Spiritual Adoption Prayer by Bl. Fulton Sheen

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much.
I beg you to spare the life of the preborn baby I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

During your earthly life, this spiritually adoption will be known only to God, but in the life to come, it is hoped you will meet the child whose life was spared by your prayers. Traditionally prayed daily for nine months.

First Friday, December 4th

Holy Child Church, Mansfield

8:30am Holy Hour (Confessions and Adoration)
9:30 am Mass (followed by Anointing)

First Saturday, December 5th

St. Mary's Church, Blossburg

8:30am Holy Hour (Confessions and Adoration)
9:30 am Mass (followed by Anointing)

Followed by a light social in the hall.
Bring a small dish to share. All are welcome.

The First Friday and First Saturday devotions are Catholic reparatory practices focused on offering love and reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Both center on receiving Holy Communion regularly, and both seek the grace of final repentance at the hour of death.

First Friday Devotion (Sacred Heart of Jesus)

• Origin: Revealed in the 17th century by Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in Paray-le-Monial, France.

• Practice: On nine consecutive first Fridays of the month, do the following and offer it in honor of His Sacred Heart and in reparation for sin:

  • Receive Holy Communion in a state of grace (if you're aware of serious sin, go to Confession first).

• Promises: Jesus promised to give all necessary graces; peace in your family; consolation in all troubles; blessing in all undertakings; the grace of final repentance before death; the ocean of His mercy; tepid souls become fervent, fervent souls rise to perfection; to priests, the power to touch the most hardened hearts.

First Saturday Devotion (Immaculate Heart of Mary)

• Origin: Requested by Our Lady of Fatima (in 1917 and in subsequent apparitions to Sister Lucia) to make reparation for offenses against Mary's Immaculate Heart.

• Practice: On five consecutive first Saturdays, do the following and offer it in reparation:

  • Go to Confession (typically within days before or after, while remaining in a state of grace).

  • Receive Holy Communion.

  • Pray five decades of the Rosary.

  • Spend 15 minutes meditating on all of the mysteries of the Rosary.

• Promise: Mary promised to assist at the hour of death with the graces needed for salvation.

ADVENT: PREPARING OUR HEARTS FOR THE COMING OF CHRIST

"Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths." (Matthew 3:3)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we enter the holy season of Advent, the Church invites us to pause, reflect, and prepare our hearts for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Advent is more than simply counting down the days until Christmas or preparing our homes with decorations, shopping, and celebrations. It is a sacred time of spiritual renewal—a time to make room for Jesus in our hearts and allow His love, peace, and grace to transform our lives.

In the busyness of our daily routines, we can easily become distracted by the many responsibilities and expectations that surround us. We may spend so much time preparing for Christmas outwardly that we forget to prepare ourselves inwardly. Yet the greatest preparation we can make is not found in what we buy, what we decorate, or what we place under the Christmas tree. It is found in the condition of our hearts.

Advent is an invitation to slow down, be still, and listen to God.

1. A Time to Renew Our Hope

The first message of Advent is hope. We remember that God never abandons His people. Even in moments of uncertainty, suffering, loneliness, and difficulty, the Lord remains faithful to His promises.

Some among us may be carrying heavy burdens this Christmas season: illness, grief over the loss of loved ones, family struggles, financial difficulties, or feelings of loneliness. Advent reminds us that darkness does not have the final word. Christ is our light, and His presence gives us courage to keep moving forward.

Let us not lose hope, for God is always at work in our lives, even when we cannot see or understand His plans.

2. A Time to Make Room for Jesus

When Mary and Joseph arrived in Bethlehem, there was no room for them at the inn. This familiar story invites us to ask ourselves an important question: Is there room for Jesus in my heart?

Sometimes our hearts become so crowded with worries, anger, resentment, pride, jealousy, and unforgiveness that we leave little space for God.

This Advent, let us make room for Jesus by letting go of whatever separates us from Him. Let us return to prayer, participate faithfully in the Eucharist, receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and spend time reflecting on God's Word.

A heart that is open to God becomes a place where Christ can dwell.

3. A Time to Practice Love and Kindness

The true spirit of Christmas is love. God showed His extraordinary love for humanity by sending His only Son into the world.

As we prepare to celebrate this great gift, let us become instruments of God's love to others. We do not need to do extraordinary things to make a difference. A simple act of kindness, a sincere word of encouragement, a visit to someone who is lonely, a helping hand to a family in need, or forgiveness offered to someone who has hurt us can become beautiful expressions of Christ's love.

Let us remember that Jesus is present not only in the manger but also in the people we encounter every day, especially the poor, the vulnerable, the forgotten, and those who are suffering.

4. A Time to Forgive and Reconcile

Advent is also a season of reconciliation. We cannot fully welcome the Prince of Peace while holding tightly to anger, bitterness, and resentment.

Perhaps there is someone we need to forgive. Perhaps there is a relationship that needs healing, a misunderstanding that needs to be resolved, or an apology that needs to be offered.

Forgiveness is not always easy, but God's grace can help us take the first step. Let us ask the Lord to soften our hearts and give us the courage to seek peace with one another.

May this Advent become an opportunity to restore broken relationships and renew the bonds of love within our families, parish community, and beyond.

5. A Time to Welcome Christ with Joy

As Christmas approaches, let us remember that the greatest gift is not something wrapped in beautiful paper. The greatest gift is Jesus Christ, Emmanuel—God with us.

