Committee Reports:

WORSHIP (Kathy P)

Updated report on Easter flower money collected: total was $1900. Church pew upholstery cleaning was delayed to next year's budget because the cleaning company reported a current shortage of industrial strength Scotchguard. The work will be done during next year's week long Presbyterian Assembly so that church will be available for several weekdays for the work.

SCHOOL (SAC) (Liz M)

There were four openings on Committee. Ten applications were received. Top four candidates were elected by Committee. Names will be sent to Pastor for his approval. August is next SAC meeting.

ADMINISTRATION - No report. Fr D said there was no Admin. meeting last month.

OUTREACH- Rosebud collection begins Wednesday, May 27. No Yard Sale this year due to School Construction.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION- Chair for Committee is needed. Bible Study and Faith sharing groups are paused for the summer. Fr D said a parishioner has requested an evening bible study. Fr D recommended the person There is an evening Walking with Purpose for women.

PASTOR'S REPORT

Repair of railing on the handicap ramp on Norbourne side of church was discussed. Seminarian Harrison Frey is here for the summer. He will be a server at daily Masses. Harrison's day off is currently Tuesday. Seminarian David Hairston is assigned to the Cathedral but is living at the 500 Breckenridge Lane house (current OLOL Rectory).

OLD BUSINESS

The subcommittee assigned to develop an incident reporting procedure for the parish presented their proposed procedure. The Council was given copies to be discussed at the June Parish Council meeting.

MEETING ADJOURNED at 7:20pm.

NEXT MEETING: Tuesday, June 23, 2026 at 6pm.
