FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

We have celebrated. We have built. We have restored. But now it is time to officially bring to a close our centennial celebrations, for there is still much work to be done to make Jesus Christ known to all and to bring his presence into our community.

We have been blessed as a community because in his infinite wisdom, our Lord sought to bring all of us as a community to this pivotal moment in the life of our parish. At our gala last weekend, we had a time capsule ceremony where members of our community placed items to be received during the parish's bicentennial in 100 years. That ceremony bridges our generation to a future generation. You think back to the Scriptures and the work of the apostles who laid the seeds of our faith. You think back to the humble beginnings of our parish and those first parishioners who quickly scrounged enough pennies together to construct our first church, which is now Comber Hall. You think back to when they erected our current church in all its glory. Archbishop Wenski said it best three weeks ago at Mass: "we stand on the shoulders of giants."

But there is still much work to do for the sake of the Gospel because the work of making Jesus Christ known to all never ends. We renovated a church, commissioned and built a magnificent pipe organ, and are on the verge of breaking ground on a school multi-purpose center because they all give glory to God. They are our contributions to the legacy of our founders. We are simply building on that which they left us.

This past month has been a celebration of these accomplishments as they reach their culmination. About 8 years ago, all these centennial projects were but mere dreams, some etched on the back of a napkin in a coffee shop.

Most of these ideas were conceived before I became pastor of Little Flower. The organ, the beautifully renovated church, and the multi-purpose center were made possible because of the overwhelming generosity of the good people of our parish and so many generous souls who are known to God alone.

Finally, as we turn the page to what the Lord has in store for us in a new century, I cannot help but give thanks to Almighty God for being the pastor of the Church of the Little Flower, unworthy as I am, during this pivotal moment in her history. I am reminded of the words from the Gospel of Luke: "When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do (Luke 17:10).'"

I am overwhelmed by gratitude and humility every time I approach our altar to offer the Sacrifice of the Mass for all of you. The Eucharist, the center of our life as a parish, is literally thanksgiving, and as we live this historic moment, this priestly heart is grateful to all of you and grateful for 100 years of this extraordinary parish. Thank you all for your contributions to our Centennial Celebrations, and as I say in our Dear 2126 video: "the next 100 starts now!"

God Bless you All,

Fr. Manning

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Hemos celebrado. Hemos construido. Hemos restaurado. Pero ahora es momento de cerrar oficialmente nuestras celebraciones del centenario, porque aún queda mucho trabajo por hacer para dar a conocer a Jesucristo a todos y traer su presencia a nuestra comunidad.

Hemos sido bendecidos como comunidad porque, en su infinita sabiduría, nuestro Señor buscó llevarnos a todos como comunidad a este momento crucial en la vida de nuestra parroquia. En nuestra gala el pasado fin de semana, tuvimos una ceremonia de cápsula del tiempo donde miembros de nuestra comunidad colocaron objetos para ser recibidos durante el bicentenario de la parroquia dentro de 100 años. Esa ceremonia conecta nuestra generación con una generación futura. Piensas en las Escrituras y en la obra de los apóstoles que sembraron las semillas de nuestra fe. Recuerdas los humildes comienzos de nuestra parroquia y aquellos primeros feligreses que rápidamente juntaron suficientes monedas para construir nuestra primera iglesia, que ahora es Comber Hall. Recuerdas cuando erigieron nuestra iglesia actual en todo su esplendor. El arzobispo Wenski lo dijo mejor hace tres semanas en la misa: "estamos sobre los hombros de gigantes."

Pero aún queda mucho trabajo por hacer por el bien del evangelio porque la labor de dar a conocer a Jesucristo a todos nunca termina. Renovamos una iglesia, encargamos y construimos un magnífico órgano de tubos, y estamos a punto de empezar la construcción de un centro polivalente escolar porque todos dan gloria a Dios. Son nuestras contribuciones al legado de nuestros fundadores. Simplemente estamos construyendo sobre el legado que nos dejaron.

El último mes ha sido una celebración de estos logros a medida que alcanzan su culminación. Hace unos 8 años, todos estos proyectos centenarios no eran más que sueños, algunos grabados en la parte trasera de una servilleta en una cafetería.

La mayoría de estas ideas surgieron antes de que yo me convirtiera en pastor de Little Flower. El órgano, la iglesia bellamente renovada y el centro polivalente fueron posibles gracias a la abrumadora generosidad de la buena gente de nuestra parroquia y a tantas almas generosas que solo Dios conoce.

Por último, al pasar página a lo que el Señor nos ha preparado en un nuevo siglo, no puedo evitar dar gracias a Dios Todopoderoso por ser el pastor de la Iglesia de la Pequeña Flor, indigno como soy, en este momento crucial de su historia. Me vienen a la mente las palabras del Evangelio de Lucas: "Cuando hayáis hecho todo lo que se os ha ordenado, decid: 'Somos siervos inútiles; hemos hecho lo que estábamos obligados a hacer (Lucas 17:10).'" Me siento abrumado de gratitud y humildad cada vez que me acerco a nuestro altar para ofrecer el Sacrificio de la Misa por todos vosotros. La Eucaristía, el centro de nuestra vida como parroquia, es literalmente acción de gracias, y mientras vivimos este momento histórico, este corazón sacerdotal está agradecido a todos vosotros y agradecido por los 100 años de esta parroquia extraordinaria. Gracias a todos por vuestras contribuciones a nuestras celebraciones del centenario y, como digo en nuestro vídeo Dear 2126: "¡los próximos 100 empiezan ahora!"