He comes to bring light to our darkness, hope to our despair, healing to our wounds, and peace to our troubled hearts.

May we welcome Him not only through beautiful Christmas celebrations but through lives that reflect His compassion, humility, generosity, and love.

Dear parishioners, let us journey together through this Advent season with renewed faith and joyful expectation. Let our homes become places of prayer, our families become witnesses of love, and our parish become a community where everyone feels welcomed, valued, and loved.

This Christmas, may we give Jesus the greatest gift of all: a heart that is ready to receive Him.

An Advent Prayer

Heavenly Father,

As we journey through this holy season of Advent, prepare our hearts for the coming of Your Son, Jesus Christ.

Help us to slow down amid the busyness of life and recognize Your presence in our daily experiences. Renew our hope when we are discouraged, strengthen our faith when we are uncertain, and fill our hearts with love when we are tempted to judge or turn away from others.

Teach us to forgive as You forgive us, to serve as Jesus served, and to love as You have loved us.

Bless our families, our parish community, those who are sick, those who are grieving, the poor, the lonely, and all those who need Your comforting presence.

May the light of Christ shine within us and through us, so that we may bring His peace and joy to everyone we meet.

Come, Lord Jesus!
Make our hearts Your dwelling place.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Wishing all our parishioners and their families a blessed, peaceful, and grace-filled Advent season!

Father Philip

Get to Know Our Seminarians

Daniel O'Brien just began his Pre-Theology I semester at Saint Vincent Seminary in Latrobe. He is a parishioner of St John the Evangelist in Pittston. He is also a licensed commercial pilot for single-engine aircraft.

O'Brien credits our previously featured seminarian for influencing his decision to become a seminarian candidate. "Seeing him (Esteban Marengo) in his cassock, a week before the Chrism Mass, pushed my calling to the forefront of my mind," O'Brien said.

He says the Book of Psalms is the Book of the Bible that has had the greatest impact on his spiritual life and often reflects on the image of The Holy Mother Theotokos.

Even though he is just beginning the seminarian discernment process, when asked if he had any advice to give someone else at this point, O'Brien quoted Father Clarence Cerwonka, Pastor Emeritus at Most Holy Rosary Church in Maine, N.Y., who told him, "Strive for what the Holy Spirit wants you to do."

Pray for Our Seminarians!

Adventus: A Spiritual Pilgrimage
Make a spiritual pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Uncover the beauty of the place where Christ was born, preparing your heart for Christ's coming so you can enter more deeply into Advent.

Rooted: Rediscover the Jesse Tree This Advent
Hosted by Dr. Scott Hefelfinger, Rooted guides Catholics through daily Advent reflection using the Jesse Tree model traditionally practiced by families. Each seven-minute episode introduces the ancestors of Jesus Christ, shares a Scripture passage, and offers an engaging, practical reflection.

Adore: Advent with Fr. John Burns
You have a choice this Advent: Get caught up in the annual rush of shopping, decorating, and parties or slow down and take a few minutes each day to remember who this season is really about—Jesus. In Adore, Fr. John Burns will help you reclaim the sacred sense of longing and joyful hope at the heart of Advent.

Notice Regarding Reporting Sexual Abuse of a Minor

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement.

It is also the policy of the Diocese to adhere to all civil and state regulations. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-HourChild Abuse hotline (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313 or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis . To this end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being. As such, information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to the Victim Assistance Coordinator Mary Beth Pacuska at 570-862-7551. Additional Safe Environment Compliance information may be found at https://www.dioceseofscranton.org/child-protection-victim-assistance/.

Aviso Respecto Reporte de Abuso Sexual de un Menor de Edad

Es política de la Diócesis de Scranton informar cualquier alegación de abuso sexual de un menor a las autoridades. Si usted es víctima de abuso sexual cometido por un sacerdote, diácono, religioso o empleado laico o voluntario de la Diócesis de Scranton, se le anima a denunciar el asunto de inmediato a la policía. Si algún sacerdote, diácono, religioso, empleado laico o voluntario de la Diócesis de Scranton tiene motivos o razones para sospechar que un menor ha sido objeto de cualquier forma de abuso, incluido el abuso sexual infantil, se informará el asunto a las autoridades.

También es política de la Diócesis adherirse a todos los reglamentos civiles y estatales. De acuerdo con las Leyes de Servicios de Protección Infantil del estado de Pensilvania, los informes de sospecha de abuso infantil también deben realizarse de inmediato por teléfono a la línea directa de abuso infantil las 24 horas (ChildLine) al 1-800-932-0313 o electrónicamente en www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis . Con este fin, la Diócesis está igualmente comprometida a adherirse a las normas del Código de Derecho Canónico y a defender los principios del Documento para la Protección de Niños y Jóvenes de la USCCB, que incluye apoyar a las víctimas de abuso sexual en su búsqueda de bienestar emocional y bienestar espiritual. Como tal, la información sobre una acusación de abuso sexual de un menor también debe informarse a la Coordinadora de Asistencia para Víctimas, Mary Beth Pacuska, al 570-862-7551. Información adicional de reporte e información sobre el cumplimiento de Ambientes Seguros se puede encontrar en https://www.dioceseofscranton.org/child-protection-victim-assistance/.
