FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

When history calls, how do we rise to meet it? When it is God who is calling, how do we respond?

A century ago, a small group of Catholics banded together with a young, Irish missionary priest to celebrate Mass in a sparsely inhabited new city on the outskirts of Miami. They settled on a parcel of land just next to the newly opened St. Joseph Academy where they celebrated the parish's first Mass. This new parish would be named after a freshly canonized saint who went by the nickname of the Little Flower. Yet there was nothing little about the dreams of our founders and their first pastor.

Where many saw swamplands stretching out far into the western horizon, they saw a magnificent church rising above what would be become a sprawling neighborhood where the cross of Jesus Christ would be planted and the Eucharist would be celebrated daily. Even though the forces of nature and the forces of man would put that dream on hold for the first quarter of our history, the stones they laid down on this holy ground would impact generations of people who would one day call the Church of the Little Flower home.

Home is where you feel welcomed. It is where you go to feel the warmth of family. Here we have come to be baptized, to be confirmed, to be married, to receive the consolation of God's mercy, and to receive the gift of His very presence at Holy Mass. When you think of all the moments of divine grace that have happened within these sacred walls, one cannot help but offer a prayer of gratitude to those founders who made their dreams reality so that we may reap the fruits of the seeds they planted.

Now we gather to celebrate one hundred years of the Catholic faith being celebrated and shared in our parish. What will our legacy be? Over the last three years, we built on the legacy of our founding parishioners by ensuring that this church, built for the glory of God, would endure.

We have risen to meet the challenges of a new century by meticulously restoring this sacred space and finally adding a pipe organ that befits the grandeur of this worship space.

Much work has gone into these projects and there is still much to be done, but we pause this weekend to thank not only those who came before us, but also those within our midst who sacrificed and labored to ensure that the dreams of our founders would endure. With this work completed, we give proper thanksgiving to our Lord and then return to the essential task of a Catholic parish: evangelization. Those first parishioners in the 1920's were missionaries who rallied others to their cause of building up a nascent parish. We now ask the Holy Spirit to give us that same missionary spirit to draw our neighbors, caught and entangled in a secularized world, to come home to this place of refuge we call a church. Our centennial celebrations may be concluding this month, but as we turn the page to the second century of our history, we must begin with the simple task of bringing the lost sheep home to our Lord.

Like our founders, God has brought us to this pivotal moment in the history of our parish. How will we respond? We have restored our physical church, but the next act begins now as we start restoring the spiritual church through our pastoral endeavors. We call upon the missionary zeal of our patroness, St. Thérèse, to make the gospel known to all. The work of Holy Mother Church is never over, and for us, it is just beginning. What will our dreams be? What deep waters is the Lord calling us to? We commend our parish to his providence and mercy as we reach this milestone and ask our Blessed Mother, Our Lady of Mount Carmel, to guide us as we write the next chapter in the glorious history of the Church of the Little Flower.

God Bless You All,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Cuando la historia llama, ¿cómo nos levantamos para enfrentarla? Cuando es Dios quien llama, ¿cómo respondemos?

Hace un siglo, un pequeño grupo de católicos se unió a un joven sacerdote misionero irlandés para celebrar misa en una ciudad nueva, poco habitada, en las afueras de Miami. Se establecieron en un terreno justo al lado de la recién inaugurada Academia San José, donde celebraron la primera misa de la parroquia. Esta nueva parroquia llevaría el nombre de un santo recién canonizado que usaba el apodo de la Pequeña Flor. Sin embargo, no había nada de especial en los sueños de nuestros fundadores y su primer párroco.

Donde muchos veían pantanos extendiéndose hacia el horizonte occidental, veían una magnífica iglesia elevándose sobre lo que se convertiría en un barrio extenso donde se plantaría la cruz de Jesucristo y se celebraría la Eucaristía a diario. Aunque las fuerzas de la naturaleza y las fuerzas del hombre pondrían ese sueño en pausa durante el primer cuarto de nuestra historia, las piedras que depositaron en este suelo sagrado impactarían a generaciones de personas que algún día llamarían hogar a la Iglesia de la Pequeña Flor.

El hogar es donde te sientes bienvenido. Es donde vas para sentir el calor de la familia. Aquí hemos venido a bautizarnos, a ser confirmados, a casarnos, a recibir el consuelo de la misericordia de Dios y a recibir el don de Su misma presencia en la Santa Misa. Cuando piensas en todos los momentos de gracia divina que han ocurrido dentro de estos muros sagrados, no se puede evitar ofrecer una oración de gratitud a aquellos fundadores que hicieron realidad sus sueños para que podamos cosechar los frutos de las semillas que plantaron.

