RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

God Gives Us What We Need

A while back, my wife and I helped move my oldest son into his first real apartment as he started his first real job. We were feeling excited and cautious at the same time. The move reminded me of when my wife and I were first starting out.

At the start of this journey we didn't have much, but we had one another, and love.

Looking back, those were great times.

At times we think material possessions show evidence of a life well lived. Like souvenirs from our travels, life styles and collections that take time to amass, they all provide clues to our interests.

Whether we have lived lives of hardship and pain, or lives that have been mostly happy, we may have many of the same items. Not only doesn't all our stuff amount to real evidence of what our life has really been like, but it doesn't make our lives better either.

What makes a life well lived will be the love and compassion that we have experienced, primarily with God who loves us so deeply. Due to that love, God gives to us what we need, not always what we want. More stuff will never amount to anything in comparison to what God provides to us. If we reflected on that truth more, perhaps we would spend less time accumulating things and more time simply loving.

On that moving day, I wanted to give my son more material things, however, what he really needs then, now, and always is my love.

THE FEAST OF THE Transfiguration OF Jesus

AUGUST 6TH

As I watched, visions of the Ancient One took his throne. His clothing was bright as snow, and the hair on his head as white as wool; his throne was flames of fire, with wheels of burning fire. A surging stream of fire flowed out from where he sat; One like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; When he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, The one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His everlasting dominion shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.
