WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's explore some of the themes in the Mass Readings for the 25th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading – Isaiah 55:6-9

- Isaiah urges the people to seek and call upon the Lord while he is near.
- God's thoughts and ways are not like ours; as the heavens are high above the earth, so are God's ways high above our own.

Psalms – 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18

- "The Lord is near to all who call upon him."
- God's goodness and kindness is revealed in the compassion extended to all creation.

2nd Reading – Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

- Christ is magnified in our bodies, by life or by death.
- St. Paul is in conflict: death means that he will be with Christ; life means that he is able to serve Christ's people.

Gospel – Matthew 20:1-16a

- Jesus offers a parable about a landowner who is generous to the laborers who could not work a full day in his vineyard.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do you experience God being generous to you: through your family, friends, school, or parish?

Question for Youth: This Gospel reminds us that God is always seeking us out and welcoming us into his generous love. Through whom has God reached out to you? Who is always encouraging you to say "yes" to God?

Question for Adults: Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words how God will treat those who come to be part of the church, even those who come late.

Becoming Catholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

- Those with no faith-based experience.
- Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called discern entry into the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.
- Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.
- Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?

For more information, contact OCIA Coordinator Kathy Drinkwine at kdrinkwine.ckk@gmail.com or leave a message at the Cathedral office 715 392 8511.

Thursday Morning Bible Study and Rosary. All are welcome to join in discussion on the upcoming Sunday readings. The group meets every Thursday at 9:30 to pray the Rosary and 10 a.m. for Bible study in the Angel Room at St. Anthony, Lake Nebagamon! See Tammy B. for more Information.

Mass Intentions. We have openings for Mass Intentions. Mass Intentions are a powerful way to honor the memory of a loved one and to offer prayers. There is a suggested donation of $20 for each intention. Please contact the parish office to request a Mass Intention.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous? Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

— Mt 20:13c-16