Que Dios los Bendiga a Todos,

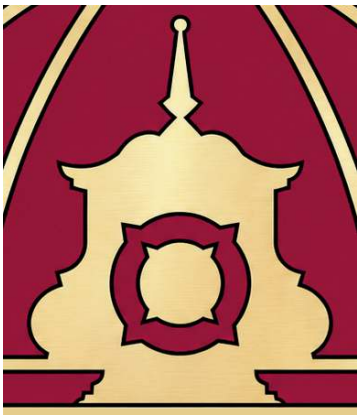

Fr. Manny

SOMETHING NEW IS COMING...

On this final Sunday of October, we bring our Centennial celebrations to a close. When we gather together again next Sunday, November 1st, and begin our second century of parish life, Church of the Little Flower will be debuting a freshly updated logo and digital look and feel, designed to match and honor the work and guiding principles that were at the heart of the church restoration.

CHURCH TO FULLY REOPEN ON TUESDAY!

With the voicing and tuning of the pipe organ now complete, we are happy to share that the church will fully reopen once again starting this Tuesday, October 27.

The church will be open for prayer from 6:00am to 6:00pm daily. The St. Joseph Adoration Chapel continues to be perpetually open, accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

ALL SOULS' DAY MASSES AND NOVENA

Monday, November 2nd is All Souls' Day, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed.

Masses will be celebrated as regularly scheduled at 6:15am and 8:00am (English) and at 5:30 pm (Spanish).

Parishioners are invited to bring a picture of their deceased loved ones to be placed on the altar rail for the celebration of the 7:00 pm All Souls' Day Mass.

Beginning Monday, November 2nd (All Souls' Day) and continuing through Tuesday, November 10th, we will be offering one daily Mass for all intentions offered through the All Souls' Day Novena.

If you receive parish offertory envelopes, you should find a special envelope with space to add names for the Novena. You may also add names to the All Souls' Novena list through our Online Giving platform at www.osvhub.com/cotlf

All Novena envelopes or Online Giving Novena Notes will be placed by the altar for the duration of the Novena as we pray together for all of our deceased loved ones.

2027 MASS INTENTIONS

Offering a Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. It is usually considered that special graces are obtained for whom the Mass is said. Masses are offered for many reasons; for the souls in purgatory, in remembrance for someone who is deceased, for someone who is ill, or for someone celebrating a special occasion.

The 2027 Mass Intentions Book will open on Tuesday, November 3rd.

HOMELESS MINISTRY OCTOBER COLLECTION

Join us in our ministry's October 2026 Parish Collection & Donation Drive benefiting the Missionaries of Charity shelter in Miami. We will be collecting the following items this month:

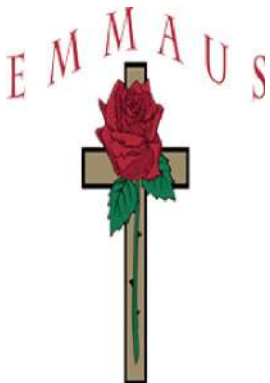

- Women's Personal Hygiene Items: soap bars/body wash, shampoo, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes, baby wipes, hair brushes (please make sure these are not travel sized items).

- Cleaning Supplies: kitchen dish soap, dish sponges/brushes, degreaser, Clorox/bleach, disinfectant spray and hand sanitizer.

All items can be dropped off ONLY during the following COTLF masses at the Homeless Ministry Donation Collection Area that will be set up inside the church:

- October 31, 2026 (Evening Mass)
- November 1, 2026 (All Sunday Masses)
- November 7, 2026 (Evening Mass)
- November 8, 2026 (Evening Mass)

MEN'S EMMAUS RETREAT - NOV 6-8, 2026

Emmaus is a weekend spent with like-minded men filled with authentic conversation, fellowship, reflection, and personal growth. No lectures, no pressure, just an opportunity to step away from the noise and distractions of everyday life, encounter Christ, and focus on what matters most.

Most men don't want to go. Most men leave saying, "I wish I'd done it sooner."

Men return home renewed, with a deeper relationship with Christ, stronger relationships, a greater sense of purpose, and a positive impact often felt by their families, friends, and the people closest to them.

Building on Our Legacy

www.cotlf.org/centennial

A MILESTONE WORTH CELEBRATING

After three years, and thanks to the overwhelming success of last weekend's Centennial Gala, we are proud to announce that our Centennial Campaign is now 100% pledged!

We are deeply grateful to all our parishioners, benefactors, and friends who believed in our vision, generously supported this campaign, and helped us build upon the legacy entrusted to us.

As we celebrate this milestone, we officially close the public phase of the campaign and retire our campaign thermometer.

The work of fulfilling pledges, however, will continue.

Automatic online gifts will continue to process according to the schedules established by donors at the time of their original pledges. Donors with outstanding offline pledge balances will be contacted by our Development Office in the coming weeks.

And while the campaign is now fully pledged, new gifts are certainly welcome as we begin our second century and look ahead to the groundbreaking of our school's new Multi-Purpose Center.

Thank you for being part of this extraordinary chapter in our parish's history, and for helping lay the foundation for the next 100 years!
