FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

The heart of a pastor is always restless. While I rejoice over the wonderful things we have accomplished as a parish over the last year, my heart is still restless over the parishioners who didn't take part in any of the activities marking our 100th year or any of the many activities that we offer as a parish.

Truth be told, while we have excellent attendance at Mass every weekend compared to other parishes, Father Andrew and I are often left wondering where many of those Mass participants go between Sundays. Why aren't our parishioners engaging in one of our many ministries or attending special events or even Holy Day of Obligations? (Lucky for you that All Saints fell on a Sunday this year.) Last week, I preached the following in my Sunday homily:

As we conclude this year of jubilee as a parish, I am often asked, "what comes next?" To borrow from the metaphor [of the new pipe organ], we must endeavor as a parish to pull out all the stops when it comes to loving God and loving our neighbor. The next chapter in the life of this parish must be marked by a renewed commitment to the Eucharist and Adoration, our ministries, and helping the less fortunate. It's what I am calling: "Project 101". The 101 with the double meaning that we're entering the 101st year of the parish and 101 to borrow from the world of academia of getting back to the basics of ministerial life as a community. Too many Mass goers wander in and out of our church every Sunday and never truly engage in the beauty of this community. We must change that. Embracing the simplicity, as our patroness teaches us, of loving God and neighbor must be central to everything we do as a parish. St. Thérèse wrote that her sole ambition was love. It must be ours as well.

So, I ask the question, if you're only attending Mass, why is it that you're not engaged in the ministerial life of the parish? As Christians, we cannot settle for the bare minimum.

We live in a society where we fulfill the minimum requirements to meet a deadline or complete a project, but we cannot apply that same mentality to our spiritual life. Our hearts long for more. That changes right now. As I mentioned last weekend, we must dedicate ourselves to prayer particularly Eucharistic Adoration. Our chapel is open 24/7, and the church is finally open all day. I am calling on our ministries to rethink the way they do things to be able to engage more parishioners. "This is the way we've always done it" is not a phrase that will fly anymore. What worked in 2006 is not going to work in 2026. Father Andrew and I are committed to formation nights to better catechize our flock. But there again is the problem: in the past, when we've offered formation nights, the same 50-100 people show up. God bless them, but we want more attendees who we see on Mass on Sundays. That's the key. If you're reading this: we love you, we're glad you're here, but we want to see more of you beyond Sunday Mass.

As we kick off year 101, we're going back to basics. We celebrate All Saints Day today which serves as a reminder that we are all called to be saints, and the saints didn't gain heaven by just doing the bare minimum. We need to go a little deeper particularly in our prayer life. Use the Hallow App that so many of our parishioners are using to pray every single day. Spend more time in adoration. Get more involved in the parish. We will be offering more formations nights, more opportunities to serve the less fortunate, and more ways of growing in our faith. The call to holiness is difficult, and we need to walk this road together. We cannot be mere bystanders in this journey that we are undertaking as a parish. Project 101 starts today, what can I do to get you out of the pew and more involved in the life of the Church of the Little Flower?

God Bless you All,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Más Queridos Amigos,

El corazón de un párroco siempre está inquieto. Aunque me alegro por las maravillosas cosas que hemos logrado como parroquia durante el último año, mi corazón sigue inquieto por los feligreses que no participaron en ninguna de las actividades que conmemoran nuestro centenario ni en ninguna de las muchas actividades que ofrecemos como parroquia.

