WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the main themes in the Mass readings for the 20th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Isaiah 56:1,6-7

- All who observe what is right and do what is just, even foreigners from distant lands, will serve and follow the Lord.
- God will bring all who follow him to the holy mountain, and there will be a house of prayer for all peoples.

Psalms – 67:2-3,5-6,8

- “O God, let all the nations praise you!”
- May God’s ways be known to all peoples, and all the ends of the earth fear the Lord.

2nd Reading – Romans 11:13-15,29-32

- Paul, a minister to the Gentiles (non-Jewish people), gives glory that he can do his ministry to make his own race jealous and thus save some of them.
- Paul’s hope is that as God’s gifts to the Jews are irrevocable, the Lord’s mercy will extend to those who have rejected Jesus.

Gospel – Matthew 15:21-28

- Jesus, traveling through the region of Tyre and Sidon, encounters a persistent Canaanite woman who is calling for help for her daughter who is tormented by a demon.
- Through their dialogue, Jesus heals the girl on account of her mother’s faith.

Fr. Andrew

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

FINDING GOD'S PRESENCE

In all God’s creation, St. Vincent saw God’s presence most vividly in the poor. After all, the very God who put on the cloak of humanity to visit our humble home chose to do so not as a king, a warrior, or a man of wealth and power, but instead as a humble carpenter, sharing in our suffering and poverty. Where else should we expect Him to await us? Who better to remind us of His presence? “You are serving Jesus Christ in the person of the poor,” he said. “And that is as true as that we are here.”

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs.” She said, “Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.” Then Jesus said to her in reply, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And the woman’s daughter was healed from that hour. — Mt 15:26b-28