Ahora nos reunimos para celebrar cien años de la fe católica celebrada y compartida en nuestra parroquia. ¿Cuál será nuestro legado? Durante los últimos tres años, construimos sobre el legado de nuestros feligreses fundadores asegurándonos de que esta iglesia, construida para la gloria de Dios, perdurara.

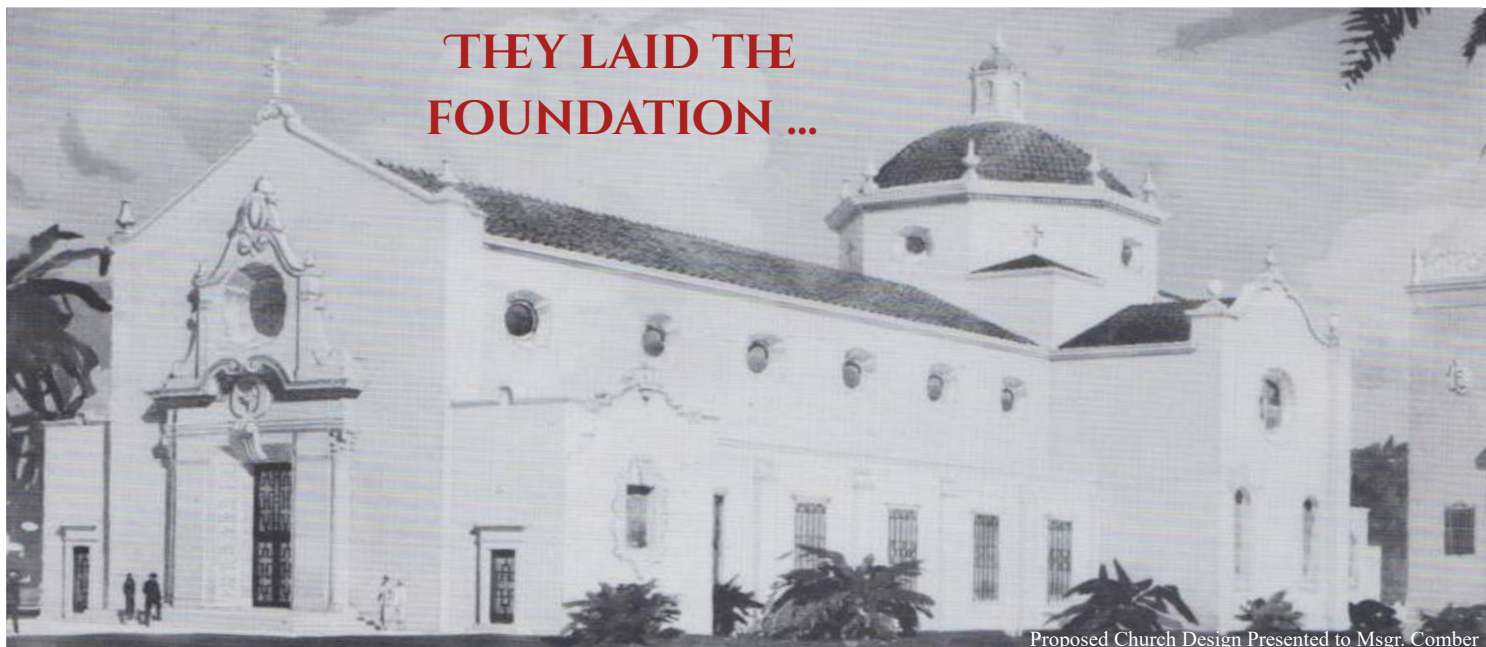

Nos hemos levantado para afrontar los desafíos de un nuevo siglo restaurando meticulosamente este espacio sagrado y añadiendo finalmente un órgano de tubos acorde a la grandeza de este espacio de culto.

Se ha invertido mucho trabajo en estos proyectos y aún queda mucho por hacer, pero este fin de semana nos detenemos para agradecer no solo a quienes vinieron antes que nosotros, sino también a quienes vivieron entre nosotros y se sacrificaron y trabajaron para asegurar que los sueños de nuestros fundadores perduraran. Con esta labor completada, damos gracias adecuadamente a nuestro Señor y luego volvemos a la tarea esencial de una parroquia católica: la evangelización. Esos primeros feligreses en los años 20 fueron misioneros que animaron a otros a su causa de construir una parroquia incipiente. Ahora pedimos al Espíritu Santo que nos dé ese mismo espíritu misionero para atraer a nuestros vecinos, atrapados y enredados en un mundo secularizado, a regresar a este lugar de refugio que llamamos iglesia. Nuestras celebraciones del centenario pueden estar concluyendo este mes, pero al pasar página al segundo siglo de nuestra historia, debemos comenzar con la sencilla tarea de llevar a las ovejas perdidas de vuelta a nuestro Señor.

