

Holy Rosary will be hosting ComPanis, Faith Mentor Formation for adults on Saturday, October 17 from 9am-3pm. Sponsored by the Diocese of Crookston, ComPanis is for all adults who feel called to mentor and walk alongside the young people of our parish. You don't have to be a catechist or small group leader to attend. Through ComPanis, adults will discover practical, authentic ways to accompany youth and young adults in faith through intentional Christ-centered relationships. Please consider registering and encouraging others to join you. Together, we can help young people at Holy Rosary encounter Christ through adults who are willing to walk with them in faith. Learn more about ComPanis Faith Mentor Formation, and register at crookston.org/faith-me

Holy Rosary School is prepping to celebrate its 54th Marathon for Nonpublic Education

Pledges are being accepted and can be made with any Holy Rosary student, at the parish or school office, or online at 54thmarathon.givesmart.com

Join us for the ride or cheer us on along the route on October 11th!

Thank you for partnering with Holy Rosary School!
Building Hope, Faith and Futures

A "Giving Tree" has been placed on our school office window. As teachers need small classroom items, they will write the item on a leaf. Anyone who would like to contribute may take a leaf, purchase the item, and return the leaf and item to the school. Thank you, in advance, for blessing our school with your generosity!

The Holy Father's Prayer Intentions of the Month

For mental health ministry

Let us pray that the mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses.

Prayer of the Faithful

That we are not afraid of living our Faith because of fear of being "rejected" by others.

Stewardship Reflection

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the corner stone..." - MATTHEW 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens, but he was still obedient to God, the Father. Similarly, living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others, but we, too are called to be obedient. Saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!

"So, whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come." -2 Corinthians 5:17

This scripture passage was the theme for the Diocese of Crookston Youth Conference (DCYC) held last Sunday in Bemidji for youth in grades 6-12. I had the honor of attending the conference with 28 other youth and adults from Holy Rosary. It was great day, filled with many opportunities for youth and adults to encounter Christ with others from our diocese: speakers, games, food, music, Eucharistic Adoration, Reconciliation and Mass with Bishop Cozzens. The speakers, including Bishop Cozzens, provided us with inspiring testimonies of how their suffering was made new through Christ. They invited us to discover the new life that Christ offers us.

In Faith Formation at Holy Rosary, we are also being invited to new life with Christ. This year, Jesus is providing us with a new way of doing Faith Formation on Wednesday evenings for our children, families and youth. This new way stems from Bishop Cozzens' pastoral letter, "Renewing the Formation of Our Youth", and engages and involves the whole family in their relationship with Christ. It also honors parents as the first and best teacher in the Faith of their child. The goal of this new way (Family Formation for Kindergarten-5th grade and small group/adult mentorship for 6th-12th grade) is to form and help our families live a life that is united with Christ.

Fr. Joe Kim from the Diocese of San Jose and a speaker at DCYC, shared with us seven examples of how his parents engaged him and his sisters in the Catholic faith when they were young, leading them to continue to practice the Faith as adults. Fr. Joe said that if practiced, these seven pillars will help Catholic families and parishes live a life in union with Christ. Our hope this year in Faith Formation is to incorporate these seven pillars into everything we do on Wednesday evenings so that our families and our parish become people who live in union with Christ.

- 1. Keep Christ at the Center. Orient your family's daily life around Jesus. Is God at the center of our family? Are we showing God that we love Him with all of heart, mind, body and soul?
- 2. Challenge Your Mind. Read the Bible with your family for a few minutes every day. Are we training our heart and mind to be like Christ's or like the worlds?
- 3. Work on Your Heart. Insert moments of prayer with your children throughout the day – one minute goes a long way. Are we taking time every day to have a conversation with Jesus? Are we modeling what this looks like to our kids?
- 4. Receive the Sacraments. Bring your family to Mass every Sunday and to Reconciliation frequently. Do I tell Jesus what is on my heart when I come to Mass? After Mass, do we talk with our kids about what they saw or about the readings and the homily? Do we forgive each other in our home?
- 5. Lead a Life Directed to God. Engage your kids in topics about morality and don't be afraid to challenge them. Do we welcome questions from our kids about moral topics? "That is a great question. Let's talk about this."
- 6. Be in Community. By virtue of our baptism, we belong to the Body of Christ. Is our family helping and serving the Body of Christ by participating in your parish community?
- 7. Be an Evangelizer. Live with an outward focus. Are we talking about Jesus with our kids, family, friends, classmates, co-workers, and sharing what he's done in our lives?

Peace in Christ,
Kathy Olson
