A Message from Fr. Tom

Un Mensaje de Padre Tom

On September 8th the Catholic Church celebrates the birth of the Blessed Mother. It is also the birthday of my friend, Art. Art is a Seventh Day Adventist pastor. While I was in Deland, he served as the chaplain at the Advent Hospital. A wonderful fellow and devout Christian. Despite our differences in belief, we had a wonderful relationship. On Ash Wednesday I would distribute ashes to those in the hospital, patients and the staff who were Catholic. He gladly received ashes.

This past September 8th I texted him a birthday greeting. I debated if should tell him that we Catholics celebrate the birth of Mary on this day. I decided to go ahead and do it. I did not proselytize. I wrote "By the way today we also celebrate the birthday of the Blessed Mother."

I was curious to see how he would respond. Would he ignore it? Be offended? Remind me that the Seventh Day Adventist do not have devotion to our Lady? Here is his reply:

"Thanks so much dear friend. It's good to hear from you. The last year has been a challenge with health issues but it has broadened my horizons of God's infinite Grace. It's humbling to know that I share the day with the Blessed Mother. I didn't know that. 🙏 I pray only that I may be worthy of her shadow."

I pray you are doing well. I follow you on FB. You are an inspiration. Blessings, Brother. May God continue to use you."

What a heartfelt, respectful, beautiful response. He spoke more tenderly of our Lady than most Catholics. You see, we can share the good news of our faith. Just don't try to beat others over the head with it. Be gentle. Be sensitive. Choose the right occasion and the right person. Art, you have a beautiful soul. Blessed Mother be our guide.

Love and Blessings, Father Tom

El 8 de septiembre, la Iglesia Católica celebra el nacimiento de la Santísima Madre. También es el cumpleaños de mi amigo Art. Art es pastor adventista del séptimo día. Cuando yo estaba en Deland, él servía como capellán en el hospital Advent. Es una persona maravillosa y un cristiano devoto. A pesar de nuestras diferencias de creencias, mantuvimos una relación estupenda. El Miércoles de Ceniza, yo solía imponer la ceniza a quienes estaban en el hospital — tanto pacientes como personal— que fueran católicos. Él recibía la ceniza con gusto.

Este pasado 8 de septiembre le envié un mensaje de texto para felicitarlo por su cumpleaños. Dudé si debía decirle que nosotros, los católicos, celebramos el nacimiento de María en este día. Decidí hacerlo. No pretendía hacer proselitismo; simplemente escribí: «Por cierto, hoy también celebramos el cumpleaños de la Santísima Madre».

Sentía curiosidad por ver cómo respondería. ¿Lo ignoraría? ¿Se sentiría ofendido? ¿Me recordaría que los adventistas del séptimo día no tienen devoción a Nuestra Señora? Esta fue su respuesta:

"Muchas gracias, querido amigo. Me alegra saber de ti. El último año ha sido un desafío debido a problemas de salud, pero ha ampliado mis horizontes sobre la infinita gracia de Dios. Me llena de humildad saber que comparto el día con la Santísima Madre. No lo sabía. 🙏 Solo rezo para ser digno de su sombra."

Espero que te encuentres bien. Te sigo en Facebook. Eres una inspiración. Bendiciones, hermano. Que Dios siga utilizándote."

Qué respuesta tan sincera, respetuosa y hermosa. Hablé de Nuestra Señora con más ternura que la mayoría de los católicos. Ya ven, podemos compartir la buena nueva de nuestra fe. Simplemente, no hay que intentar imponerla a los demás a la fuerza. Hay que ser amables y sensibles, y elegir el momento y a la persona adecuados. Art, tienes un alma hermosa. Que la Santísima Madre sea nuestra guía.

*Con amor y bendiciones,
Padre Tom*

Nervous or Excited?

I just came back from New Orleans, a city I'd never been. Depending on who I asked, there was mixed feedback on what to expect (like most cities that offer both lure and charm). A day before our flight, a dear friend asked if I was excited for the trip, which gave me pause; I'd been so busy, I hadn't any time to consider my excitement. When she asked, my initial reaction was nervousness. ...it's a strange, new city and long gone is the thrill of flying for me. So, was I excited? No...I was more nervous.

Then I remembered how anxiety and excitement both trigger the same exact physical response in our body - the sympathetic nervous system. Whether nervous or excited, there is a surge of adrenaline, our hearts race, perhaps rapid breathing, and we feel like there's butterflies in our stomach. How do we distinguish between the two? That's where our perspective comes in.

Our brain decides what we choose to focus on. Essentially, anxiety anticipates what could go wrong; excitement anticipates what could go right. Being nervous isn't necessarily a bad thing. Nervousness can keep us humble, alert and aware. It can even push us beyond our comfort zone and challenge us to grow.

But it's important not to stay there.

And today's reading helps remind us of that. We are His. That He so conquered the world (John 16:33) and that "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" (Philippians 4:13).

I remember when each of our sons were preparing to go away to school. I was so excited for them but, oh, so nervous.

I remember preparing to leave my executive life in healthcare to transition to my role here at St. Theresa. I was excited about the prospects for this new work life, but I was also so nervous.

All I can do is pray - seeking REST as often as possible (Retreat, Enter into the presence of God, Sanctifying that time with Him and for Him, and Trusting in His guidance). In doing so, I can find excitement for all that the Lord has in store. When I REST, I can begin to see those butterflies differently. Maybe they aren't warning me to turn back. Maybe they're reminding me that something new is about to begin. And when I remember that I am His, I can move from nervousness toward excitement—not because I know exactly what lies ahead, but because I know who goes there with me. So perhaps the next time we feel our hearts racing, our palms sweating, or butterflies stirring in our stomachs, we can pause before deciding what those feelings mean. Are we anxious about what might happen? Or could we be excited about what God might have in store?

