Spiritual Adoption Prayer by Bl. Fulton Sheen

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much.

I beg you to spare the life of the preborn baby I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

During your earthly life, this spiritual adoption will be known only to God, but in the life to come, it is hoped you will meet the child whose life was spared by your prayers.

Traditionally prayed daily for nine months.

How to Build a Culture of Life

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/culture-of-life.

Watching the news and reading the headlines, we may feel helpless seeing the heartbreaking lack of respect for human life. How do we respond? Changing the culture is a process of conversion that begins in our own hearts. When we encounter Christ, experience His love, and deepen our relationship with Him, we become more aware of our own immeasurable worth and that of others. His unchanging love is the source of our God-given dignity, which, therefore, cannot be taken away. When someone is facing great trials, we need to walk with them on their journey, intercede for them, and be open to sharing Christ's love however He directs. We simply need to follow where He leads.

Top Reasons to Oppose Assisted Suicide

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/reasons-against-assisted-suicide.

Some polls indicate that the public is receptive to assisted suicide. But the same polls show that people's views shift when they learn about its dangers—especially the dangers for those who are poor, elderly, disabled, or without access to good medical care. Consider that, in Oregon and California, some patients' health insurance offered to pay for assisted suicide, but not treatment. And in states where assisted suicide is legal, often no psychiatric evaluation or treatment is required. Additionally, assisted suicide fosters discrimination by creating two classes of people: those whose suicides we spend millions of dollars to prevent and those whose suicides we assist and treat as a positive good.

Assisted suicide fosters discrimination.

ENDOW Reflections on Pope St. John Paul II's Letter to Women

Chapter 6: The Blessed Virgin Mary: The Highest Expression of the Feminine Genius

"Rather than focusing on herself—rather than being distracted by worries, fears, offenses, and insecurities—Mary focused on others. She saw what others missed, and understood what others failed to understand. And Mary's ability to receive was even greater than her ability to give. She depended on God in every moment for her every need." (Endow)

Deep in her fight against stage 4 cancer, my friend Frances continued her work as a registered nurse; despite her illness, she wanted to share healing and hope with others. In her spare time, Frances cared for hospice patients at the Samaritan House; she always put others first. She saw what others didn't see and listened with her heart. When Frances became a hospice patient herself, she warmly welcomed people to her home – to sit with her, to tell stories, and even to help her plan her funeral. She was a model of faith, tenderness, and love. (LS)

Do you struggle to receive help from God or others? What is one thing you could do this week to develop the habit of receptivity?

"Mary wasn't faithful to an occupation; she was faithful to a vocation. She was faithful to love. And if we want to imitate her, we must do the same." (Endow)

JOY TO THE WORLD An Advent Journey with the Angelus

Sponsored by Marian Ministries

This Advent, Joy to the World invites us to explore what it means to live with true Christian joy—not as a passing feeling, but as the settled conviction that God is faithful. Featuring reflections from Fr. Mike Schmitz, along with Scripture, the lives of the saints, the Angelus, and honest reflections on the blessings and crosses of everyday life, Joy to the World will guide us to recognize God's presence and work in our lives, even when our circumstances haven't changed. Because the promise of Christian joy isn't a life without difficulty. It's knowing that through all of it, God is with us.

Books will be available at St. Peter's and Holy Child Rectories in mid-November. A suggested donation of $10 will assist with the cost.

Deadline to register: Sunday, November 8th. Make checks payable to St. Peter's Church with Marian Ministries in the Memo. Please include your email address. Drop them in the collection or mail to: St. Peter's Church, 47 Central Avenue, Wellsboro, PA 16901.

Prayer for Pope Leo XIV

Let us keep Pope Leo XIV in our prayers as he recovers from lung surgery. May the Lord grant him strength, healing, and a swift recovery. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide him with wisdom and courage as he shepherds the Church. Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, may God surround him with peace, comfort, and renewed health. Amen.

Spiritual Growth Suggestion: 15 Minutes with Jesus Every Day

Encounter Jesus Personally

Christianity is more than participation in parish activities—it is a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Our faith grows when we make space each day to meet the Lord, listen to His Word, and invite Him into the ordinary moments of our lives.

Consider developing a simple daily rhythm of prayer:

- Morning: Begin your day by saying, "Jesus, I give You this day."
- Scripture: Spend 10–15 minutes with the Gospel of the day. Read slowly, listen, and ask: "Jesus, what are You saying to me today?"
- Silence: Take 5 quiet minutes simply resting in God's presence. No need for many words—just be with Him.
- During the Day: Turn your heart toward Jesus through brief prayers such as, "Jesus, I trust in You." "Jesus, stay with me."
- Evening: End the day by looking back with gratitude, repentance, and surrender. Thank Jesus for His blessings, ask forgiveness for your failures, and place tomorrow in His hands.

The Goal

The goal is not to add more religious activities to our busy lives. The goal is to develop a daily habit of encountering the Lord and discovering that Jesus is present with us in the ordinary rhythm of life.

15 Minutes with Jesus Every Day

A simple invitation to know Jesus, love Jesus, and walk with Jesus each day.
