of each month at 9:00am at Guadalupana. Parents and Godparents must attend this class prior to scheduling baptism.

MARRIAGES: If you are planning to be married at Blessed Trinity, your preparation process should begin at least four (4) months prior to desired date. We look forward to helping you during your time of engagement and preparation for the vocation of Christian marriage. Call the Church Office for an appointment with one of our priests.

SICK CALLS AND HOSPITAL VISITS: If you or a family member are in a local hospital or homebound and would like to receive Communion or Sacrament of the Sick, please call the Church Office at 629.8092 or Sister Juliet at x3211. When registering at the hospital, put your name on the Catholic List.

STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

When the Son of Man comes in glory, may we be among those who have fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and clothed the naked. For Jesus tells us clearly that it is those who have demonstrated good stewardship by sharing their gifts with the less fortunate who will receive God's blessing and inherit the kingdom.

LIVESTREAMING

Please be advised that the Mass is being filmed, broadcast, and/or videotaped, including audio recording. Your attendance at Mass constitutes your consent to these recordings, and to the use of the recordings by the church for public communications, social media, evangelization, and other business or religious purposes. God bless and thank you for attending Mass at Blessed Trinity Catholic Church.

STEWARDSHIP SPOTLIGHT

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's Gospel, Saint Matthew offers a compelling vision of the end-time, when the people of all nations are brought before the Lord to give an account of their lives and actions. Interestingly, the sheep, the righteous ones, are rewarded for having acted with love and compassion without having recognized the face of Christ in others. Good stewards recognize those in need of their care as gifts from God. They know that they are instruments of Christ's active, loving presence in the world. How will we treat others this week: our family members, neighbors, customers, strangers? What accounting will we make to the Lord for their care?

STEWARDS OF THE WEEK

Blessed Trinity Parishioners

Brother's Keeper would like to thank the parish for once again being so generous with our Thanksgiving food drive!

Thank you for being faithful stewards!

New Parishioners:

Paola Hernandez
Orlando, Lilly & Ella Rincon Prieto
Fernando, Maria, Fernando Jr, Genesis & Emiliano Chavez

Baptisms:

Kalai Matias Lescay Tarrago
Emma Sophia Pena Alvarez

As the liturgical year draws to a close, we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today's readings present us with a remarkable picture of our King. He reigns with all authority, yet He lovingly cares for His people, especially those most in need.

How do we honor such a King? By offering Him our lives through faithful stewardship.

In today's Gospel, Jesus describes the final judgment. He tells us that the measure of our lives will not be worldly success or personal achievement. Instead, He points to the ordinary acts of mercy that reveal a heart transformed by His love: feeding the hungry, welcoming the stranger, caring for the sick, and visiting the imprisoned.

Then He gives these unforgettable words: "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me."

As Christian stewards, we recognize Christ not only in the Eucharist but also in those He places before us each day. The more faithfully we love and serve Him in others, the more our lives reflect the heart of our King.

Children's Christmas Eve Pageant

Calling all children to sing, act, or read in the story of Jesus' birth during the 3pm Christmas Eve mass!

Stewardship Renewal

The annual stewardship pledges of time, talent and treasure were taken up last weekend.
If you missed it, you can always drop your sealed pledge of time, talent and treasure for 2027 into any of the baskets at any Mass during the weekend or you can drop it off at the church office.
If you did not get the stewardship package, you can pick it up in the vestibule or in the stewardship room.

Stewardship Thanks

Thanks to all who helped with this years annual stewardship renewal: the witness speakers (listed in last week's bulletin), Kiara Feliciano for the stewardship parish video, Jim Ross for planning the stewardship dinner and all of you who have already filled out and sent in your stewardship pledge for 2027.

Thanksgiving Mass Schedule

Stewardship Saint for November
St. Martin of Tours

St. Martin of Tours was born around 316 in a territory that is now part of Hungary. His father, an officer in the Roman army, conscripted Martin into military service at the age of fifteen.

While Martin was a soldier, there occurred the farrous incident memorialized by many artists. One day while at the gates of the city of Amiens he saw a scantily clad beggar. Martin cut his own military cloak in half and shared it with the beggar. That night Martin dreamed that Jesus was wearing that same half-cloak he had given away. Martin had for some time considered becoming a Christian. He was promptly baptized and made the decision to dedicate his life to Christ.

Martin became a follower of St. Hilary of Poitiers who gave him land where the first monastery in Gaul (present-day France) was established. It is the first monastery known to be established north of the Alps.

In 371, a time when bishops were chosen by the faithful, Martin was tricked into coming to Tours to be elected bishop. He was well known for his evangelizing, personal holiness, healing ministry and compassion toward the poor. It was also well known that Martin would never agree to be a bishop. A man from the city came to Martin and begged him to visit his sick wife. When the kindhearted Martin got to Tours, crowds of people came out of hiding and surrounded him. Unable to escape, he was swept into the city and, overwhelmed by the will of the crowds, became their bishop.

