WEEKLY MEDITATION

Here are some of the themes that we find in the Mass readings for the 24th Sunday of the Year.

1st Reading - Sirach 27:30-28:9

While wrath and anger are hateful things, the sinner hugs them tight.
If a person expects mercy and pardon for sins, enmity must be set aside.

Psalm - 103:1-4,9-12

"The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion."
God pardons, heals, and redeems us out of kindness.

2nd Reading - Romans 14:7-9

None of us lives or dies for oneself, but for the Lord.
Christ has died and rose that he might be Lord of the dead and the living.

Gospel - Matthew 18:21-35

When asked by Peter how often must he forgive his brother, Jesus offers a parable about a servant who failed to forgive someone in a small way after he had experienced great forgiveness from his master.
The Lord then applies the parable to us all: we must forgive one another if we expect to be forgiven by God.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus says we should forgive from our heart. When did you ask forgiveness of someone you hurt? How did you feel?

Question for Youth: Jesus challenges us to forgive. Who needs your forgiveness? From whom do you need to ask forgiveness?

Question for Adults: Jesus tells us to forgive seventy times seven, which means always and forever. Name a time this past week when you forgave someone. Name, too, a time when you accepted another person's forgiveness.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

August 28th Audience with Pope Leo XIV

National leaders of SVDP recently met with Pope Leo at the Vatican and were greeted with this address:
"Caring for others, when motivated by love, not only helps those in need, but also opens the heart of the giver to God's grace. Dear friends, I urge you, then, always to give of yourselves. In this way, the Lord's grace will steadily purify your hearts and minds, and you will more readily recognize Christ in your neighbor, both in those you serve and in those with whom you work."

Join us as we care for others.

Becoming Catholic

The excitement continues. More and more adults are seeking information about the Holy Catholic Church – and those who are Catholic are seeking to complete their sacraments. The energy and spirit are very real.

The process of bringing adults into full communion with the Catholic Church is called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Locally, OCIA is available to those who have a desire to learn about Catholicism. This process serves everyone - those with no faith-based experience to those fully Catholic desiring to learn more about the basics of their faith.

There are varying ways to participate in OCIA. First, there are weekly classes on Thursday evenings. Gathered together are individuals with a wide range of faith-based experiences. The sessions are led by a team of experienced Catholics. Each session examines scripture, portions of the Catechism, and topics designed to help navigate ordinary Catholic experiences.

Second, recognizing that life does not always allow for a weekly on-site commitment, arrangements can be made for individuals to independently study the materials with monthly visits with an OCIA team member.

Participation in OCIA is beneficial for people in many situations:

Those with no faith-based experience.

Those from other denominations who feel that they are being called to discern entry into the Catholic Church.

Baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.

Non-Catholics who are married to a Catholic and would like to learn more about their spouses' faith.

Fully initiated Catholics who feel that their understanding of the basics of the Catholic Church is dated and/or incomplete.

Does this sound like the experience for you or someone you know?