Al igual que nuestros fundadores, Dios nos ha llevado a este momento crucial en la historia de nuestra parroquia. ¿Cómo responderemos? Hemos restaurado nuestra iglesia física, pero el siguiente acto comienza ahora, al comenzar a restaurar la iglesia espiritual a través de nuestros esfuerzos pastorales. Invocamos el celo misionero de nuestra patrona, Santa Teresa, para que el evangelio sea conocido por todos. La obra de la Santa Madre Iglesia nunca termina, y para nosotros, no ha hecho más que comenzar. ¿Cuáles serán nuestros sueños? ¿A qué aguas profundas nos llama el Señor? Encomendamos nuestra parroquia a su providencia y misericordia al alcanzar este hito y pedimos a nuestra Santísima Madre, Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmelo, que nos guíe mientras escribimos el próximo capítulo en la gloriosa historia de la Iglesia de la Pequeña Flor.

Dios Los Bendiga A Todos,

Fr. Manny

MEN'S EMMAUS RETREAT - NOV 6-8, 2026

Emmaus is a weekend spent with like-minded men filled with authentic conversation, fellowship, reflection, and personal growth. No lectures.

No pressure. Just an opportunity to step away from the noise and distractions of everyday life, encounter Christ in a personal way, and focus on what matters most.

Most men don't want to go. Most men leave saying, "I wish I'd done it sooner."

Men return home renewed, with a deeper relationship with Christ, stronger relationships, a greater sense of purpose, and a positive impact often felt by their families, friends, and the people closest to them.

FALL 2026 GRIEF SUPPORT WORKSHOP

Grieving with Great Hope is a free five-week grief support workshop video series with peer group discussions that offers a prayerful, practical and personal approach for anyone who is mourning the loss of a loved one.

If you have lost a family member, friend or anyone truly meaningful in your life, you are encouraged to attend.

The group will meet on Monday evenings for 5 weeks, beginning on Monday, October 5th.

Please register for the Fall 2026 Workshop by scanning the QR Code. For more information, please contact Christine Iliffe at bereavement@cotlf.org

PIPE ORGANS ARE FOREVER... AND NOW YOUR LEGACY CAN BE, TOO!

Each of the 3,035 pipes from Opus 166 are available to be dedicated in memory of a loved one, to commemorate major milestones like baptisms, first communions, confirmations, graduations, birthdays, weddings, or anniversaries, or simply to add your family's name to the long legacy of our parish in this milestone year.

Pipe Memorializations will be recorded in a specially printed booklet which will be provided to each donor at no additional cost by early 2027, allowing for the addition of photos from our Centennial Mass and the Pipe Organ Dedication Concert later this month.

A copy of the booklet will also remain inside the organ in perpetuity, ensuring the lasting legacy of both the instrument itself and of all those who helped to make it possible.

Interior pipes are available for dedication at $300 each and facade pipes, forever visible on the front of each of the organ's three major cases, are available for $1,000 each.

Secure your legacy pipe today!

CENTENNIAL PRAYER

O Lord God Almighty, by sending Your only Son to establish the One True Church through the power of the Holy Spirit, you gave humanity a sanctuary from the world. We humbly implore your blessing upon the Church of the Little Flower and St. Theresa Catholic School as we observe our Centennial. Through the intercession of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Saint Joseph, and Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, bestow perpetual growth on our parish family as we take refuge in your infinite grace. Enlighten us to learn from our past as we build on the legacy of our founding parishioners, and help us to look to the future so that we may persist in the work of spreading the Gospel. Fill us with gratitude in this Year of Jubilee as we live secure in the certain hope that you will be with us forever. We ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

THANK YOU, DONORS!

We are grateful to all our campaign donors who have made work on the Centennial projects possible! If you would like to set up a new pledge, increase your current pledge, give a new gift, restart your contributions, or check the status of your campaign giving, please contact Ashley Dominguez, Parish Director of Development, at ADominguez@cotlf.org • 305-446-9950, Ext 309
