Spiritual Adoption Prayer by Bl. Fulton Sheen

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the preborn baby I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

During your earthly life, this spiritually adoption will be known only to God, but in the life to come, it is hoped you will meet the child whose life was spared by your prayers. Traditionally prayed daily for nine months.

November: A Month of Prayer for the Departed Souls

The month of November invites us to remember our departed brothers and sisters and to pray especially for the souls in Purgatory. As Catholics, we believe in the Communion of Saints and in the power of prayer offered for those who have died in God's grace but are still being purified before entering the fullness of heaven.

The Holy Mass is the most powerful prayer we can offer for our departed loved ones. Through the Eucharistic sacrifice, we entrust them to God's infinite mercy and love. During this month, let us offer Masses for the deceased, remember them in our personal prayers, and perform acts of charity for their intentions.

May our prayers express our love and gratitude for those who have gone before us, strengthen our hope in the resurrection, and remind us that death does not end our communion in Christ. Let us pray with faith: "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen."

Learn to Recognize the Presence of God

Many Catholics believe in God's presence but have not learned to recognize Him in the ordinary moments of daily life. We believe He is with us, yet we can move through our days distracted, worried, or preoccupied, missing the countless ways He draws near to us.

We must help people move from simply believing in God's presence to living with an awareness of His presence. This is at the heart of a vibrant spiritual life.

Teach people to seek Jesus in Sacred Scripture, encounter Him in the Eucharist, listen for Him in silence, discover Him amid suffering, recognize Him in family life, serve Him in the poor and lonely, reflect His mercy through forgiveness, honor Him through ordinary work, welcome Him in unexpected encounters, marvel at Him in creation, and respond generously to the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

God is not present only in church or in moments of prayer. He walks with us through every day. Sometimes He speaks through His Word; sometimes through another person's kindness; sometimes through a difficult situation that calls us to deeper faith, patience, or surrender. The challenge is not that God is absent, but that we are often too distracted to notice Him.

Let us encourage everyone to make this a daily spiritual practice.

Each morning, begin with the question:

"Jesus, where are You inviting me to notice You today?"

At the end of the day, pause in prayer and ask:

"Lord, where did I encounter You today? Where did I miss Your presence? How are You inviting me to love You more tomorrow?"

These simple questions can gradually transform the way we see, think, pray, and live. They help us become more attentive to grace, more patient in suffering, more compassionate toward others, and more responsive to God's call.

Our goal is not merely to speak about God, but to help people live every moment with Him. When we learn to recognize His presence, ordinary days become opportunities for holiness, difficult moments become invitations to trust, and encounters with others become opportunities to love Christ Himself.

Let us become people who seek Him, recognize Him, and respond to Him—not just on Sundays, but every day, in every circumstance, and in every person we meet.

"Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." (1 Samuel 3:9)

Marian Ministries Updates

"People who met Mother Teresa of Calcutta—that tiny, wrinkled, aged woman—walked away saying she was the most beautiful woman they'd ever met. They saw how she loved, and that made her beautiful in their eyes. She said "yes" to all the graces God gave her; she said "yes" to living the feminine genius. And for that, God gifted her with eternal beauty, the beauty of holiness, a beauty that never fades." Reflection: Who is the most beautiful woman you know? What makes her that way?

First Saturday, December 5th

St. Mary's Church, Blossburg, 8:30am-10:00am

Monthly devotion to our Blessed Mother, a perfect way to begin the Advent season. Join our First Saturday family on December 5th for the Rosary, Adoration, Confessions, Mass, and a special anointing from Fr. Philip. A light social will follow in the Hall. Bring a small dish to share. All are welcome.

Note: If you would like your name added to the First Saturday email list, contact Laurie Coffee (703-470-2975) or Linda Sampson (570-404-2180). This list will be used to communicate plans for our First Saturday socials, etc.

Advent Book Study

Books will be available at St. Peter's and Holy Child rectories as soon as they are received. Participants: watch your email for updates. The online study begins on November 29th, the first Sunday of Advent. Questions: email marian-ministries@outlook.com or contact Linda Sampson (570-404-2180)

SCRANTON TRIBUNAL NEWS: The forms used to petition for marriage annulments have recently been updated and placed online. The petition for a declaration of marriage nullity due to lack of canonical form has also been updated to a single page and placed online. These easy-to-use and simplified forms may be completed on your personal computer and printed before being brought to a priest or deacon to be notarized. Currently, no fees are attached to these petitions. Visit the Office of the Tribunal on the Diocese of Scranton website to see the new paperwork and the information needed to petition for an annulment after a divorce: https://www.dioceseofscranton.org/directory/offices/diocesan-tribunal/ Your parish priest or deacon can assist you in beginning the annulment process. You may also call the Tribunal with your canon law questions, 570-207-2246.

