Dear Parishioners

There is an old saying that when God closes one door, He opens another. In religious communities, we might add when one priest is transferred, retired, or sent on a new mission, God often sends another to continue the work!

This month, we are delighted to welcome two new Redemptorist priests; Fr. Al and Fr. Mike to our community. Moving to a new parish, a new ministry, and a new home is no small task. There are new names to learn, new faces to remember, and perhaps most challenging of all, figuring out where everything is kept in the rectory and parish! Both Fr. Al and Fr. Mike are coming to New Smyrna Beach because the Redemptorists made a decision to leave their current parish in Newton Grove NC.

So, although we are saddened to hear that news, we rejoice that they have been sent to us!

As Redemptorists, our new priests join us in the spirit of our founder, Saint Alphonsus Liguori, whose passion was to bring hope and mercy to those most in need. While each priest brings his own gifts, personality, and experiences, all share the same call to serve God's people with generosity and joy.

Please take a moment over the next few weeks to give Father Mike and Father Al a warm Florida welcome. Introduce yourselves (probably more than once—give them a little time to memorize a few hundred new faces and names!) and make them feel right at home.

So, to help you “get to know” Fr. Mike and Fr. Al, here is a summary for each:

Fr. Alvaro Riquelme, C.Ss.R. – Brief Biography

Fr. Alvaro Riquelme, C.Ss.R., was born in Santiago, Chile in 1954 and moved with his family to New York at the age of 10. After returning to Chile in 1970, he completed his education and taught English in Santiago before returning to the United States in 1979.

After working in hospitality and later as an English teacher in Florida, Fr. Alvaro answered God's call to religious life, entering the Redemptorist Seminary in 1988. He professed his vows in 1991 and was ordained a priest on May 10, 1997. His ministry has included service here at Sacred Heart Church, Saint Joseph Catholic Church, and Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, where he served as pastor. Fr. Alvaro has served as Spiritual Director for the Hispanic Charismatic Renewal, Episcopal Liaison to the diocesan RCIA Commission, contributing significantly to both English and Spanish-speaking Catholic communities.

Fr. Michael Koncik, C.Ss.R. - Brief Biography

Fr. Mike has served at Holy Rosary (Jacksonville, FL): Served as Parish Pastor and Rector (2002–2005) and Our Lady of Guadalupe (Newton Grove, NC) where he served as a Youth Advisor under the Diocese of Raleigh (2024–2026).

A passion of Fr. Mike is Prison Ministry & Chaplaincy-

Diocese of Raleigh (North Carolina): Engaged in Prison Ministry (2024–2026).

Diocese of Charleston: Served as Vicar for Prison Ministry (2019–2023).

Rikers Island Department of Corrections (New York): Served as Catholic Chaplain (2005–2019).

“Where are you this summer?”

Summer Vacation

Class of 2026 alumnae—Ariana G., Mia W., Carolina M., Kiley Z., and Cali R.

enjoyed some R & R with their parents. So, where are they this summer? Stunning beaches, wonderful wildlife and colorful carnivals – it’s time to brush up on this beautiful country - the Bahamas!

Located in the Atlantic Ocean, the Bahamas consists of 700 tropical islands. Only about 30 of them are inhabited by people. New Providence – one of the largest islands and the location of Nassau, the capital city – is home to 70 percent of the country’s population.

Turtles, parrots, iguanas and the world’s largest colony of pink flamingos all thrive in the warm climate of the Bahamas – where the temperature here rarely drops below 60°F! The warm waters surrounding the islands boast colorful fish such as blue tang and stoplight parrotfish, while the Andros Island features the 140 miles long Andros Barrier Reef – one of the longest coral reefs in the world. No wonder this tropical country is such a hot spot! Thank you for sharing your photos with us!

Dance: A Passion for 4th grader Xaida W.—Sacred Heart 2025-2026 JC Awardee

Behind the sparkling costumes and flowing music lies rigorous practice. Dance instills a profound work ethic, teaching her that dedication, resilience, and hours of hard work turn dreams into achievable realities. Really much like the same attitude she had academically. All the best Xaida!! Happy summer!
