FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

Today we celebrate Catechetical Sunday as we commission the catechists and teachers of our parish and school for the good work they do in transmitting the faith to our children. Our catechists are truly some of the unsung heroes of our parish as they volunteer their time to teach our little ones after they've finished a long day of school. It's a labor of love to prepare them for the sacraments and to be missionary disciples. Our St. Theresa teachers dedicate their entire lives to the cause of Catholic education and embrace teaching as a vocation and not a job.

The theme of this year's Catechetical Sunday is "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...to bring good news to the poor (Lk 4:18; cf. Is 61:1)." To quote from the U.S. Bishop's website: "[This passage from the gospel] reveals Jesus' mission and identity. Anointed by the Holy Spirit, he is sent to bring hope, healing, and freedom—especially to the poor, the brokenhearted, and the forgotten. This passage shows that the Messiah comes not with power or status, but with compassion, restoring dignity and proclaiming God's mercy. It also becomes a model for the Church, us, which is called to continue Christ's work by sharing the Good News and caring for those most in need."

So many times, I wander over the cafeteria on a Wednesday afternoon/evening to visit the children of Religious Education. Many are engaged, but some are, let's face it, disinterested, and some simply do not want to be there. I know that when I attended CCD here at Little Flower on a school day afternoon way back in the 1980's, I did not want to be here. And go figure, that catechist was teaching a future priest ... and the future pastor of the parish to boot.

Which is why the theme for this year resonates with me so much. While our children are not poor by worldly standards, their attention is being spread across so many distractions that faith, unfortunately, takes a back seat. This is where parents, the primary catechists of our children, need to step up and make faith THE most important part of family life. Sadly, we have too many of what I call "parking lot parents." These are parents who probably haven't been to church since baptizing their children and when First Communion time comes along, they register their children and just drop them off at CCD as if they were dropping them off at soccer practice or ballet and then don't come to Mass on Sundays where our faith comes to life. And yes, this applies to some of our Catholic school parents as well whose children spend 8 hours every day in a school run by Carmelite Sisters. This is why I look upon our little ones like our Lord looked on his people with pity because our children deserve better. They deserve the full experience of the beauty of our Catholic faith. A beauty that comes to life and reaches its summit in the celebration of the Mass.

Maybe the theme for this year should be "Don't Be a Parking Lot Parent." But I trust in our bishops and the spiritual theme they have chosen and ask for the Spirit of the Lord to come down upon all our school and religious education children and their parents, so that all of us, working together may raise these children to be what God wants them to be: saints!

God Bless You All,

DELESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Hoy celebramos el Domingo Catequético mientras encargamos a los catequistas y maestros de nuestra parroquia y escuela el buen trabajo que realizan transmitiendo la fe a nuestros hijos. Nuestros catequistas son realmente algunos de los héroes anónimos de nuestra parroquia, ya que ofrecen su tiempo para enseñar a nuestros pequeños después de un largo día de escuela. Es un trabajo de amor prepararlos para los sacramentos y para ser discípulos misioneros. Nuestros profesores de Santa Teresa dedican toda su vida a la causa de la educación católica y abrazan la enseñanza como una vocación y no como un trabajo.

El tema del Domingo Catequético de este año es: "El Espíritu del Señor está sobre mí... para traer buenas noticias a los pobres (Lc 4:18; cf. Is 61:1)." Para citar la página web del obispo de EE. UU.: "[Este pasaje del evangelio] revela la misión e identidad de Jesús. Ungido por el Espíritu Santo, es enviado para traer esperanza, sanación y libertad, especialmente a los pobres, los desalmados y los olvidados. Este pasaje muestra que el Mesías no viene con poder ni estatus, sino con compasión, restaurando la dignidad y proclamando la misericordia de Dios. También se convierte en un modelo para la Iglesia, nosotros, que está llamada a continuar la obra de Cristo compartiendo las Buenas Nuevas y cuidando de los más necesitados."

Muchas veces, paso por la cafetería un miércoles por la tarde o noche para visitar a los niños de Educación Religiosa. Muchos están implicados, pero algunos, seamos sinceros, desinteresados y algunos simplemente no quieren estar allí. Sé que cuando asistí al CCD aquí en Little Flower en una tarde de día escolar allá por los años 80, no quería estar aquí. Y quién lo diría, ese catequista estaba enseñando a un futuro sacerdote... y al futuro pastor de la parroquia, además.

