Dear brothers and sisters of St. Catherine,

This is not a good-bye, but a see-you-later. My time at St. Catherine's for now has concluded. I was so blessed to begin my diaconal ministry with you all this summer. I am very grateful for your warm hospitality. Most of all I am grateful for your strong faith. It is very encouraging to witness many parishioners pray fervently at Mass and in Eucharistic Adoration. Indeed, it is inspiring to witness how you all serve God and each other, including our recent VBS camp. There were almost as many volunteers as there were children!

I have learned so much in very little time. One thing in particular in regards to preaching. The people of God are hungry for the truth! However, I don't need to say everything in one homily! If God's word is the spoken word in the homily, then little can be said by the preacher and God will still feed his people. But the preacher must know God's word and the message He wants to speak to His people. He must speak it with clarity, conciseness, and conviction! I ask for your prayers as I take some time off in August for rest and transition back to seminary for my last full-time semester. Especially, as I prepare for my Pastoral Care of Souls exam in December which is the comprehensive exam to attain my MdiV and get ordained a priest next May! If you would like to keep in touch or come visit, please let me know. We love having visitors at my seminary St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary...by the beach! Please know I give God thanks for all the love and support you have provided for me. I will continue to keep you in my prayers. See you at Christmas time!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas de Santa Catalina:

Esto no es un adiós, sino un hasta luego. Mi tiempo en Santa Catalina ha concluido por ahora. Me siento muy bendecido por haber comenzado mi ministerio diaconal con todos ustedes este verano. Estoy muy agradecido por su cálida hospitalidad. Sobre todo, agradezco su fe sólida. Es muy alentador ver a tantos feligreses orar con fervor durante la Misa y la Adoración Eucarística. De hecho, resulta inspirador ver cómo sirven a Dios y a los demás, como ocurrió en nuestro reciente campamento de verano (VBS): ¡había casi tantos voluntarios como niños!

He aprendido muchísimo en muy poco tiempo. Una cosa en particular, respecto a la predicación: ¡el pueblo de Dios tiene hambre de verdad! Sin embargo, ¡no hace falta decirlo todo en una sola homilía! Si la Palabra de Dios es la que se proclama en la homilía, el predicador puede decir poco y, aun así, Dios alimentará a su pueblo. Pero el predicador debe conocer la Palabra de Dios y el mensaje que Él quiere transmitir a su pueblo. ¡Debe expresarlo con claridad, concisión y convicción!

Les pido sus oraciones mientras tomo un tiempo de descanso en agosto y realizo la transición de regreso al seminario para mi último semestre a tiempo completo. Especialmente, mientras me preparo para el examen de Cuidado Pastoral de las Almas en diciembre; ¡es el examen integral para obtener mi Maestría en Divinidad (M.Div.) y ordenarme sacerdote el próximo mes de mayo! Si desean mantenerse en contacto o venir de visita, por favor avisenme. Nos encanta recibir visitas en mi seminario, el Seminario Regional San Vicente de Paúl... ¡que está junto a la playa! Sepan que doy gracias a Dios por todo el amor y el apoyo que me han brindado. Seguiré teniéndolos presentes en mis oraciones. ¡Nos vemos en Navidad!
