Pastor's Corner: .

Pope Leo on Sacred Music (August 2026) - "Dear brothers and sisters, the Fathers of the Church held liturgical singing in great esteem as a symbol of ecclesial communion as we join together in love, and -- in the words of St. Ignatius of Antioch -- 'with one voice sing to the Father through Jesus Christ.' Music is an integral form of prayer in the liturgy and is not merely a 'decorative' element. Reflecting on the Second Vatican Council's 'Sacrosanctum Concilium,' sacred music and singing should be dignified, inspired by Scripture and help the faithful participate in the mystery being celebrated. The council attributes great value to Gregorian chant, without excluding other genres of sacred music from the celebration, as well as to the organ. The use of other instruments is permitted as long as the instruments are suitable for sacred use and truly contribute to the edification of the faithful. The texts too should be suitable, profound and at the same time readily understandable, inspired mainly by Sacred Scripture, the liturgical books and the spiritual tradition of the Church, so that the law of prayer, which is also the law of faith, may remain alive and continue to grow,"

El Papa León XIV sobre la Música Sacra (agosto de 2026) "Queridos hermanos y hermanas: los Padres de la Iglesia tenían en gran estima el canto litúrgico como símbolo de la comunión eclesial, al unirnos en el amor y, en palabras de san Ignacio de Antioquía, 'con una sola voz cantar al Padre por medio de Jesucristo'. La música es una forma integral de oración en la liturgia y no es simplemente un elemento 'decorativo'. Al reflexionar sobre el documento del Concilio Vaticano II, Sacrosanctum Concilium, la música y el canto sacros deben ser dignos, inspirados en las Sagradas Escrituras y ayudar a los fieles a participar en el misterio que se celebra. El Concilio atribuye un gran valor al canto gregoriano, sin excluir de la celebración otros géneros de música sacra, así como al órgano. Se permite el uso de otros instrumentos, siempre que sean adecuados para el uso sagrado y contribuyan verdaderamente a la edificación de los fieles. También los textos deben ser apropiados, profundos y, al mismo tiempo, fácilmente comprensibles, inspirados principalmente en la Sagrada Escritura, los libros litúrgicos y la tradición espiritual de la Iglesia, para que la ley de la oración, que es también la ley de la fe, permanezca viva y continúe creciendo."

Love Your Neighbor. Live Vincentian. St. Vincent de Paul is conducting a recruiting campaign to grow our parish-based volunteers, known as Vincentians, in response to the growing need in our communities. The mission of our organization is deeply rooted in the tradition of serving neighbors in need through personal relationships and direct aid offered with dignity and respect. This call to serve will help fulfill your needs to be involved with a ministry that goes to the very heart of Christ's teaching to love and care for all people. Join us after mass next weekend to talk to a SVdP conference representative and learn what it means to "Live Vincentian." Contact Dennis Morgan at 404-838-8504 or dmmorgan@bellsouth.net