Martin maintained his lifestyle as a monk and exercised stewardship of the diocese on foot, horseback and by boat. His profound personal witness met with great success in an area that was largely pagan.

Martin died on November 8, 397, and his feast day is November 11, the day he was buried in Tours. He is the patron saint of France.

Perpetual Adoration

MONDAYS: 9:00pm - 10:00pm
TUESDAYS: 3:00am - 4:00am
TUESDAYS: 8:00am - 9:00am
WEDNESDAYS: 1:00am - 2:00am

Please prayerfully consider spending this quiet hour with Our Lord and helping ensure that He is never left alone. Your "yes" would be a tremendous blessing.

Also in need of substitutes, especially between Midnight and 5:00am

Please see the list of hours, which is in the Vestibule, on the counter near the staircase, that needs one more Adorer.

Lord Jesus, You invite me to be near You. In the stillness of Adoration, You want to speak to my heart. Help me to respond with love and trust. Show me the hour you are asking of me and give me the grace to offer it freely and faithfully. May this small gift of time draw me closer to Your Sacred Heart. Amen

Pope Quote

Pope Paul VI addressed the 1st International Conference on the Charismatic Renewal in 1975.In closing, he said:

"Have we forgotten the Holy Spirit? Certainly not! We want him, we honor him, and we love him. And you with your devotion, your fervor, your wish to live in the Spirit: this should be. It ought to rejuvenate the world, give it back a spirituality, a soul, a religious thought; it ought to reopen the world's closed lips to prayer and open its mouth to song, to joy, to hymns, and to witnessing. It will be very fortunate for our time and for our brothers that there should be a whole generation - your generation of young people - who shout out to the world the glory and greatness of the God of Pentecost."

Visit BT's charismatic prayer group every Thursday, 7-8:30pm in the Adult Day Care. Find rejuvenation & joy! For info: Richard@ 352-342-2982 or Katy@352-342-2983 or email i2bxtn@gmail.com.

YEAR-END GIVING TIPS

It's the most generous time of the year! As you consider sharing the blessings God has entrusted to you through a year-end gift, we've gathered a few helpful tips to guide your giving, highlight important deadlines, and help you explore potential tax advantages.

Gifts of Appreciated Stock

Donating appreciated securities may offer double tax advantages while supporting the Catholic ministries you love. The Catholic Foundation processes these gifts on our behalf (at no cost). Electronic stock transfers must be received in the Foundation's account by December 31. Start the process early! Directions can be found at www.cfocf.org/stock.

A Note About Tax Benefits: Tax laws and individual circumstances vary. Beginning in 2026, new limitations also apply to itemized charitable deductions. Please consult your financial or tax advisor to determine which giving strategies and potential tax benefits are appropriate for your personal situation.

Thank you for your faithful generosity of our parish and for strengthening our Catholic ministries through your support. May God bless you and your family with peace and joy this season!

Be a Good Steward of the Thanksgiving Day Weekend

Your Thanksgiving Day weekend can be more than just enjoying great meals, turning on the television to watch football games or renewing your annual Christmas shopping list. How about expressing your stewardship of this weekend in a more meaningful way? Here are some suggestions for making your Thanksgiving weekend an opportunity for expressing your gratitude to the Lord in creative ways:

- Go to Mass on Thanksgiving Day and count your blessings. Start the day off on a positive note and celebrate the Eucharist. In your prayer reflect on five things you are most grateful for in your life. Then reflect on how you can be an even better steward of these gifts.
- Write “I’m thankful for you” cards and give them out or e-mail them on Thanksgiving (or mail them beforehand)
- Share your Thanksgiving meal with someone who is alone this Thanksgiving. Look for someone, such as a neighbor, co-worker, fellow parishioner, college student or armed services personnel who may be separated from family and ask them to join you for your Thanksgiving dinner.
- Make contact with those who are sick or disabled. Maybe you are not able to visit them, you can try to identify someone who could use a phone call or even an errand run for them.
- Help someone if you can. Extend your generosity and blessings beyond your own family. Be part of an adopt-a-family effort, help distribute food baskets or bring canned foods or clothing to Brother’s Keeper.
- Take a walk. Find a place to enjoy God’s gift of creation. Head out the door for a refreshing walk. Invite family, friends, a colleague or neighbor to join you and share the experience as well.
- Most important! Take advantage of the Thanksgiving holiday weekend to focus on what you’re grateful for and the things you appreciate about yourself and others. It is an ideal time to remember and to celebrate the many blessings in our lives.