Catholic Ministries Appeal Goal Update

Thank you to every family that made a donation so far! 30% of our parishioners have donated or pledged 63% of our goal! (as of October 30th) If you haven't made your donation yet, please consider doing it this month as we prepare for Thanksgiving, thanking God for all we have been given, and before beginning the gift purchasing rush for Christmas! We are a generous Parish!

Get to Know Our Seminarians

Esteban Marengo, of Scranton, is a parishioner of St. Paul of the Cross Parish in South Scranton. He is currently attending classes at St. Andrew's College Seminary in South Orange, New Jersey.

What metaphor for Christ speaks to you most powerfully?

"Christ, the Good Shepherd. Despite the many troubles of life, Jesus continues to love, protect and guide us, as a shepherd would his own sheep,"

As he begins his seminarian experience, the Scranton native said he often reflects on the crucifix and its importance to our salvation.

"In it, we see the immense love that God has for all of us," Marengo noted.

Please pray for Esteban and all our Seminarians!

How to Advent | Episode 3

The often-forgotten Jesse tree reminds us of God's faithful fulfillment of all his promises (of which there are so many throughout all of salvation history!). In Christ, he keeps every promise he has made, from Adam and Eve to John the Baptist. His promises of peace and salvation apply not just to ancient Israel, but to all of us today. Join us in learning about this hidden gem of an Advent tradition and how it can help you and your family walk through Advent in the light of Sacred Scripture.

The Hour of Our Death | Eternal Rest | Episode 3

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Church. This session, we discover the role of this sacramental anointing in the spiritual struggle during serious illness, the final stages of our temporal life, and the hour of our death.

Lectio: Mary

Why is Mary so important to Catholics, and why have so many people been devoted to her over the centuries? In this 8-part series, Dr. Brant Pitre examines what the Old and New Testaments, the life of Christ, and the early Church fathers reveal about the life and identity of Mary.

Notice Regarding Reporting Sexual Abuse of a Minor

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement.

It is also the policy of the Diocese to adhere to all civil and state regulations. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-HourChild Abuse hotline (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313 or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis . To this end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being. As such, information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to the Victim Assistance Coordinator Mary Beth Pacuska at 570-862-7551. Additional Safe Environment Compliance information may be found at https://www.dioceseofscranton.org/child-protection-victim-assistance/.

Aviso Respecto Reporte de Abuso Sexual de un Menor de Edad

Es política de la Diócesis de Scranton informar cualquier alegación de abuso sexual de un menor a las autoridades. Si usted es víctima de abuso sexual cometido por un sacerdote, diácono, religioso o empleado laico o voluntario de la Diócesis de Scranton, se le anima a denunciar el asunto de inmediato a la policía. Si algún sacerdote, diácono, religioso, empleado laico o voluntario de la Diócesis de Scranton tiene motivos o razones para sospechar que un menor ha sido objeto de cualquier forma de abuso, incluido el abuso sexual infantil, se informará el asunto a las autoridades.

También es política de la Diócesis adherirse a todos los reglamentos civiles y estatales. De acuerdo con las Leyes de Servicios de Protección Infantil del estado de Pensilvania, los informes de sospecha de abuso infantil también deben realizarse de inmediato por teléfono a la línea directa de abuso infantil las 24 horas (ChildLine) al 1-800-932-0313 o electrónicamente en www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis . Con este fin, la Diócesis está igualmente comprometida a adherirse a las normas del Código de Derecho Canónico y a defender los principios del Documento para la Protección de Niños y Jóvenes de la USCCB, que incluye apoyar a las víctimas de abuso sexual en su búsqueda de bienestar emocional y bienestar espiritual. Como tal, la información sobre una acusación de abuso sexual de un menor también debe informarse a la Coordinadora de Asistencia para Víctimas, Mary Beth Pacuska, al 570-862-7551. Información adicional de reporte e información sobre el cumplimiento de Ambientes Seguros se puede encontrar en https://www.dioceseofscranton.org/child-protection-victim-assistance/.