La verdad es que, aunque tenemos una asistencia excelente a la misa cada fin de semana en comparación con otras parroquias, el padre Andrew y yo a menudo nos preguntamos a dónde van muchos de esos participantes entre domingos. ¿Por qué nuestros feligreses no participan en uno de nuestros muchos ministerios o asisten a eventos especiales o incluso a los Días Santos de las Obligaciones? (Por suerte para ti, este año Todos los Santos cayeron en domingo.) La semana pasada, prediqué lo siguiente en mi homilía dominical:

Al concluir este año de jubileo como parroquia, a menudo me preguntan: "¿qué viene después?" Para tomar prestada la metáfora [del nuevo órgano de tubos], debemos esforzarnos como parroquia por dar todo lo posible cuando se trata de amar a Dios y amar al prójimo. El próximo capítulo en la vida de esta parroquia debe estar marcado por un renovado compromiso con la Eucaristía y la Adoración, nuestros ministerios y ayudar a los menos afortunados. Es lo que llamo: "Proyecto 101". El 101 con el doble sentido de que estamos entrando en el año 101 de la parroquia y 101, para tomar prestado del mundo académico, volver a los fundamentos de la vida ministerial como comunidad. Demasiados asistentes a misa entran y salen de nuestra iglesia cada domingo y nunca se involucran realmente en la belleza de esta comunidad. Debemos cambiar eso. Abrazar la simplicidad, como nos enseña nuestra patrona, de amar a Dios y al prójimo debe ser central en todo lo que hacemos como parroquia. Santa Teresa escribió que su única ambición era el amor. Debe ser también la nuestra.

Así que hago la pregunta: si solo asistís a misa, ¿por qué no participáis en la vida ministerial de la parroquia? Como cristianos, no podemos conformarnos con lo mínimo indispensable.

Vivimos en una sociedad donde cumplimos los requisitos mínimos para cumplir con un plazo o completar un proyecto, pero no podemos aplicar esa misma mentalidad a nuestra vida espiritual. Nuestros corazones anhelan más. Eso cambia ahora mismo. Como mencioné el fin de semana pasado, debemos dedicarnos a la oración, especialmente a la Adoración Eucarística. Nuestra capilla está abierta las 24 horas, los 7 días de la semana, y la iglesia por fin está abierta todo el día. Hago un llamamiento a nuestros ministerios para que replanteen la forma en que hacen las cosas para poder involucrar a más feligreses. "Así es como siempre lo hemos hecho" ya no es una frase que vuelva a funcionar. Lo que funcionó en 2006 no funcionará en 2026. El padre Andrew y yo estamos comprometidos con las noches de formación para catequizar mejor a nuestro rebaño. Pero ahí está de nuevo el problema: en el pasado, cuando ofrecíamos noches de formación, acudían las mismas 50-100 personas. Dios los bendiga, pero queremos más asistentes a quienes veamos en misa los domingos. Esa es la clave. Si estás leyendo esto: te queremos, nos alegra que estés aquí, pero queremos verte más allá de la misa dominical.

Al comenzar el año 101, volvemos a lo básico. Hoy celebramos el Día de Todos los Santos, lo que nos recuerda que todos estamos llamados a ser santos, y que los santos no alcanzaron el cielo solo haciendo lo mínimo. Necesitamos profundizar un poco más, especialmente en nuestra vida de oración. Utiliza la aplicación Hallow que muchos de nuestros feligreses usan para rezar cada día. Pasa más tiempo en la adoración. Involúcrate más en la parroquia. Ofreceremos más noches de formación, más oportunidades para servir a los menos afortunados y más formas de crecer en nuestra fe. El llamado a la santidad es difícil, y necesitamos recorrer este camino juntos. No podemos ser meros espectadores en este camino que estamos emprendiendo como parroquia. El Proyecto 101 comienza hoy, ¿qué puedo hacer para que salgas del banco y te involucres más en la vida de la Iglesia de la Pequeña Flor?

Que Dios los Bendiga a Todos,

A NEW MARK FOR A NEW CENTURY

At the heart of our renewed identity is the unmistakable silhouette of the dome of Church of the Little Flower.

For generations, our dome has stood as one of the most recognizable features of our church, a familiar landmark to those who pass by and a beloved sign of home to those who worship here.

