Dear Parishioners

Have you ever noticed how often we redeem things these days? We redeem coupons, gift cards, reward points, and special offers. We are always looking for a bargain or a chance to save a little money. Yet the greatest redemption ever offered is one that cannot be earned, purchased, or downloaded from an app. It is the gift of Jesus Christ, our Most Holy Redeemer.

The word redeem means to buy back, rescue, or set free. Through His life, death, and resurrection, Jesus redeemed us from sin and opened for us the path to eternal life. He did not do so reluctantly or from a distance. He entered fully into our human experience, sharing our joys, struggles, disappointments, and hopes.

The Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer reminds us that God never gives up on His people. Even when we take a few wrong turns, lose our way, or find ourselves stuck in life's traffic jams, Jesus Christ continues to call us back with patience and love. Always remember, His mercy is always greater than our mistakes.

This feast is especially meaningful for us priests and brothers as members of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, commonly known world-wide as the Redemptorists. Founded by Saint Alphonsus Liguori in 1732, we Redemptorists have dedicated our lives to preaching the Good News of abundant redemption, especially to those who are most in need of hope and encouragement. For Redemptorists throughout the world, this feast is a joyful reminder of the mission that inspires our ministry and religious life.

This feast is also a wonderful opportunity to ask ourselves: How am I responding to the gift of redemption? Do I allow Christ's love to transform my heart? Do I offer forgiveness to others as generously as He offers it to me? As we celebrate our Most Holy Redeemer this weekend, may we remember that we are not merely saved from something; we are saved for something—a life of faith, hope, love, and service. And that is a gift worth celebrating, not just on this feast day, but every day.

May our Redeemer bless you and your loved ones with His peace and joy. And on the feast day, please remember to pray for Redemptorist vocations!

God Bless Us All

Fr. John

"Where are you this summer?"

Summer Vacation

"Where are you this summer?" series welcomes The Hickson Family Trip to the Vatican and Italy!

Imagine walking through the beautiful streets of Italy with your family, eating delicious pasta and gelato while discovering places filled with history, faith, and beauty. That's exactly what our Hickson Family is enjoying right now! Mum and Dad, SHCS alumni & Fr. Lopez student Finn, incoming 7th grader Brandt, and incoming 1st grader Revere are visiting one of the most special places to visit in Italy, the Vatican City — the home of the Pope and the center of the Catholic Church!

In the Vatican, families can visit the breathtaking Saint Peter's Basilica, one of the largest churches in the world. Inside, you can see incredible artwork, beautiful marble statues, and the famous Pietà sculpture created by Michelangelo. Families often gather in Saint Peter's Square to pray the Angelus with the Pope on Sundays.

Children especially enjoy looking up at the colorful ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, where Michelangelo painted scenes from the Bible. Please say a little prayer for all of us as you visit the beautiful churches in Italy!

Summer Serie continues!

The Bohan Family on big family vacation in Jensen Beach, Florida with all the Bohan cousins. Bella got to swim in the ocean, shell hunting, kayaking, snorkeling, great seafood, and of course fishing!

Enjoy your summer and thanks for sharing your vacation photos with us!