REST. Trust. And take courage.

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." ~Philippians 4:6-9

¿Nerviosa o emocionada?

Acabo de regresar de Nueva Orleans, una ciudad que nunca había visitado. Dependiendo de a quién preguntara, recibía opiniones contradictorias sobre qué esperar (como ocurre con la mayoría de las ciudades que ofrecen tanto atractivo como encanto). Un día antes de nuestro vuelo, una querida amiga me preguntó si estaba emocionada por el viaje; aquello me hizo reflexionar, pues había estado tan ocupada que no había tenido tiempo de pensar en mi emoción. Cuando ella preguntó, mi reacción inicial fue de nerviosismo... es una ciudad nueva y desconocida, y para mí la emoción de volar ya es cosa del pasado. Así que, ¿estaba emocionada? No... estaba más bien nerviosa.

Entonces recordé cómo la ansiedad y la emoción provocan exactamente la misma respuesta física en nuestro cuerpo: la activación del sistema nervioso simpático. Ya sea por nerviosismo o por emoción, se produce una descarga de adrenalina, el corazón se acelera, la respiración puede volverse rápida y sentimos mariposas en el estómago. ¿Cómo distinguimos entre ambas? Ahí es donde entra en juego nuestra perspectiva.

Nuestro cerebro decide en qué nos enfocamos. En esencia, la ansiedad anticipa lo que podría salir mal, mientras que la emoción anticipa lo que podría salir bien. Estar nerviosa no es necesariamente algo malo. El nerviosismo puede mantenernos humildes, alertas y conscientes. Incluso puede impulsarnos a salir de nuestra zona de confort y desafiarnos a crecer.

Pero es importante no quedarse estancada ahí.

Y la lectura de hoy nos ayuda a recordarlo. Somos suyos. Que Él venció al mundo (Juan 16:33) y que "todo lo puedo en Cristo que me fortalece" (Filipenses 4:13).

Recuerdo cuando cada uno de nuestros hijos se preparaba para irse a estudiar fuera. Estaba muy emocionada por ellos, pero, ¡ay!, también muy nerviosa.

Recuerdo cuando me preparaba para dejar mi carrera ejecutiva en el sector sanitario y asumir mi puesto aquí en Santa Teresa. Me entusiasmaban las perspectivas de esta nueva vida laboral, pero también sentía muchos nervios. Lo único que puedo hacer es orar, buscando el DESCANSO siempre que sea posible: Retirarme, Entrar en la presencia de Dios, Santificar ese tiempo con Él y para Él, y Confiar en Su guía. Al hacerlo, puedo sentir entusiasmo por todo lo que el Señor tiene preparado. Cuando DESCANSO, empiezo a ver esas "mariposas" de otra manera. Quizás no me estén advirtiéndome que retroceda. Tal vez me recuerden que algo nuevo está por comenzar. Y cuando recuerdo que le pertenezco a Él, puedo pasar del nerviosismo a la ilusión; no porque sepa exactamente qué me espera, sino porque sé quién va conmigo. Así que, tal vez la próxima vez que sintamos el corazón acelerado, las manos sudorosas o mariposas revoloteando en el estómago, podamos hacer una pausa antes de decidir qué significan esas sensaciones. ¿Sentimos ansiedad por lo que podría suceder? ¿O podríamos sentir entusiasmo por lo que Dios tiene preparado?

DESCANSA. Confía. Y cobra ánimo.

"No se inquieten por nada; más bien, en toda ocasión, con oración y ruego, presenten sus peticiones a Dios y denle gracias. Y la paz de Dios, que sobrepasa todo entendimiento, cuidará sus corazones y sus pensamientos en Cristo Jesús." ~Filipenses 4:6-9

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation as we strive to serve our parish community fairly and prayerfully.

The Mass Intention calendar will be available Monday, October 28, 2026 in the Parish Office. Please stop in to schedule your mass intention(s) for a deceased loved one or for a special intention. Our office hours are 8:00am-4:00pm M-Th and 8:00am - 12noon on Friday.

cost of washing and drying their clothes.

Drop quarters and dollar bills in the offertory baskets in an envelope marked "Laundry Ministry"

Donations may also be dropped off at the Social Services Office, weekdays 9am - 1pm.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

"Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to them, 'Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,' but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it?"
- James 2:15-16

Please help those that need it the most. Consider giving to the food pantry with either food or monetary donations.

We are not receiving the same government support. Our Food Pantry is in need of the following:

- Spaghetti Sauce
- Chef Boyardee
- Canned Chicken, Tuna, Beef,
Sausage, Salmon (Pop up tabs)
- Peanut Butter and Nuts
- Water and Gatorade

The Food Van is parked outside during all weekend masses.
The Food Cart is in the church narthex.
The Food Pantry is open Mon-Fri 9 am -12 noon.

Interested in Bringing Millions of Monicas to Our Parish?

Several mothers in our parish are interested in starting a Millions of Monicas prayer group, a beautiful ministry inspired by the perseverance of Saint Monica. Before we can begin, we are looking for a few additional mothers to serve as co-leaders and help establish the ministry.

Millions of Monicas is not a support group or discussion group. It is a dedicated hour of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, uniting mothers in hopeful, faithful prayer for the return of their children who are in need of God's mercy and a return to the practice of their Catholic faith.

If you would be interested in helping launch this ministry as a co-leader, please contact:
Mary Lou at (216) 262-6393 or mlrooy@icloud.com