Por eso el tema de este año resuena tanto conmigo. Aunque nuestros hijos no son pobres según los estándares mundanos, su atención se reparte en tantas distracciones que, lamentablemente, la fe queda en segundo plano. Aquí es donde los padres, los catequistas principales de nuestros hijos, deben dar un paso adelante y hacer de la fe la parte MÁS importante de la vida familiar. Lamentablemente, tenemos demasiados de lo que yo llamo "padres de aparcamiento". Son padres que probablemente no han ido a la iglesia desde que bautizaron a sus hijos y, cuando llega la Primera Comunión, inscriben a sus hijos y los dejan en el CCD como si los llevaran a la práctica de fútbol o al ballet, y luego no vienen a misa los domingos, donde nuestra fe cobra vida. Y sí, esto también se aplica a algunos de nuestros padres de escuelas católicas cuyos hijos pasan 8 horas cada día en un colegio dirigido por Hermanas Carmelitas. Por eso veo a nuestros pequeños como nuestro Señor miraba a su pueblo con compasión, porque nuestros hijos merecen algo mejor. Merecen la experiencia completa de la belleza de nuestra fe católica. Una belleza que cobra vida y alcanza su punto máximo en la celebración de la Misa.

Quizá el tema de este año debería ser "No seas un padre de aparcamiento." Pero confío en nuestros obispos y en el tema espiritual que han elegido y pido que el Espíritu del Señor recaiga sobre todos nuestros niños escolares y religiosos y sus padres, para que todos nosotros, trabajando juntos, podamos criar a estos niños para que sean lo que Dios quiere que sean: ¡santos!

Dios Los Bendiga A Todos,

Fr. Manny

WALKING WITH PURPOSE WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

*Come as you are. You are welcome here!
Make authentic connections with other women.
Refuel and refresh. Learn more about God.*

Walking with Purpose is a program that meets women right where they are, hands them a cup of coffee, and transforms their hearts. We are thrilled to announce that we will offer two Bible studies this season. Trust us. This may be your best YES ever.

Opening Your Heart, our foundational study, is perfect for women new to WWP (with or without Bible study experience). We invite you to be amazed at how Scripture applies to your everyday life.

Grounded in Hope, based on the book of Hebrews, will help you encounter Jesus in a powerful, comforting, and stabilizing way. Deepen your relationship with Him, grow in trust, and discover the hope and encouragement you need to persevere through life's challenges.

EJERCICIOS ESPIRITUALES DE SAN IGNACIO

Los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio de Loyola son una secuencia ordenada de meditaciones y contemplaciones -ejercicios- que surgen de la profunda experiencia espiritual que el santo vive a partir de su conversión; su objetivo es ayudar al que se ejercita en ellos a descubrir cuál es la voluntad de Dios para su vida.

Los Ejercicios se remontan al Cuaderno de notas en el que Ignacio describe sus experiencias espirituales durante su visita a la ciudad de Manresa, donde — como lo escribe en su Autobiografía - “le trataba Dios de la misma manera que trata un maestro de escuela a un niño, enseñándole.”

Los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio se ofrecerán aquí en la parroquia comenzando el lunes, 21 de septiembre a las 7:30pm en la oficina parroquial, y continuando cada lunes hasta el Mayo del 2026 (30 sesiones).

A PRAYER FOR CATECHISTS

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists.
We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church.

Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word.

Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you.

Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning; right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son.

We pray this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Building on Our Legacy

www.cotlf.org/centennial

CENTENNIAL PRAYER

O Lord God Almighty, by sending Your only Son to establish the One True Church through the power of the Holy Spirit, you gave humanity a sanctuary from the world. We humbly implore your blessing upon the Church of the Little Flower and St. Theresa Catholic School as we observe our Centennial. Through the intercession of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Saint Joseph, and Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, bestow perpetual growth on our parish family as we take refuge in your infinite grace. Enlighten us to learn from our past as we build on the legacy of our founding parishioners, and help us to look to the future so that we may persist in the work of spreading the Gospel. Fill us with gratitude in this Year of Jubilee as we live secure in the certain hope that you will be with us forever.

We ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

THANK YOU, DONORS!

We are grateful to all our campaign donors who have made work on the Centennial projects possible! Gospel

In this parable, people are jealous because a landowner is giving everyone the same payment at the end of the day. Jesus reminds us that everyone will go to heaven if they believe in Him. It's never too late to believe in God.
