Good News for children

Saintly Trick-or-Treat

Imagine you get to trick-or-treat in Heaven. All the saints have their lights on, and their pumpkins offer you a warm, cheerful welcome. What treat would each saint offer you? From the list below, choose the saint who would offer each treat and write his or her name on the line.

— Choose from these saints! —

Saint Kateri Tekakwitha was a member of the Mohawk tribe.

Saint Martin of Tours once cut his cloak in half to share with a shivering beggar.

Saint Nicholas is the original Santa Claus.

Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus, called the "Little Flower," wanted to send blessings that would fall from Heaven like flower petals.

Saint Anthony of Padua helps people find missing objects.

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini was the first U.S. citizen to be named a saint.

Saint Joseph was a carpenter who knew what children liked to play with.

Saint Martha was a friend of Jesus. She was known as a housekeeper and cook.

Saint George saved a maiden who was being threatened by a dragon.

Saint Martin de Porres was a barber. In his day, barbers knew a lot about medical herbs and how they could cure illness.

1. _____
   would pass out wooden toys he built in his workshop.

2. _____
   would offer each child a beautiful rose.

3. _____
   would help you find your trick-or-treat bag if you lost it.

4. _____
   would happily accept children's Christmas lists.

5. _____
   would give any child who was cold a wonderfully warm cloak.

6. _____
   would give everybody a ride on a dragon he had defeated in battle and then tamed.

7. _____
   would sing you a song popular with her Native American people.

8. _____
   would give everybody a quick haircut.

9. _____
   would give homemade cookies.

10. _____
    would give out small U.S. flags.

A Service of Gospel Weeklies
Pflaum FAITH FORMATION PROGRAM