Its architecture tells our story. Rising toward heaven, the dome draws our eyes upward. Its stained-glass windows visually proclaim the Gospel to the world. Its bells audibly remind us of God's enduring presence in our lives. The cross of Christ stands prominently above it all, enthroned atop the cupola. Together, these elements offer more than beauty; they serve as a visible reminder of the Christian life and of our call to live as missionary disciples.

We now embrace this defining feature as our new brand mark. Simple, timeless, and unmistakably ours, the mark honors the beauty and history of our parish while giving us a bold, recognizable identity for the century ahead.

OUR COLORS

Inspired by the magnificent renewal of our historic church, our official colors are rich in both beauty and meaning.

Red represents humanity, love, and sacrifice, reminding us of Christ's great love and of our own call to give of ourselves in service to others. Red is the work.

Gold represents the Glory of God, the ultimate purpose toward which all our efforts are directed. Gold is the why.

Together, they reflect the union of the human and the divine, reminding us that even our most ordinary actions, offered with great love, give glory to God.

OUR SEAL

As we embrace a renewed visual identity, we do not leave our history behind. Our parish seal, which has represented Little Flower over the last decade, will remain an important part of our identity. Reimagined in our new red and gold color scheme, the seal will now be reserved for official and formal uses. Rather than retiring this cherished emblem, we are giving it a more distinguished role, preserving its significance while allowing our new brand marks to carry our identity into everyday parish life.

A PUBLIC WITNESS

Building upon our new dome mark, our full parish logo incorporates our signature wordmark and our founding year to create a complete and versatile expression of our public identity. Designed for printing and marketing usage, it offers a consistent and recognizable presence wherever our mission takes us. More than a graphic, it is a witness to who we are: a community of faith, rooted in tradition, united in purpose, and eager to share the beauty of our Catholic faith with the world.

INSPIRED BY THE LITTLE WAY

"In All Things, Great Love and the Glory of God."

These words capture both the spirit of our patroness, St. Thérèse, and the mission that will guide us into our second century. Inspired by the Little Way of doing ordinary things with extraordinary love, our new motto reminds us that holiness is not reserved for grand gestures alone. In All Things reminds us that it can also be found in the countless moments of everyday life. Great Love reminds us how we are called to act. The Glory of God reminds us why we do it all. It is more than just a motto; it is an invitation to make every action, every encounter, and every day an offering of extraordinary love.

All Souls' Day

Monday, November 2nd is All Souls' Day, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed.

Masses will be celebrated at 6:15am and 8:00am (English), at 5:30 pm (Spanish), and at 7:00pm (Bilingual).

Parishioners are invited to bring a picture of their deceased loved ones to be placed on the altar rail for the celebration of the 7:00 pm All Souls' Day Mass.

Beginning Monday, November 2nd (All Souls' Day) and continuing through Tuesday, November 10th, we will be offering one daily Mass for all intentions offered through the All Souls' Day Novena.

If you receive parish offertory envelopes, you should find a special envelope with space to add names for the Novena. You may also add names to the All Souls' Novena list through our Online Giving platform at www.osvhub.com/cotlf

All Novena envelopes or Online Giving Novena Notes will be placed by the altar for the duration of the Novena as we pray together for all of our deceased loved ones.

2027 Mass Intentions

Offering a Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. It is usually considered that special graces are obtained for those whom the Mass is said. Masses are offered for many reasons; for the souls in purgatory, in remembrance for someone who is deceased, for someone who is ill, or for someone celebrating a special occasion.

The 2027 Mass Intentions Book will open on Tuesday, November 3rd.

Men's Emmaus Retreat - Nov 6-8, 2026

Emmaus is a weekend spent with like-minded men filled with authentic conversation, fellowship, reflection, and personal growth. No lectures, no pressure, just an opportunity to step away from the noise and distractions of everyday life, encounter Christ, and focus on what matters most.

Most men don't want to go. Most men leave saying, "I wish I'd done it sooner."

Men return home renewed, with a deeper relationship with Christ, stronger relationships, a greater sense of purpose, and a positive impact often felt by their families, friends, and the people closest to them.
