WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes in the Mass readings for the 21st Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Isaiah 22:19-23

- Shebna, master of the palace, will be cast out of office.
- Eliakim, a servant of God, will be clothed with Shebna's authority and given the key of the House of David to open and shut.

Psalm – 138:1-3,6,8

- "Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands."
- In the sight of the angels we give thanks and sing praise to God who endures forever.

2nd Reading – Romans 11:33-36

- God's wisdom and knowledge are deep riches that cannot be repaid.
- God's judgments are inscrutable; glory to God forever!

Gospel – Matthew 16:13-20

- Peter tells Jesus that he is "the Christ, the Son of the living God."
- Jesus affirms that this insight is a gift from God, and he shows how Peter is the "rock" upon which the Lord will build the Church.
- Peter is entrusted with the authority of the keys to the kingdom of heaven to bind and loose in heaven and on earth.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What are three things you know about Jesus?

Question for Youth: Today's Gospel is about identity – the revealing of Jesus' true self. How difficult is it to you to reveal your true self? What holds you back from being who God created you to be?

Question for Adults: If Jesus turned and asked you the same question, who would you say he is? How would you describe Jesus to someone who did not know him?
