STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

In today's second reading, St. Paul exhorts the Romans to total stewardship. Brothers and sisters, he urges, "...offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God"

Thank you for your generosity!

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the central themes in the Mass readings for the 22nd Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Jeremiah 20:7-9

- Jeremiah is duped by the Lord, who overwhelms the prophet with a message for the people which often causes him derision and reproach.
- Even though Jeremiah attempts to avoid his calling, God's word is burning within him, and he must cry out.

Psalm - 63:2,6,8-9

- "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God."
- Our soul sees God's goodness, and we long to give praise and blessing to the Lord who upholds us.

2nd Reading - Romans 12:1-2

- Paul urges us to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God.
- Rather than conform to this age, we are called to be transformed by the renewal of our mind to the will of God.

Gospel - Matthew 16:21-27

- Jesus speaks about his coming Passion, and then he rebukes Peter for attempting to avoid it.
- The Lord then teaches that anyone who wishes to come after him must take up his cross and follow.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us that we each called to follow him. What is hard for you to do to follow Jesus?

Question for Youth: In order to follow Jesus, we have to do hard things, to carry our own crosses. What is a cross that you are carrying right now? In what ways can you ask Jesus to help you with your cross?

Question for Adults: Jesus gives us the core truth to life and eternal happiness — the cross. Name the cross that you carry. How is it bringing you closer to God?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

THE HOME VISIT

The call to servanthood for the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is the call to the homes of the poor. As God put on the cloak of humanity, coming to our home on earth in order to accompany and serve us, so St. Vincent implored the Daughters of Charity to "seek out poor persons in their homes, which until now has never been done." [CCD IX:467] Two hundred years later, Blessed Frédéric would echo this same commitment to servanthood, igniting the Society's founding, and citing Christ's example as he declared, "let us go to the poor!"

Today, our local Society averages over 200 home visits a year and over 600 visits with people in other locations - many at our free store for goods, and many with those who are without a permanent home.

Becoming Catholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called discern entry into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.cck@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

Adult Formation Programming

... Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always to be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope. (1 Peter 3:15)

Some of us are very familiar with the phrase, “To Know, Love and Serve Him” – words from The Baltimore Catechism in response to the question, “Why did God make you? Even though this question and response has been part of Catholic culture for 140 years – and things have changed so much -- it is still very relevant today.

How DO we know, love and serve God in this complicated world of ours? It’s not always easy. The Superior Catholics cluster of parishes has two learning opportunities for you.

The first is The Search, a dynamic, thought-provoking series of videos that asks What is this journey in between the event we call 'birth' and the one we call 'death'? Is the journey taking you somewhere, or are you leading yourself to some kind of destination – a destination that could extend beyond your last breath? What do you want from your life during the in between? The questions are there. And, the answers are too.

The second addresses how we live out the directive, “Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations.”

Evangelization and The Acts of the Apostles looks at what the apostles did, in the wake of the Resurrection, to do as they were commanded to establish the Church and make disciples across the known world. Using the Lectio Divina approach of reading, reflecting, responding, and contemplating, this series provides opportunities for discussion and questions.

Thursdays, 6:30 to 8:00 pm
September 3 – October 22

NO SESSION ON OCTOBER 8 DUE TO UWS CONCERT.

The Search

This seven-session course is presented as a video & discussion series. Each session addresses a pointed question:

Sept 3 What Do You Seek?
Sept 10 Who Are You?
Sept 17 Why a God?
Sept 24 What’s Our Story?

Oct 1 Who is Jesus?
Oct 15 Am I Saved?
Oct 22 Why a Church?

Anna Betancourt is a professional singer, songwriter, music director and workshop presenter. Based in Fort Worth, Texas, she previously worked in various bilingual communities as music director, choral director and cantor in the parishes of Southern California. She has more than 35 years of experience working with various choirs including youth, children's, adult, contemporary, traditional choirs and handbells choirs.

Anna graduated from Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, where she studied voice and music theory, and where she also worked as assistant director of liturgy and music. At the archdiocesan level, she has served as a music committee member, deanery representative and a member of the Los Angeles Religious Education Congress Liturgy Committee.

Anna's voice can be heard on more than 50 recordings, including some by Jaime Cortez, Bob Hurd and Eleazar Cortés. Her first solo collection, Te Doy Gracias, features 12 popular contemporary Spanish and bilingual songs. Her collection Tomaré Mi Cruz presents inspiring songs for liturgy, worship groups or retreats. Her music is also featured in OCP's Novena a la Virgen de Guadalupe/Novena to Our Lady of Guadalupe collection.

Anna has been a speaker and presenter at various conferences and workshops on music and liturgy. She is the former Spanish choir director at Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels in Los Angeles and Christ Cathedral in Orange County, California. She currently ministers with her husband, Deacon Mike Betancourt, at St. Mark Catholic Church in Argyle, Texas.

Dr. Glenn Byer was born and raised on a farm near Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. He has written widely on the liturgy, including an ongoing series of articles in Today's Liturgy on the link between the Catechism of the Catholic Church and liturgical ministry and books on pastoral liturgical topics. He speaks widely on how to get more out of the liturgy.

His work in liturgy led to a post as professor of liturgy at Kenrick School of Theology in St. Louis, Missouri. He taught three years for the Paul VI Catechetical Institute, also in St. Louis. Glenn has served on the liturgy commissions of three archdioceses, Edmonton, Baltimore and St. Louis. He received a master's in liturgy from the University of Notre Dame in 1987 and a sacred liturgy doctorate (SLD) from Sant' Anselmo in Rome in 1994. Glenn currently works as OCP's worship publications manager.

He was recently awarded honorable mention for his book, Unlocking the Feasts and Seasons of the Liturgical Year and, in 2018, won first place for his book, 26 Ordinary Ways to Live the Liturgy, in the CPA (Catholic Press Association) Book Awards. Glenn is the co-author with Mary Jo Tully and Paulette McCoy of The Catholic Catechist's Companion, with Msgr. William Belford and Michael R. Prendergast of Parish Liturgy Basics and with Michael R. Prendergast of Hospitality Basics. In 2022, Glenn was elected to the executive of the North American Academy of Liturgy.

JOURNEY IN FAITH. Walk in Hope.

A pilgrimage is more than a trip -
it is a journey of the heart.
Together, we step away from the busyness of life to encounter God in prayer, community, and the beauty of sacred places.

"A pilgrimage has a vital part to play
in our life of faith, for it removes us from our homes and our daily routines, and gives us time and space to encounter God more deeply. Such moments always help us grow, for through them the Holy Spirit gently fashions us to be ever more closely conformed to the mind and heart of Jesus Christ." - Pope Leo XIV
