Spiritual Adoption Prayer by Bl. Fulton Sheen

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the preborn baby I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.
During your earthly life, this spiritually adoption will be known only to God, but in the life to come, it is hoped you will meet the child whose life was spared by your prayers.
Traditionally prayed daily for nine months.

All Saints' Day celebrates all the saints in heaven, including those whose names and stories we do not know. It is a joyful thanksgiving for what God's grace has accomplished in human lives. The celebration is not limited to famous founders, martyrs, popes, or people with a dedicated feast on our calendar. Its scope includes every person who has reached the fullness of life with God, whether that person's earthly story has been preserved or forgotten. That gives the day a particular warmth. The history of holiness is larger than the history we can document.[1]

The month of November invites us to remember our departed brothers and sisters and to pray especially for the souls in Purgatory. As Catholics, we believe in the Communion of Saints and in the power of prayer offered for those who have died in God's grace but are still being purified before entering the fullness of heaven.

The Holy Mass is the most powerful prayer we can offer for our departed loved ones. Through the Eucharistic sacrifice, we entrust them to God's infinite mercy and love. During this month, let us offer Masses for the deceased, remember them in our personal prayers, and perform acts of charity for their intentions.

May our prayers express our love and gratitude for those who have gone before us, strengthen our hope in the resurrection, and remind us that death does not end our communion in Christ. Let us pray with faith: "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen."

Learn to Recognize the Presence of God

Many Catholics believe in God's presence but have not learned to recognize Him in the ordinary moments of daily life. We believe He is with us, yet we can move through our days distracted, worried, or preoccupied, missing the countless ways He draws near to us.

We must help people move from simply believing in God's presence to living with an awareness of His presence. This is at the heart of a vibrant spiritual life.

Teach people to seek Jesus in Sacred Scripture, encounter Him in the Eucharist, listen for Him in silence, discover Him amid suffering, recognize Him in family life, serve Him in the poor and lonely, reflect His mercy through forgiveness, honor Him through ordinary work, welcome Him in unexpected encounters, marvel at Him in creation, and respond generously to the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

God is not present only in church or in moments of prayer. He walks with us through every day. Sometimes He speaks through His Word; sometimes through another person's kindness; sometimes through a difficult situation that calls us to deeper faith, patience, or surrender. The challenge is not that God is absent, but that we are often too distracted to notice Him.

Let us encourage everyone to make this a daily spiritual practice.

Each morning, begin with the question:

"Jesus, where are You inviting me to notice You today?"

At the end of the day, pause in prayer and ask:

"Lord, where did I encounter You today? Where did I miss Your presence? How are You inviting me to love You more tomorrow?"

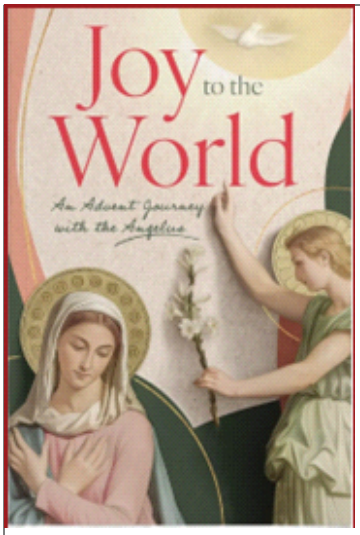

These simple questions can gradually transform the way we see, think, pray, and live. They help us become more attentive to grace, more patient in suffering, more compassionate toward others, and more responsive to God's call.

Our goal is not merely to speak about God, but to help people live every moment with Him. When we learn to recognize His presence, ordinary days become opportunities for holiness, difficult moments become invitations to trust, and encounters with others become opportunities to love Christ Himself.

Let us become people who seek Him, recognize Him, and respond to Him—not just on Sundays, but every day, in every circumstance, and in every person we meet.

"Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." (1 Samuel 3:9)

Joy to the World
An Advent Journey with the Angelus

Sponsored by Marian Ministries

This Advent, Joy to the World invites us to explore what it means to live with true Christian joy—not as a passing feeling, but as the settled conviction that God is faithful. Featuring reflections from Fr. Mike Schmitz, along with Scripture, the lives of the saints, the Angelus, and honest reflections on the blessings and crosses of everyday life, Joy to the World will guide us to recognize God's presence and work in our lives, even when our circumstances haven't changed. Because the promise of Christian joy isn't a life without difficulty. It's knowing that through all of it, God is with us.

Books will be available in mid-November. A suggested donation of $10 will assist with the cost.Deadline to register: Sunday, Nov. 8th. Checks payable to: St. Peter's Church; memo: Marian Ministries. Please include your email address. Drop them in the collection or mail: St. Peter's Church, 47 Central Avenue, Wellsboro, PA 16901.

Reflections on

Pope St. John Paul II's Letter to Women

Endow

Chapter 7: Priests, Prophets, and Kings

"Every person has a vocation to holiness. A vocation isn't simply a job or a lifestyle. A vocation is a gift from God, initiated by him and freely received by us." (Endow

When we hear the word vocation, we think of priests, nuns, monks, and others who have taken vows. These are special vocations, but the truth is that every human being has a vocation to serve God in a particular way—through a profession, through parenthood, through suffering, through apostolic work, and more.

This week, take time to reflect on your unique vocation. In what ways are you living out your baptismal call to serve God as priest, prophet, and king in your daily life?

"The priest is not, in virtue of his priestly ordination, more of a Christian than the ordinary believer; the Order he has received is for the sake of the Eucharist, but the Eucharist is for the sake of everyone." (Cardinal Henri deLubac)

"The family that prays together, stays together."

How to Advent | Episode 1

Advent is only a few weeks away. Can you believe it? Join us over the next few weeks as we prepare for this season with "How to Advent."

The Story of Death | Eternal Rest | Ep. 1

Where did death come from? What does death mean for the human person? Is it simply just part of life, or something else? In this first session, we discuss the story of death and God's response to it: defeating death by dying and rising from the dead.

Saint Charles Borromeo

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, & willingly spent himself in service of his flock.

Notice Regarding Reporting Sexual Abuse of a Minor

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement.

It is also the policy of the Diocese to adhere to all civil and state regulations. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-HourChild Abuse hotline (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313 or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis . To this end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being. As such, information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to the Victim Assistance Coordinator Mary Beth Pacuska at 570-862-7551. Additional Safe Environment Compliance information may be found at https://www.dioceseofscranton.org/child-protection-victim-assistance/.

Aviso Respecto Reporte de Abuso Sexual de un Menor de Edad

Es política de la Diócesis de Scranton informar cualquier alegación de abuso sexual de un menor a las autoridades. Si usted es víctima de abuso sexual cometido por un sacerdote, diácono, religioso o empleado laico o voluntario de la Diócesis de Scranton, se le anima a denunciar el asunto de inmediato a la policía. Si algún sacerdote, diácono, religioso, empleado laico o voluntario de la Diócesis de Scranton tiene motivos o razones para sospechar que un menor ha sido objeto de cualquier forma de abuso, incluido el abuso sexual infantil, se informará el asunto a las autoridades.

También es política de la Diócesis adherirse a todos los reglamentos civiles y estatales. De acuerdo con las Leyes de Servicios de Protección Infantil del estado de Pensilvania, los informes de sospecha de abuso infantil también deben realizarse de inmediato por teléfono a la línea directa de abuso infantil las 24 horas (ChildLine) al 1-800-932-0313 o electrónicamente en www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis . Con este fin, la Diócesis está igualmente comprometida a adherirse a las normas del Código de Derecho Canónico y a defender los principios del Documento para la Protección de Niños y Jóvenes de la USCCB, que incluye apoyar a las víctimas de abuso sexual en su búsqueda de bienestar emocional y bienestar espiritual. Como tal, la información sobre una acusación de abuso sexual de un menor también debe informarse a la Coordinadora de Asistencia para Víctimas, Mary Beth Pacuska, al 570-862-7551. Información adicional de reporte e información sobre el cumplimiento de Ambientes Seguros se puede encontrar en https://www.dioceseofscranton.org/child-protection-victim-assistance/.
