WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes in our readings for the 17th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – 1st Kings 3:5,7-12

- When asked by God, Solomon prays for an understanding heart to judge the people and distinguish right from wrong.
- God approves of this request because it is selfless and directed toward the good of others.

Psalms 119:57,72,76-77,127-130

- "Lord, I love your commands."
- Keeping the Lord's decrees result in kindness and compassion that is more wonderful than gold.

2nd Reading – Romans 8:28-30

- All things work for those who love God and are called according to his purpose.
- Those called by God are conformed to the image of his Son and glorified.

Gospel – Matthew 13:44-52

- Jesus offers three parables to help describe the Kingdom of heaven: treasure in a field; a fine pearl; and a net that is thrown into the sea.
- Point: may we cherish what is truly precious in God's eyes!

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: If you could be with Jesus, what would you trade from your own things for that?

Question for Youth: Today's gospel reminds us that God's kingdom is worth sacrifice. What do you need to sacrifice in order to follow God in your own life? Why are you willing to make that sacrifice?

Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words what the Reign of God is for you personally, and use a parable to describe it: "The reign of God is ____."
