Fun Catholic Fact

Your family is a “domestic church.”

Catholics believe the Christian home is called the “domestic church.” That means your family home is a special place of grace and prayer, where children learn how to live with good virtues and Christian love.

In this “domestic church,” children receive the first proclamation of the faith—family members help each other learn about Jesus and how to follow Him.

The Church also teaches that parents should see their children as children of God, and treat them with dignity and respect.

And parents have a real responsibility to educate their children by making the home a place where there is tenderness, forgiveness, respect, fidelity, and service—so the family becomes a school of learning how to love.

This week, what is one kind thing you can do at home to help make your house more like a “domestic church”?

MyParish App

MyParish app

MyParish App is a free resource for our parish! Download today wherever you typically find your apps or scan the QR code to get started. Simply select St. Hilary of Poitiers Catholic Church when prompted to select a parish.

This Week's Features: FORMED

Formed is one of the greatest resources available to Catholic parishes, and here at St. Hilary, you can access it FOR FREE! No matter which Catholic topic you want to learn about or what type of format you like most (podcast, episodes, movies, etc.), you can find it on Formed. Plus, if you have the app, you can access it right away. Please note that the order of the menu buttons changed a little bit. Once you create an account with Formed, you'll be able to login from your phone, computer, or even smart TV to access the content:

The image displays a sequence of four screenshots illustrating the process of using the MyParish App and the Formed website. The first screenshot shows the app's home screen with a grid of icons; a yellow circle highlights the 'FORMED' icon, and a yellow arrow points to the second screenshot. The second screenshot is the 'Welcome to Formed' page, where a yellow circle highlights the 'FORMED FOR PARISHES' button, with an arrow pointing to the third screenshot. The third screenshot shows the 'Nourishing a faithful Catholic lifestyle' page, with a yellow circle around the 'GET STARTED' button and an arrow pointing to the fourth screenshot. The fourth screenshot is the 'Sign In or Create an Account' page on the website, with a yellow circle around the 'Continue with Google' button. Below these screenshots is a 'Join your parish' form with a search bar containing 'Ex. St Rose of Lima, Denver CO' and a 'Submit' button. A large yellow circle is drawn around the 'Join your parish' section, and a yellow arrow points from the 'FORMED FOR PARISHES' button in the second screenshot to this section.

After you create an account, be sure to "Join your parish" by searching 70394 and selecting St. Hilary of Poitiers.

Next Week

In next weekend's bulletin, we will continue covering the resources linked on the homepage of our app (Real Life Catholic, DiscoverMass, etc.). These resources are invaluable additions to our daily routines and will help us to pray more and learn more about our faith. Check back next week for more!
